The Best Cough Medicine.

"We have been using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past month and consider it an indispensable. Its effect is almost instantaneous, and there is no use talking. It is a dead shot on a cough or cold. We do not say this for pay but because we consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the best made, and want the people to know it and use it."—Columbus Safeguard, Columbus Junction, Iowa. The above editorial appeared in the Columbus Safeguard almost forty years ago. At that time the sale and use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was confined to a few counties in Iowa. It now enjoys a world wide reputation and many thousands have testified to its excellence. For sale by all dealers. C

Readers of The Review will be given an opportunity to make a handsome collection of pennants at a nominal cost. Through a wholesale contract with one of the largest pennant manufacturers in the world, this paper has been able to purchase a series of beautiful pennants at such a low rate that it will sell them to its readers for fifteen cents (15 cents) each.

The Sixth pennant to be offered in this series is Cornell, a picture of which appears in this ad. The pennant is of the best felt and is 36 inches long and 15 inches wide at the base.

Such a pennant ordinarily sells for 75 cents. This Cornell pennant will be offered by The Review for one week only. After that time a new subject will be offered. Watch the papers each week for the announcement of the various subjects.

Persons who desire to make a collection of these magnificent pennants should clip the coupons from The Review and present them at the business office with 15 cents.

Those who reside out of town can get them by parcel post.

No one can afford to be without a collection of these pennants. The subjects will all be dignified and the pennants correct as to color and detail. Many are made into table and lounge covers, wall blankets, portiers and home ornaments.

Come to The Review office and inspect one of the popular pennants now being offered. A glance will persuade you that no such bargain has previously been offered to home decorators. Clip the coupons, as they are valuable.

All you have to do is to clip the pennant coupon which appears in today's paper, and bring it to this office with 15 cents. Only one Pennant with each coupon. Send it to us with 20c, the extra 5c being to cover cost of mailing.
