Attorneys J. O. Watson and George Neuner appear for the plaintiffs.

Local railroad employes are today distributing among the business men of the city a statement of facts regarding the probable strike of all engineers, firemen and hostlers on the Western railroads. The pamphlet contains figures which tend to indicate that the railroads are today earning more than ever before, while the expense of operating has decreased. The pamphlet is very interesting as well as instructive, and gives some recent figures relative to the wealth of the railroads operating in all sections of the West.

What is the difference between Mary's little lamb then and now?

Fully one hundred years.
If Mary still has that little lamb, she so long ago did keep, we figure that little lamb ere this has grown to be a sheep!
That Mary sold her lamb to us,
Need not be among your fears;
The lamb and mutton purchased here,
Is all of tender years!
