The homesteaders and timber claimants have been awarded the final decision in the long drawn out 37-10 land case. The timber lands were claimed by A. D. Daniels and associates, who had placed scrip on them, and also by a number of individuals who proved up on the land under the homestead and timber laws. The litigation has been in progress for about 10 years. It is believed the decision rendered by the Court of Appeals is the last and that the case will not be opened again. The land involved is about 12 miles east of Klamath Falls and is valuable for timber. Many of the settlers gave up and sold out to the scrippers for a small amount. There are a number of quarter sections involved that are worth from $3000 to $5000.

WHAT FOURTH CLASS P. M's. ARE EXPECTED TO KNOW.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Fourth class postmasters must be able to read, count accurately the money they receive, measure the oil cloth on the floors of their offices, and write at least a decipherable letter once in a while, in order to be taken under the wing of the civil service.

In effect, they must have a reasonable understanding of "readin,' 'ritin' and 'rithmetic." This is in accordance with instructions issued today by the Postoffice Department.

Persons who take the examination must be citizens of the United States, over 21 years of age, and reside in the community they aspire to serve. No one must be crazy, dishonest or have been dishonorably discharged from the army or navy.

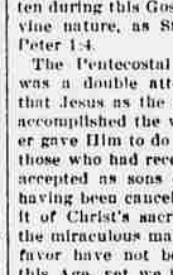
PENTECOST NOT GREAT JUBILEE

Still Greater Blessings Are Coming, Says Pastor Russell.

What the Day of Pentecost Signified. It Was but a Foretaste of a Greater One to Come—Why It Came When It Did—Why the Greater Blessing Will Come and When—Are There Signs That It Is Near?—Times of Refreshing—Times of Restitution—"I Will Pour Out My Spirit Upon All Flesh."



PASTOR RUSSELL

Boston, Mass., May 11.—Pastor Russell gave two addresses here under the auspices of the International Bible Students Association. We report one of these, from the text: "Upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out My Spirit. After this I will pour out My Spirit upon all flesh."—Joel 2:28, 29.

The Pastor called attention to the fact that he had transposed the parts of this text, to make their true meaning more apparent. He declared that the Prophet unquestionably taught two outpourings of the Holy Spirit, only one of which had yet come—that upon God's faithful servants and handmaidens. The second is to be upon all flesh.

Prior to Pentecost, the Pastor said, no one except Jesus had received spirit-begetting—the Holy Spirit of sonship. God had held all humanity at a distance from Himself, declaring that He could not accept them as sons until their sins had been atoned for. This condition of alienation from God had continued for more than four thousand years before Jesus came. Adam was called a son of God, but after him none was so styled until Jesus.

After Jesus had received the Holy Spirit at baptism, He spoke of Himself as the Son of God. Of His disciples we read, "The Holy Spirit was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified." (John 7:39.) Before leaving them, Jesus admonished them to tarry at Jerusalem until endued with power from on High.

When Pentecost Was Fully Come.

For ten days the disciples tarried praying in the upper room, and waiting for the promised demonstration of Divine acceptance. This would indicate that Jesus had appeared in the presence of God, and that the Father had accepted Jesus' sacrifice as a satisfaction for their sins, and by the begetting of the Holy Spirit recognized them as sons. The sonship to which Jesus and the Church have been begotten during this Gospel Age is to the Divine nature, as St. Peter explains.—2 Peter 1:4.

The Pentecostal blessing, therefore, was a double attestation. It proved that Jesus as the great Redeemer had accomplished the work which the Father gave Him to do. It also proved that those who had received the Spirit were accepted as sons of God, original sin having been cancelled through the merit of Christ's sacrifice. And although the miraculous manifestations of God's favor have not been repeated during this Age, yet we know that all of the same class are sharers, participants in the same blessing—the same acceptance of the Father. "The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to His abundant Mercy hath begotten us again."—1 Peter 1:3.

Our faith has its sure footing in that original Pentecostal manifestation. Because the Church is one Body, although composed of many members no repetition of Pentecost has been necessary. As soon as we by consecration come into the one Body, we are sharers in all blessings belonging to that Body, the start of which came on the memorable Pentecost Day. On this basis, the gathering of the Church has progressed for nearly nineteen hundred years. Soon, we believe, it will be completed. The last member having proved faithful and passed beyond the veil, the Body thenceforth will be complete in glory—united to the Head.

The Greater Jubilee.

To the Church, Pentecost represents liberation from the thralldom of sin and death, as well as introduction into the family of God. Thus it signifies the beginning of all the blessings which the people of God have known. These are expressed in various spiritual terms as the fruits of the Spirit, fellowship with God and our Lord.

The Pastor explained that those wonderful blessings are not complete. The resurrection change from imperfection in the flesh to perfection on the spirit plane will be the consummation of the Church's hopes. Although near, this has not yet been attained.

God purposely deferred the secondary outpouring of His Holy Spirit—that upon the world—"all flesh," until the establishment of His Kingdom. That will be a great Jubilee. In Israel's experiences, every fiftieth year was a Jubilee. Every Israelite was set free from bondage and from debts of every kind, and had a fresh start. God thus pictured how during Messiah's glorious reign as Mediator of the New Covenant, God will, on account of Jesus' sacrifice, cancel the sins of the whole world, and grant a release from all weaknesses, and assistance back to the fulness of Divine favor. What a Jubilee that will be!

Ex-Mayor Jones, of Redmond, has been convicted for gambling. Last Fall when the Governor began a crusade against vice and law violators Mayor Jones was forced to quit his office because of the charges against him.

Upon a specific charge of stealing $40, H. C. Kentner, a leading dry goods merchant of Medford, has been served with a warrant. Business associates, upon whose move the warrant was issued, say that Kentner's alleged peculations will amount to $12,000. Kentner is alleged to have raised his salary from $175 to $300 a month without authority from the directors of the H. C. Kentner Company, of which he was the majority stockholder, and is said to have drawn heavy amounts from the company in addition.

PIGEONS FLY 2000 MILES.

PENDLETON, Or., May 10—From Whitesville, Mo., to Pendleton, over 2000 miles, is the record flight made recently by four homing pigeons which are now on the L. G. Pell ranch on Birch Creek. Not long ago Mrs. Pell sent the four pigeons to N. G. Rodecker, of Whitesville, and after keeping them penned up for awhile the latter released them. That was the last he saw of them. Finally he wrote to Mrs. Pell, who upon investigation, found the birds in her dovecot. She had fastened tags upon their legs and could easily identify them.
