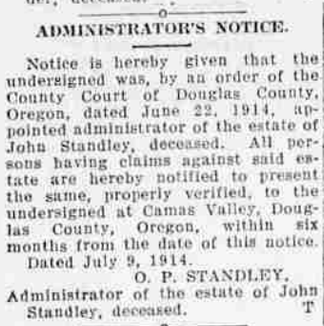
What is the difference between Mary's little lamb then and now?



Fully one hundred years.
If Mary still has that little lamb, she so long ago did keep, we figure that little lamb ere this has grown to be a sheep!
That Mary sold her lamb to us,
Need not be among your fears;
The lamb and mutton purchased here,
Is all of tender years!

Harry Pearce and wife spent Sunday afternoon in the country districts where Mr. Pearce enjoyed the sport of catching a nice string of fish.

C. W. Clark and Henry Harth were visitors at Lone Rock ferry yesterday. They caught a fine string of fish and report a most enjoyable time.

Edward Peyton, a local Southern Pacific engineer, leaves for the mountains Friday night, where he will spend two weeks. He will be accompanied by his family.

The Fruit Growers' motto: "We must hang together, or verily, we shall all hang separately." Buying or selling, the principle is the same.

A. S. Ireland, of Olalla, spent the day in Roseburg looking after business matters. He reports good crops in the Olalla vicinity, with everyone hard at work harvesting.

Mrs. Henry Harth and son, Phillip, leave here tomorrow or Wednesday for Portland, where they will secure a new Buick automobile. They will run the car back to Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Sanford will entertain a party of young people from Roseburg at their "Sunny Slope" home beyond Edenbower, this evening. About 25 will attend and will make the trip by automobile.

W. E. Buell and wife until recently residents of Eugene, arrived here this morning to spend a few days. They formerly lived in Roseburg. Mr. Buell recently lost his barber shop by fire and is in search of a suitable location.

F. S. Scritsmer and James Danaher, of Portland, and John Throne, of Memphis, Tenn., arrived here on Sunday evening, after a few days spent in Coos County. The gentlemen are owners of extensive interests in Coos County and went there to inspect the same. They continued their journey north today.

The members of the Ely family, who were recently injured when their automobile left the road 16 miles south of Rosesburg and plunged down an embankment, continue to improve, according to word received here today. Little Nina Ely, two years of age, who was the most seriously injured of the party, will be able to travel in a few days. The family is at present housed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Burnett, near Round Prairie.

Now is your opportunity to procure a summer home in the town of Westlake, situated on the shore of the beautiful Tsiltcoos Lake. Easy payments. George Riter, agent, 122 West Oak street.

Judge Wm. Galloway, grand master of the I. O. O. F. of Oregon, was here this forenoon enroute north, after visiting the lodges at Florence, Gardiner, and those in Coos County. He visits at Cottage Grove tonight and Junction Tuesday night. He is accompanied by Mrs. Galloway, who will institute a Rebekah lodge at Shedds Wednesday night. Judge Galloway is also a nominee for Supreme Judge of Oregon and is popular throughout the state.

Al P. Gibbs' ladies' baseball club will play in Roseburg on Sunday, August 9, according to the advance agent, who arrived in Roseburg this morning. The club carries a number of fast players and a good game may be expected. They will be opposed by the Roseburg Regulars. The ladies travel in their own private Pullman car, and are at present touring the Pacific Coast. That the game will be well attended there is little doubt. Jack Harvey is the advance agent.

The members of the County Court met in special session at the courthouse this morning with the expectancy of receiving several bids for the improvement of approximately 6000 feet of road at Rice Hill. Contrary to expectations but one bid was received. This proposal was submitted by Harry Hildeburn, a local contractor, and was in the sum of $3800. The bid was considered excessive by the court and was rejected. Inasmuch as the court has been unable to secure satisfactory bids for the improvement of its roads the grading and other improvements will hereafter be done under the direction of the court and the county engineer.

