Dr. R. G. McCall came down from Glendale last evening to look after business matters.

Charles and Alfred Parker, of Davenport, Iowa, have arrived here to remain permanently.

Mrs. J. M. Trefren and two children left this morning for a visit at Grants Pass and Ashland.

Judge and Mrs. J. W. Hamilton left this morning for Glendale, where they spent the day with friends.

Miss Helen Hamilton will leave tomorrow morning for Newport where she will spend a week or two.

Mrs. C. S. Heinline underwent a nasal operation this morning, Dr. A. C. Seely being in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hamilton, of Portland, arrived here last evening to spend a few days with friends.

Mrs. R. A. Alexander, of San Francisco, arrived here this morning for a visit with Miss Mary Swinney.

G. W. France, of Ten Mile, was a visitor in the city today, having business matters needing attention.

Mrs. G. H. Pullen, of Jasper, arrived here last evening and will visit with her father, W. H. Bond, at Peel.

L. E. West, a Tacoma stockbuyer, spent the day in Roseburg conferring with George Kohlhaugen, a local butcher.

Mrs. M. W. Miller and two children, of Myrtle Point, left here this morning for Wilbur to visit Mrs. Miller's mother.

R. H. Flosser, of the city engineer's office, went to Dilhard this morning, where he will have charge of some farm surveying.

D. Osborne, of Portland, who had been enjoying an outing in the timbered districts near here, left this morning for Cottage Grove.

Mrs. M. M. Brumbach, of Deer Creek, who had been visiting for some time in Portland and Ferrysdale, arrived home last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Patton, of Portland, arrived in Roseburg last evening to visit a short time with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Smith.

Glendale News: H. Hunter, a Pullman conductor on No. 13, was taken seriously ill Thursday and was forced to leave the train and go to the Sanatorium.

Mrs. Wade Wilson and two children, who had been visiting a few days here with Mrs. John Culver, left this morning on her return to Weaver-ville, Cal.

Mrs. Helen T. Alden and baby, of Decatur, Mich., who had been visiting with H. E. Gurney and family at Winchester, leave tonight on their return home.

The regular meeting of Reno Post, G. A. R., and the Women's Relief Corps was held in the new armory this afternoon. Only routine business was transacted.

Attorney John T. Long accompanied his brother, Frank, and the latter's wife to Cleveland this morning, where they will spend a day visiting with Mrs. Anna M. Long.

Mr. A. Hochstrasser, of San Francisco, and her sister, Mrs. E. J. Hanzlik, of Olympia, Wash., who had been visiting here several days, left this morning to visit with their sister, Mrs. C. E. Adams, at Sutherlin.

Corvallis Gazette: Miss Floy Beals left recently for Canyonville, Southern Oregon, on a visit to her grandmother, Mrs. L. C. Beals, and other relatives in that vicinity. She expects to be away several weeks.

Marshfield Record: Ray Ollivant has returned from a camping trip in Brewster Valley. While away he also visited with Fred Weaver and family, who are now living on a ranch in that vicinity.

Ashland Record: Earl Lander, old time Ashland boy, now in the United States Navy, passed through here Tuesday in charge of a body of training apprentices bound for Honolulu. His assignment is with the torpedo boat Farragut.

A. L. Lee, formerly of Yoncalla, was here today looking after business matters. He is expecting to leave next week with his family for Vale, Eastern Oregon, where he recently acquired a farm in exchange for the one at Yoncalla. Mr. Lee has lived in Douglas County for many years.

J. W. Perkins and George Skiff left this morning for Eugene where they will secure the car recently left by Mr. Perkins on his return from Newport. Owing to the rains at that time Mr. Perkins decided to await better weather before bringing the car home. They expect to return this afternoon.

Large and attractive posters announcing the coming of "The Birth of a Nation," which appears at the Antlers theater here on August 3, are being scattered about the city today. This production carries a 50-piece orchestra and is considered the most wonderful attraction ever brought to Roseburg.

S. K. Sykes, the hardware merchant, this morning received a letter from a Minneapolis resident asking for information regarding Roseburg's proposed railroad and sawmill. In the event these industries are established here the gentleman said he expected to come to Roseburg to make his future home.

A. J. Warnock and niece, Miss Crystal Warnock, formerly of Lincoln County, returned here last evening after a short visit at their former home and expect to remain here indefinitely. Mr. Warnock several weeks ago acquired the W. A. Taylor property in this city, giving in exchange a valuable ranch.

GOING TO MEDFORD.

Dr. Tucker and son, Jack, of Portland, arrived here last night by automobile enroute to Medford, where they will pass a few days. They had intended to remain in Roseburg for a couple of days to visit with Dr. Seiber, but their plans were changed when the found that the latter was at present out of town. They will stop here enroute home and will probably enjoy a couple of days fishing on the North Umpqua River. Dr. Tucker performed an operation on Dr. A. C. Seely at the time the latter was seriously ill a few years ago.

BEEETS ARE INSPECTED.

F. S. Bramwell, field superintendent for the sugar factory, was in Glendale Thursday, accompanied by K. Mizoguchi, who has charge of all the Jap laborers in the beet fields, says the Glendale News. Mr. Bramwell inspected the beet fields up Cow Creek and reports that they are looking fine. He says that the beets have the best bottoms for this early in the season of any field he has seen in 15 years.

GLENDALE BOY HURT.

Loren Stevens, the little stepson of W. H. Dyer, was brought to the Sanatorium Wednesday from Myrtle Creek by Mrs. Dyer for treatment, says the Glendale News. On July 14th the boy jumped from a porch and injured his leg, but at the time it was not thought to be broken. Dr. Knott examined the limb with his X-ray machine and found that the bones above the knee were broken and the ends pushed their way past each other. The doctor made a fresh break and set the bones and the boy seems to be getting along nicely. Mr. Dyer is employed at the Lystal mill.

RETURNS FROM ALASKA.

Frank Jordan returned from Seward, Alaska, last Sunday, says the Glendale News. Mr. Jordan says Messrs. Stevenson, Coudrey and Boone Redfield are still in Alaska, but that Scott Bailey is on his way home. Mr. Redfield will work his placer mine this summer. Asked as to conditions in Alaska, Mr. Jordan says that there are hundreds of extra workmen waiting for jobs. At Seward you can get a steak, potatoes and coffee for 50 cents. Mr. Jordan is of the opinion that Alaska is not the proper place for a man of advanced age, and he will prospect in Southern Oregon this summer and fall.
