"Patronize home industry" is a mighty good slogan to live up to. It is consistent in this as well as in other things and patronize home advertisers too.

What a change has been brought about in this city in the past five years, mainly through the paving of eight or ten miles of our principal streets. Now all our visitors remark upon the substantial appearance of the city and especially upon our excellent streets. A few years ago the conditions were just the reverse, and then many a well deserved "knock" was the result. The beautiful situation of Roseburg is also more and more commented upon by our visitors. In fact our own people do not seem to fully realize the natural beauty of our surroundings. Southern California, which has become a veritable Mecca for tourists, cannot compare in scenic beauty to this part of Oregon. Yet that region is receiving from $30,000,000 to $40,000,000 annually from the people who go there largely on account of the climate and scenery. In order to get those tourists to come here we must make these natural beauties known and provide facilities for their enjoyment.

INSIDIOUS LOBBY PROBE

Medford Mail Tribune: In causing the "Insidious" lobby investigation, President Wilson has not only seriously crippled the interests endeavoring to prevent the passage of the new tariff bill, but has familiarized the general public with the methods used to thwart desired legislation.

Publicity is the great remedy for public wrongs perpetrated by special interests. Had Grover Cleveland realized it, he would have not only been able to force through his tariff bill without surrendering to the trusts, but by it, he could have prevented, by exposure, the financial conspiracy that precipitated the panic.

Publicity has not only destroyed the effectiveness of the lobby, but has exposed the connection existing between interests and legislators. It has shown how permanent lobbies are maintained at the National Capital to color legislation. It has shown how this influence is obtained and extended. Its results are summarized in the Public as follows:

(1) Protected interests have lobby headquarters at Washington directing agents throughout the country to bring pressure to bear on Congressmen and to spread wrong views on tariff matters.

(2) Ex-Congressmen are abusing the floor privileges accorded them to solicit individual aid to their former colleagues for certain interests.

(3) Senators shown to be financially interested in keeping up tariff rates are grouped as follows:

Coal—Catron of New Mexico, Fall of New Mexico, Goff of West Virginia, Root of New York.

Oil—Goff of West Virginia.

Lead—Catron and Fall of New Mexico, Root of New York.

Iron ore—Stephenson of Wisconsin.

Zinc—Catron and Fall of New Mexico.

Steel products—Jackson of Maryland.

Wool—Catron and Fall of New Mexico, Shields of Tennessee, Smoot of Utah and Warren of Wyoming.

Cotton—Jackson of Maryland, Johnson of Maine, Phipps of Rhode Island, Simmons of North Carolina, Smith of Georgia and Ransdell of Louisiana.

Timber—Simmons of North Carolina and Stephenson of Wisconsin.

An individual or a corporation has every right to a hearing on legislation affecting him or it—but there is a vast difference between such lobbying and that practiced by paid agents at Washington and state capitols. And yet even the limited lobbying practiced today is comparatively harmless compared to that of a few years ago when corruption was openly practiced and legislators bought and sold like cattle.

Public opinion no longer tolerates in public life things winked at a few years ago. Public office is more than ever a public trust, but only the limelight of publicity can keep it so.

Taft failed because of his lack of faith in the people whom he deemed his inferiors. Wilson will succeed because of his faith in the people and his desire that nothing affecting them be hidden. By publicity alone—a weapon Taft disdained—Wilson can route all opposition.

Mother Had the Failing Ton.

The visitor had dropped in "just for a minute," but she remained about three hours after the minute was up. Little Freddie had formed several plans, the execution of which must be postponed till the departure of his mother's guest. So he sat quietly thinking things.

"Dear little man?" gushed the visitor. "And what is he thinking about so deeply?"

"I was wondering if it wasn't time for you to be going," said Freddie.

"Hush!" said his mother. Then, turning to her guest: "You mustn't be offended, Mrs. Smith. Children will go blurring out the truth without thinking. But they don't mean anything by it."

Strangely enough, it was just then that Mrs. Smith recollected that she had only three minutes in which to catch the last car home.—London Telegraph.

EVERY STREET IN ROSEBURG.

Has Its Share of the Proof That Kidney Sufferers Seek.

Backache? Kidneys weak? Distressed with urinary ills? Want a reliable kidney remedy? Don't have to look far. Use what Roseburg people recommend. Every street in Roseburg has its cases.

Here's one Roseburg man's experience:

W. Stapleton, prop. restaurant, of Sheridan St., says: "Some months ago kidney and bladder trouble started with me. There were awful pains through my kidneys and they hurt me so that I could scarcely move. I had to quit work and go home. Bladder trouble came on, principally at night, and what I suffered was something fierce. A friend recommended Doan's Kidney Pills and I tried them after other medicine I used had failed me. They helped me from the first, and after finishing two boxes I was practically cured of kidney and bladder trouble."

Georgia Jubilee Singers

Carter's Georgia Jubilee Singers have won for themselves a reputation as wide as the Union and everywhere they appear they leave a host of warm friends in their wake. Each member of this capable company is an artist and many of them are soloists of a high type. Off the platform as well as on it they are pleasing and gracious in their bearing and always win warm approval for themselves.

There is something different in the happy lit of the Southern negro voice and to hear them is to drift away on one's imagination to the home of the nightingale over the field of cotton. This company has a repertoire of the latest music but almost invariably their greatest hits are made with old time favorites: "Steal Away," "Roll, Jordan, Roll," "Nellie Gray," etc. After all there is no music like that of past times and these colored folks know and make the most of this fact.

Jubilee Singers seem especially happily placed on the Chautauqua platform, because it is so wholly informal. Their music well illustrates the general tone of the meeting and through the East where the Chautauqua is strongest no program is considered quite complete without the Jubilee Singers. Let's give them a good turn out while they are here.
