LANE COUNTY SHERIFF NABS A BOOTLEGGER.

Another man accused of bootlegging was arrested today by Sheriff Parker, who invaded Douglas County and arrested C. W. Brown without any warrant except that issued in Lane County. When he got him across the Lane County line he placed him legally under arrest, and the man is in jail, charged with illicit sale of liquor in this city. The officers claim that they have made an important arrest in the effort to break up the sale of liquor. Brown has been in Eugene for some time past, says the Guard.

Parker found Brown in a hobo camp, and surprised him when cooking his breakfast this morning. The latter did not know a warrant was out for his arrest.

"Hello, Brown," exclaimed the Sheriff, good naturedly, coming up from behind, "you're just the man I want."

"Waddeyu want me for?"

"Oh, I've got a warrant out for your arrest, charging you with bootlegging."

The officers have been searching for Brown for over a week. J. Harrison was arrested in Eugene a week ago with seven gallon bottles of liquor. Harrison was supposed to be buying the liquor in Southern Oregon and bringing it here for sale by Brown. The liquor was confiscated by the officers. Harrison was released on the understanding that Brown was to be caught.

Last night Parker heard that Brown was in Drain. He arrived in Drain to learn that Brown had just left via the railroad track. Parker followed in the direction indicated, and found an empty hobo camp. But just over the hill he heard a slight noise and there was Brown cooking his breakfast.

The prisoner was arraigned in the Justice Court this afternoon and waived examination and the date of his preliminary hearing was set for tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Style View

We have selected from the leading styles of the leading makers because we know your wants—some of you wish a touch of the extreme—some the most conservative. You are to judge how well we have served you. We want you to look at the new Spring Styles—buy or not, as you please.

Business View

This store aims to serve you in this broad-value way and the early season buyer derives most from service and satisfaction. This more than offsets the saving in buying late season pickups. Why be uncomfortable for two or three months?

IN THE WORLD OF SPORT

Special Extra; McGraw Has Already Won 1914 Pennant.

Johnny McGraw, manager of the New York National baseball team, has already won the pennant for 1914. Mac says his lineup has all the other teams "beaten a mile" and that with Pitcher Mathewson in the shape he has shown in practice he should establish a new record for winning games.

The Giants have taken several minor leaguers south for tryouts.

Chicago Boating Dates.

Members of the Boat Owners' association of the Chicago Yacht club gathered recently for their last dinner and business meeting of the winter season. Chairman James O. Heyworth presided and introduced several speakers, who outlined plans for next summer's events, while Captain Clark, commandant of the United States naval training station at Lake Bluff, related some of his experiences during the early days of the navy.

President C. Fred Weed of the Lake Michigan Yachting association announced for the first time the official schedule as drawn up by the controlling body of the sport in that section. The schedule follows:

May 30—Official opening of all clubs.
June 6—Open.
June 13—Open.
June 20—Michigan City race, auspices Columbia Yacht club.
June 26, 27, 28—Triangular cruising race to St. Joe, Michigan City and Chicago, auspices Chicago Yacht club.
July 4—L. M. Y. A. open regatta, auspices Lincoln Park Yacht club.
July 11—Lipton trophy race.
July 18—Open.
Aug. 1—Mackinac cruising race, auspices Chicago Yacht club.
Aug. 7—Sail and power boat cruise to White Lake, auspices White Lake Yacht club.
Aug. 15—Open.
Aug. 28, 21, 22—Lipton cup races, auspices Columbia Yacht club.
Aug. 29—Michigan City race, auspices Jackson Park Yacht club.
Sept. 5, 6, 7—Stratford hotel trophy race, St. Joe and return, auspices Columbia Yacht club.
Sept. 12—Open fall regatta, auspices Columbia Yacht club.

Wolverenes May Lose Star.

Because he played two years on the nine of Cornell college in Iowa John W. Cory, star outfielder on the Michigan varsity ball squad in 1913, may be barred from further competition for Michigan because of the rule which prohibits a player serving more than three years in collegiate athletics.

The athletic authorities are now investigating Cory's case and are to report in a short time. The loss of Cory will be a severe blow to the batting strength of the diamond squad, as he had been relied upon to take the place at the head of the batting list left vacant by Captain Bell of last year's team.

Rich Kentucky Derby.

The Kentucky Derby will be the richest race in the forty years' history of this classic event. Secretary Lyman H. Davis has announced the conditions of the coming big event, and for the first time in the history of the race $10,000 in added money is given by the New Louisville Jockey club. This with the subscription and starting moneys will make the old fashioned classic a $15,000 race this season.

The greatest amount ever added before to the big race was in 1913, when $5,000 was given.

Mainleaf Sold For $13,500.

Mainleaf, 2:08¼, a three-year-old trotting stallion, brought a high price at the annual horse sales at Lexington, Ky., recently, when he was purchased by John W. Trimble of Mount Sterling, Ky., for $13,500. Mainleaf was one of the leading performers in the trotting world while a two-year-old, and his former owner, James R. Magowan of Kentucky, had received several offers for the stallion from two foreign governments.

WAGE DRY CAMPAIGN IN PACIFIC COAST STATES.

WESTERVILLE, Ohio, April 2.—The campaign that is being waged by the Anti-Saloon League of America in Washington, California, Oregon and Colorado for state-wide prohibition is a part of the general program of that organization for National prohibition. It is for that especial reason that the National organization is making the fight of its life in these states.

During April and May, the strongest orators the league can secure are to hold great mass meetings at all the principal western points as "openers" for the general contest that will be waged.

Ernest H. Cherrington general manager of the more than forty periodicals of the league, is now on the coast making business arrangements in the four states for the details of the campaign. A part of this program will be the installation of a four-state literary bureau at either Seattle or Portland, in which a force of writers and cartoonists will be employed to furnish every newspaper in these pivotal states with up to date information regarding the progress of the fight. A free plate service will be established for all local weeklies that desire the information in that form. A telegraph service will also be instituted.

It is a part of this National program, also, that led up to the decision a few days ago to establish a dry daily newspaper at Washington, D. C., the first issue of which will be on the day that Congress meets in December. With this daily, and with the forty weeklies and bi-weeklies, the league proposes to carry the fight for a saloonless Nation into every Congressional district in the United States. Congressmen who have supported a dry proposal will be vigorously supported for re-election, and Congressmen who opposed or knifed the dry policy will be just as vigorously fought in their own districts.

"The Congressman who sides with the people against the brewery corporations will be supported with every resource that our 150 branch offices can muster, and the other fellows will find that there is still a God ruling over Israel," declares National Superintendent Dr. Purley A. Baker. Dr. Baker has just returned from a preliminary tour over the Pacific states and declares that "the saloon is doomed on the whole Pacific Coast."

It is believed by the National leaders that a dry victory in the Western states this year will create such a tremendous impetus for National prohibition as will be well-nigh irresistible.

HEALTHY HAIR—NO MORE DANDRUFF.

Use Parisian Sage.

It's entirely needless to have unsightly, matted, thin or faded hair. A little care is all that is needed to made it thick, soft, pretty, perfectly healthy and free from dandruff.

Use Parisian Sage—it supplies hair needs and is absolutely harmless. It quickly stops itching head and falling hair, and is one of the best tonics to invigorate the scalp and make the hair grow long and beautiful.

Get a bottle of Parisian Sage today from the Red Cross Pharmacy or at any drug counter. It costs but 50 cents. Rub it into the scalp—all dandruff disappears—your head feels fine—the hair is pretty and perfectly healthy.
