The Roseburg Garage last week purchased an automobile owned by L. A. Roberts, of Portland, but which for some time had been stored in a barn near Winston, and will build it over into a trouble car, for the purpose of assisting touring parties who have become disabled on the road. The car was formerly used on the race track and had a speed of 90 miles an hour. In rebuilding it the power will be reduced and a work bench will be placed on the car, making it ready for any emergency.

Marshfield Record: Mrs. Lynn Lambeth left this afternoon and goes to Roseburg, where Mr. Lambeth has been for the past week. They will return to Marshfield by way of Portland. Sheriff W. W. Gage, who is in the city today, is offering a reward of $100 for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the parties who have been holding up automobiles and the Empire saloon and committing other depredations of similar nature in this vicinity within the past few months. The reward is not large, yet it is of sufficient size, perhaps, to attract some of the holdups who may believe they have been given the worst in the division of proceeds.

Coos Bay Times: V. C. Gorst, Capt. Cornwall and Barrett Brothers have formed a partnership to inaugurate an auto stage between Coos Bay and the Siuslaw, beginning about October 1. The line will be a continuation of the service between the Bay and the Umpqua. Capt. Cornwall will maintain his Drain stage line, but the new line is planned to connect up with the train service on the Coos Bay-Eugene line, which is to be extended to Mapleton some time next month. From Florence to Glendale, river boats will handle the traffic to Mapleton, a distance of about 15 miles. They have a number of Ford cars for the run, and plan to make the trip between the Siuslaw and Coos Bay in five hours.

Glendale News: Last Saturday a colored man, giving the name of Riley Dixon, tried to get into an altercation with H. Stephens, of the Dewey hotel. Dixon, who had been drinking, accused Stephens of taking his guitar. Dixon drew a knife and made threats as to what he would do to Mr. Stephens and the city officers, until taken charge of by the police. Jim Hayes took the colored gentleman to Roseburg and at the hearing Dixon was placed under a $200 bond. Failing to have the same, he was placed in the jail at Roseburg, awaiting trial.

Effecting an entrance through a rear window, some unknown person or persons late last night entered the home of Ben Caldwell, situated a short distance west of the Southern Pacific railroad tracks, and appropriated two suits of men's clothes and about $35 in money. The robbery was discovered early this morning when Mr. Caldwell, who is employed in the Southern Pacific yards nights, returned to his home. The theft was reported to the Sheriff's office and an effort is being made to apprehend the guilty parties. The money which was stolen from Mr. Caldwell was in the pockets of his clothing.

Marshfield Record: Officers of the Twin Cities Lumber Company found an attempt had been made to burglarize their safe when they opened for business this morning in North Bend. The office of the company is on which stands near the railroad tracks at the Porter mill and is an isolated place in the night time. Whether or not the parties who broke the safe succeeded in opening it is not known this morning, since the door was closed and there was no means of opening the same. The person or persons who entered the office broke a window sash and the panes of glass and climbed through the opening. The damage to the safe, so far as known, consists of a broken knob, which was evidently knocked off with a sledge hammer. The pinion which held the knob was driven back into the safe and it is probable the owners will have much trouble in getting the door open.

Local friends and admirers of Bud Anderson are waiting for news of the result of his engagement at the Pendleton Roundup, this week. The consensus of opinion in this section is that something should be done to prevent Bud from donating another pair of boxing gloves. Bud, in an interview in a Portland paper, places his net earnings in the ring at $10,000. More of the same may be the magnet for him to return.

Norman Richardson, of Drain, was brought here Saturday night suffering from injuries of the head and face. It appears that the lad was caring for a horse, when the animal suddenly whirled and kicked him. The hoof struck the boy's head and he was hurled violently to the ground. He was unconscious for a time, but finally recovered sufficiently to be able to come to Roseburg for treatment. He is now at Mercy Hospital.

Salem Statesman: John B. Coffey, County Clerk of Multnomah County, was told by the Attorney-General yesterday that where the question of state-wide prohibition was voted on at the next election the polls should be open from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m. Mr. Coffey was under the impression that the law applying to voting under local option would apply in the coming election also as regards the prohibition amendment and that the polls would have to be open only from 8 a. m. to 7 p. m. for the wet and dry issue. The Attorney-General stated that the prohibition amendment was a measure voted on at the general election and that consequently the polls should be open for it as they are for other measures.

Foresight is Better Than Hindsight

Property Well Bought Is Opportunity Capitalized

Do you want a real investment with the assurance in sight of a greatly increased value?

SUTHERLIN today has the assurance of another railroad (actually at work grading) and large saw mills which will create a Pay Roll of Over One Million Dollars a year to begin with, and Three Thousand Acres of commercial apple and pear orchards, a large part of which are just entering the bearing period, will soon add Another Million to the Pay Roll.

It would be good foresight to buy a few town lots or choice fruit tracts before any advance in price is made.

Hindsight will only confirm after it is too late to act.
