

IMPORTANT TO LADIES.

Announcement Made by Roseburg Cleaning and Pressing Works.

The Roseburg Cleaning and Pressing Works is now prepared to handle all kinds of ladies' work. Roy R. Sloper, experienced in this particular branch of the business, has associated himself with his father at the latter's old established place of business on Jackson street, and will take exclusive charge of and cater to any and all kinds of ladies' work, including the cleaning and pressing of fine dresses, coats, gloves, white shoes, fancy silks, etc.

There will be no change in the heretofore excellent service given to gentlemen's work, but the two branches of the business will be carried on together. Aside from doing all kinds of ladies' and gentlemen's work, this local firm handles the agency for Ed. V. Price, Chicago's leading tailors, and guarantee perfect fit and workmanship. Their new samples for summer are now on display and present some of the handsomest weaves ever shown in Rose-