William Hulen has returned from Mule Creek, where he spent the past few days prospecting. Attorney W. W. Cardwell, who accompanied him there, will not return to Roseburg until the middle of August. While away Mr. Cardwell intends to spend some time at Gold Beach, where the grand jury will investigate the case against Riley Cooley, charged with murder. Attorney Cardwell has been retained by Mr. Cooley, and in the event the latter is indicted he will appear for him at the time of the trial, which will probably be held at the county seat of Curry County in August. Cooley is now in San Francisco, where he is employed.

Jordan, Hugh Martin, Lu E. Martin and E. Claude Steveus, as directors and trustees of Sterling Lumber Company, a corporation, also all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien, or interest in the real estate described in the Amended Complaint herein, defendants.

To Sterling Lumber Company, a corporation, Starr Lumber Company, a corporation, Bishop Lumber Company, a corporation, Albion Lumber Company, a corporation, Lester Woodard and Lydia E. Woodard, his wife, and Lester Woodard, Gilbert A. Daniels, Laurence Hough, Charles R. Jordan, Hugh Martin, Lu E. Martin and E. Claude Stevens, as directors and trustees of Sterling Lumber Company, a corporation, also all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien, or interest in the real estate described in the Amended Complaint on file herein.

In the name of the state of Oregon, You are hereby required to appear and answer the amended complaint filed against you in the above entitled court and cause on or before the 13th day of August, 1914, being six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, and if you fail to so appear and answer said amended complaint for want thereof plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in said amended complaint, a succinct statement of which is as follows, to-wit: For judgment against the defendant Lester Woodard in the sum of Four Hundred Twenty and 10-100 ($420.10) Dollars, with interest from the 9th day of May, 1914, at six per cent (6 per cent) per annum, and the further sum of Thirty-two Hundred Dollars ($3200.00), with interest at six per cent (6 per cent) per annum from the 12th day of May, 1909, and the further sum of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00), with interest at six per cent (6 per cent) per annum from the 12th day of May, 1909, and the further sum of One Hundred Fifty and 02-100 ($150.02), with interest at six per cent (6 per cent) per annum from the 12th day of May, 1909, and the further sum of One Hundred Fifty and 02-100 ($150.02), with interest at six per cent (6 per cent) per annum from the 12th day of May, 1909, and the costs and disbursements of this suit, and for a decree foreclosing the mortgage described in said amended complaint on the following real property in Douglas County, Oregon, to-wit:

The southeast quarter (SE¼) of Section twenty-two (22); the northwest quarter (NW¼) of Section twenty-six (26), and the northeast quarter of the northeast quarter (NE¼ NE¼) of Section twenty-seven (27), all in Township thirty (30) S. R. seven (7) West, W. M.; also the timber on the following real property in Douglas County, Oregon, to-wit: The southeast quarter of the northwest quarter (SE¼ NW¼); southwest quarter of the northeast quarter (SW¼ NE¼) of Section twelve (12); the northeast quarter of the northeast quarter (NE¼ NE¼), and the southwest quarter of the northeast quarter (SW¼ NE¼) of Section fourteen (14), Township thirty (30) south of Range seven (7) West, W. M.; the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter (NE¼ NW¼) of Section seven (7), in Township thirty (30), S. R. six (6) West, W. M., together with the right to enter upon said lands and remove said timber for a period of fifteen (15) years from and after the 16th day of April, 1907, with the free access to the said premises and to all parts of the same for the purpose of removing said timber and the right to construct roads over and across the same and use any and all machinery and appliances for the purpose of removing the said timber.

And directing the premises therein described be sold in the manner provided by law for the sale of real property upon execution and the proceeds thereof be applied to the satisfaction:

First, to the costs and disbursements of said sale and of this suit, and of said sum of Four Hundred Twenty and 10-100 ($420.10) Dollars paid for taxes and the up-keep of said premises, with interest.

Second, of the amounts due and owing, principal and interest in the order hereinbefore named and the overplus, if any there be, pay over to the said Lester Woodard or whomsoever the court may find rightfully entitled thereto, and for a decree that the defendants and each and every one thereof and all persons claiming by, through or under them, or either of them, and all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real estate herein described be forsix (6) weeks, the time prescribed in said order.
