

NO MERCURY-NO POTASH BUT A CERTAIN SAFE CURE

Do you know why so many Specific Blood Poison Victims are also sufferers of stomach trouble or Rheumatism? It is because they have filled their systems with mercury or potash in an effort to cure the blood disorder. These minerals cannot cure Specific Blood Poison; true such treatment will sometimes temporarily remove the outward symptoms and hold the poison in check but as soon as the minerals are left off the disease breaks out again. Any system saturated with mercury or potash is necessarily weakened and loses much of its resistive powers; it is a dangerous treatment and should be left off by any who are using it. There is a way—a certain way—to cure Specific Blood Poison, and that is to cleanse the blood with S. S. S., made entirely of roots, herbs and barks. It is a perfectly safe treatment for any one and is certain in its good results. S. S. S. has been recognized for many years as the greatest of all blood purifiers and the safest of treatments for blood poison. Most Roseburg housewives use either "Pride of Douglas" or "Queen City" flour. There's a reason for it. Phone 13, Douglas County Mills. If your grocer doesn't carry either kind.

At Burr's Piano Depot, corner Jackson and Oak, on Friday and Saturday, the sale in aid of St. Joseph's Church will come off. Baby and her big sister have things to delight them when they come, but their mama especially will be pleased not to have missed that hour she spent buying cheaply just what she has been looking for.

St. Joseph's congregation will give a dance on Thanksgiving eve, Nov. 27th, at the armory. Tickets are now for sale.

"Tabernacle Shadows of the Better Sacrifices."

This little book is not for the ordinary reader, but most decidedly it is what every advanced Bible Student and earnest Christian should possess and study thoroughly. It costs but Two Cents, is illustrated and draws its lessons on the higher life from the types and shadows of Israel's typical Atonement Day and other sacrifices. Surely every earnest Christian should have this little book and find in it a mine of spiritual wealth, health and refreshment. Order it now from the Bible and Tract Society, 17 Hicks Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

How to Boil Water.

To boil water would seem to be a very simple thing, and yet the late Charles Delmonico used to say that very few people knew how to do it. "The secret is," he said, "in putting good fresh water into a clean kettle already quite warm and setting the water to boiling quickly and then taking it right off for use in tea, coffee or other drinks before it is spoiled. To let it steam and simmer and evaporate until the good water is in the atmosphere and the time and heat makes a great many people sick, and it is worse than no water at all." For water boiled like this and flavored with a few drops of lemon juice Mr. Delmonico used to charge as much as for his best liquors, and he often recommended it to his customers and friends who complained of loss of appetite.

A Bold but Unprofitable Retort.

"I passed that woman in the second floor apartment downtown this afternoon with a wonderful new French hat on, and she had her chin up so high in the air she couldn't see any one she knew," said Mrs. Knox, with a tinge of resentment in her voice, as she began to pave the way to inform her husband that her own old awning was looking disgracefully shabby and ready for the church rummage sale. "That's nothing," retorted Mr. Knox boldly. "When a woman gets a new Paris hat it generally goes to her head." Then he suddenly remembered that he had an engagement and decided this was as good a time as any to keep it.—Kansas City Star.

Didn't Sound Right.

"Ma, what does d stand for?" "Doctor of divinity, my dear. Don't they teach you the common abbreviations in school?" "Oh, yes, but that doesn't seem to sound right here."

Read it out loud, my dear.

My dear (reading)—"Witness—I heard the defendant say, 'I'll make you suffer for this; I'll be doctor of divinity if I don't!'"—Milwaukee Sentinel.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION WINDOW TRANSPARENCY AND CALENDAR FOR 1913.

The publishers of The Youth's Companion will, as always at this season, present to every subscriber whose subscription ($2.00) is paid for 1913, a beautiful souvenir. This year it takes the unique form of a Window Transparency, to be hung in the window or in front of a lighted lamp. Through it the light shines as through the stained glass of a cathedral window, softly illuminating the design—a figure of Autumn laden with fruits; and all around, wreathed in purple clusters of grapes and green foliage, is the circle of the months. It is the most attractive gift ever sent to Companion readers.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

The two leading magazines of the Pacific Coast, the Pacific Monthly and the Sunset, have been consolidated under the title of "Sunset—the Pacific Monthly."

It is the intention of the publishers to spare no money nor effort to make "Sunset—the Pacific Monthly" a credit to the West and a magazine of National value and importance.

To introduce it to new readers we will make the following special offer: Send 50 cents in stamps, and we will put your name on our subscription list for the next four months, and will send you a free copy of the superbly illustrated Mid-Winter number, and also the famous Sunset Indian poster, securely packed in a mailing tube. It will make a beautiful ornament for your front room or den.

Send your order to Fred Lockley, Northwest Manager, "Sunset—the Pacific Monthly," Portland, Oregon.

Be sensible. The readers have common sense.

FARM LAWS OF OREGON

FREE

Every land owner is interested in the farm and livestock laws of the state. A complete compilation of these laws has just been published in a neat volume of about 80 pages, of which The Review has secured a limited number of copies. A copy will be given ABSOLUTELY FREE—while this supply lasts—to every new or old subscriber of this paper who hereafter pays a year's subscription in advance.

This book may be worth to you every year several times the price of a year's subscription. It gives in full the laws relating to crimes against real, personal or public property; crimes against the public health, laws relating to domestic animals of all kinds and the legal restrictions as to how they shall be kept, estrays and impounded animals, diseased or infected animals, shipping requirements, quarantine laws, animals kept for breeding purposes, powers and duties of officers in regard to livestock; lawful fences and gates; homestead exemptions from execution; setting fires and penalties therefor; orchard and fruit laws, shipping requirements, labels, etc.; public roads and all legal matters pertaining thereto; trespass and damages; warehouse laws and regulations and requirements and the duties of shippers. Also the standards of weights and measures of this state. Besides all this there are various miscellaneous matters, such as recovering rails, etc., removed by water; arbitration of differences, bee keeping, registering names of farms, farm libraries, etc.

In its line this is doubtless the most valuable book ever published, and its use will often save paying a good sized fee to an attorney, or the cost of an expensive lawsuit. It is thoroughly indexed so you can turn right to the paragraph wanted, thus saving valuable time. This general information, in a form so easily accessible, is worth several dollars a year.
