At the annual school meeting for District No. 130, held in Sutherlin last Monday, the proposition to vote a 10 mill tax on all the taxable property in the district for the purpose of school maintenance, and the question of teaching the eleventh and twelfth grades were carried by a very large majority; there being but two votes against the first proposition and one against the second. This means that one or two of the rooms on the second floor of the new school building will be finished this summer and additional teachers employed for the coming year. George M. Richman was elected director for three years and F. W. Franz clerk for one year.

RIDDLE NEWS.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Gidney, of Days Creek, have returned to their home after five weeks absence, but Mr. Gidney is not much improved in health.

Mrs. G. S. Harris departed Saturday for Ottawa, Ontario, Canada, to visit at her old home. Her mother is ill, and her brother recently lost a hand by an explosion. She will be away for two months or longer. Her daughter, Ethel, accompanied her.

Mrs. C. E. Schroeder, from Everett, Wash., arrived Tuesday, and will be the guest of her brother, E. A. Bradfield, for several weeks.

Misses Sadie and Effie Houck, of Joseph, Oregon, sister of Mrs. J. W. Kerns, came in Saturday to spend part of the summer's vacation with their sister.

Mrs. Clarence Gazley and daughter, Clare, and son, Clyde, came in Wednesday from Oakland, California, to spend the summer at Riddle and at their prune farm near Canyonville.

At the annual school meeting in the upper district, No. 26, last Monday, A. L. King was elected director for three years and Mrs. Stan Royster was re-elected clerk. The district is in fine financial shape and has money on hand. A teacher for the coming year has not yet been employed. They expect to have not less than eight months school.

W. H. Hartley was unanimously elected director to serve for three years and Will Q. Brown was unanimously re-elected clerk for one year at the annual school meeting of District No. 70, held in Riddle last Monday.

An effort will be made to organize the prune growers this season for the purpose of marketing the coming crop to the best possible advantage. Local men are taking the initiative in this matter, but the call for organization is extended as well to all the growers at Myrtle Creek, Ruckles, the South Umpqua Valley, Canyonville and all the south part of the county.

HOMESTEADERS ASSEMBLE IN ROSEBURG TO FILE LAND ENTRIES SATURDAY.

Homesteaders to the number of 50 or more from four counties in Southern Oregon are assembling in Roseburg preparatory to the opening to entry at the United States land office at 9 o'clock Saturday morning of lands that were squatted on previous to their inclusion in the forest reserve. The lands are of mixed agricultural and timbered character and such of it as is chiefly valuable under the former classification will be subject to entry from intending new settlers in cases where prior right of squatters do not exist.

Specifically, the lands lie in townships 28-2 and 3, east of Myrtle Creek; township 29-10 and township 30-11, in Coos County; township 38-2, in Jackson County, and township 39-12, in Curry County. Some of the squatters have been on their claims over five years, but they have the option of making final proof under the new three-year homestead law, which embraces more liberal provisions than the old five-year law which the former supersedes.

The opening tomorrow will be marked by the first use in this city of the lottery plan which obviates the possibility of the confusion and oftentimes the altercations that attended the land "rush" of days agone. Under this system, initiated by the homesteaders themselves, the intending entrants, instead of lining up before the doors of the land office for all-day and all-night vigils, as they once did, simply go to the land office immediately upon their arrival in this city and secure numbers designating their places in line when the opening occurs, in the meantime reporting in person at the land office twice a day, at 9 o'clock a. m., and 4 p. m.

School director A. T. Marshall is circulating a petition addressed to the city council asking for the construction of a substantial foot-bridge across Deer Creek, at the foot of Pitzer street.
