MRS. CLARENCE FARHAM TAKEN ILL IN PORTLAND The first of last week Dr. Field received a message from Portland to the effect that his sister-in-law, Mrs. Clarence Farham, had been taken suddenly ill in that city and that she would have to undergo an operation at once and for him to come on without delay, says the Port Umpqua Courier. The doctor left immediately, but did not arrive before the operation was performed, as the attending physician had decided that it would be dangerous to delay it. The operation was very successful and the patient is doing as well as could be expected. Mrs. Farham is a brother of Mrs. R. H. Fields, and he and his wife had come out from Iowa on a visit to Dr. and Mrs. Fields, and were returning home when Mrs. Farham was taken sick.

STEAMER EVA LAID UP. The launch Atlas will carry mail and passengers between Gardiner and Scottsburg.

The steamer Eva has been taken off the run between Gardiner and Scottsburg and the launch Atlas will take her place, but the Eva will be held in readiness for any emergency which may run up, says the Gardiner Courier. Capt. Henry Sagerber will be in command of the Atlas. Engineer Frank Sagerber, who has been chief engineer on the Eva for many years, has been transferred to the launch, which will be in command of Captains John Graham and will do the towing for the Gardiner Mill Company on the river, or any other work which may be required of her. The Atlas will carry the mail and passengers back and forth from Gardiner to Reedport and Scottsburg, also making occasional trips to Winchester Bay or other points when required.

What is the difference between Mary's little lamb then and now? Fully one hundred years. If Mary still has that little lamb she so long ago did keep, we figure that little lamb and this has grown to be a sheep! That Mary sold her little lamb to us. Need not be among your fears. The lamb and mutton purchased here is all of tender years! The Economy Market. Geo. Kohlhaugen, Prop., Phone 78.
