CANYONVILLE NEWS.

(The Call).

D. W. Hanks has succeeded W. P. Graham in the mercantile business at Perdue. Tiller Bill left for outside points Tuesday.

J. H. Short, the Drew merchant, received a varmint dog from Illinois which comes under a guarantee to "go at 'em." The dog cost $90.

The joint installation of officers for the ensuing year by the Canyonville Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges held last Saturday evening was attended by one of the largest crowds ever present at a fraternal gathering in this part of the county. One hundred and fifteen people were served at the banquet which followed the impressive installation ceremonies, and of that number there were less than a half dozen who were not members or children of Odd Fellows or Rebekahs. Twenty-eight visitors came from Myrtle Creek, six from Riddle and one from Glendale.

Thirty-two of the tin claims on Canyon Creek, from three and a half to four miles from Canyonville, have been pooled and an option on them has been given to E. R. Renfro, who represents a company which wants to purchase and operate the mines. The option expires in 42 days and Mr. Renfro informed the writer that he expected to take it up within a couple of weeks. Mr. Renfro states that if his company buys, active operations will be commenced at once. The options were given last Saturday and the date of expiration will be February 17.

S. T. Frazier was in town last Thursday from Days Creek. Mr. Frazier is among the men who are demonstrating that farming in the South Umpqua Valley pays. He started from the Willamette Valley five years ago for California, but liked the country here so well that he bought one of the Chapman ranches up the river, and is glad of it. Mr. Frazier says he and his brother had 400 acres in the Willamette Valley where they farmed for years. He only has 160 acres here but makes more money than he did on two and one-half times that much land, has better health and a much more pleasant place to live.

C. A. Riddle, editor of the Call, spent Saturday in Roseburg on business. He had not been there in seven years and the growth of the city in that time is surprising. Occasionally an old landmark could be recognized among the smaller business structures. But the best thing we learned in Roseburg is that the business men in general seem to be taking an active interest in this section. They want to know all about our tin mines, power dam, irrigation ditches, etc. The Roseburg papers are doing a lot of good by giving our affairs publicity. Canyonville has a lot of good friends in Roseburg, whose interest will help development.

Riddle Notes.

Dr. W. F. Kaiser will return to Riddle next week and resume his practice here.

Ernest Riddle and George Devin have re-located the Doe Creek copper mines and are now the sole owners.

E. D. Stuller and A. W. Hiester have purchased the motion picture machine and will open up the show in the upper story of the new garage building as soon as it is completed.

Dr. Ransome, it is reported, has a plan to put in a hydro-electric plant to supply Riddle and vicinity from the falls in Cow Creek above Glenbrook farm.

Bert Hartley returned home Saturday from Wenatchee, where he went on a holiday visit. Ferdie Wiseman, an old friend from Cashmere, Wash., accompanied him.

Miss Kittie Mayes went to Divide Sunday to teach a three and a half months' school.

ASK MR. BROWN.

Here's Some Important News for Men Who Are Growing Bald.

People who have taken our word for it that PARISIAN SAGE is the real hair grower, beautifier and dandruff cure have never been disappointed. Here's the word of a person who tok our word:

"I have been using PARISIAN SAGE about a year. When I began to use it I had only a light 'fuzz' on my head. Now I have a good thick growth, and it is growing thicker and longer right along. Many people don't believe it can be done, but I know from my own experience with PARISIAN SAGE that it can. I recommend it in the fullest confidence."—Guinee Brown, 703 North Fillmore St., Maryville, Mo.

The above statement was made to Dr. C. D. Koch of the Koch Pharmacy, Maryville, Mo., April 29, 1911. Large bottle 50 cents at the Red Cross Pharmacy and druggists everywhere. It is guaranteed.

A Hero in a Lighthouse.

For years J. S. Donohue, So. Haven, Mich., a civil war captain, as a lighthouse keeper, averted awful wrecks, but a queer fact is, he might have been a wreck, himself, if Electric Bitters had not prevented. "They cured me of kidney trouble and chills," he writes, "after I had taken other so called cures for years without benefit, and they also improved my sight. Now, at seventy, I am feeling fine." For dyspepsia, indigestion, all stomach, liver and kidney troubles, they're without equal. Try them. Only 50 cents at all druggists. W
