They said hundreds of Douglas County people were making ready yesterday for the big picnic on Winchester Bay.

Anso Cameras and Supplies

We take pleasure in announcing that we have taken the agency for the well known Anso Cameras and Supplies, formerly conducted by Clark and Clark. The making of pictures is an interesting study and yet it is comparatively easy if you have the proper equipment. Anso Cameras loaded with Anso Film will insure good results. If you are interested in making pictures call and get some of the free Anso literature. We have film to fit all cam.

Mrs. Thomas Krantz, of Portland, who had been visiting with her son, Fred Frederickson, left Saturday for Cottage Grove where she will spend a few weeks.

M. Dean, a pioneer resident of Middle, spent Sunday here with friends and heard Bishop Lambuth preach. He tells us Frank Cain and some other men are developing a promising copper mine south of Nicholas station and are preparing to haul the ore to the railroad.

Clarence Mast, of the train dispatcher's office, who returned Friday after visiting at Washington, D. C., and other eastern points, left yesterday evening for Portland. He will resume his duties here about Tuesday. Mr. Mast was of the belief that the prosperity in the East is of a substantial character and he believes it will soon spread generally all over the country.

Eugene Guard: A. C. Bohrnstedt, who was formerly identified with extensive orchard properties in the vicinity of Creswell, has begun suit in Marion county against A. E. and W. G. Benjamin, of Minneapolis, Minn., to recover $100,000 damages, alleged to be due by reason of the failure of the Benjamin to carry out a contract entered into in 1910. At that time Bohrnstedt agreed to purchase and develop farm lands in Marion county, and the defendants agreed to supply the necessary money.

VISITED COL. MARKEE.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Markee, of Chillicothe, Mo., spent Sunday visiting with Commandant and Mrs. R. C. Markee, at the Oregon Soldiers' Home. Mr. Markee is a nephew of Commandant Markee and his visit was somewhat of a surprise to his uncle. Mr. and Mrs. Markee are on their wedding trip, having been married in Chillicothe on August 3. They have visited many of the larger cities and are enjoying a delightful time. Among the places they have stopped in are Minneapolis, St. Paul, Winnipeg, Regina, Moosejaw, Vancouver, Seattle and Portland. In Portland they visited with Commandant Markee's sons, and while here they were very pleasantly entertained and taken around the city and countryside.

Commandant and Mrs. Markee and family formerly lived at Chillicothe, where his nephew is station agent for the Washah Railroad. Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Markee left this morning for San Francisco and expect to visit in many other cities on the coast while on their tour. They will probably travel as far as New York City before returning to their home at Chillicothe.

FIENDISH MURDER.

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—The police today found the corpse of Mrs. John Laffelle, aged 19, in a southside lodging house with her head crushed and wedged between the bed and wall. The woman's two children were lying unconscious, both terribly beaten and nearly starved. The youngest girl probably died. The murder occurred several days ago, the body being so decomposed it was difficult to determine whether it was male or female.

RECEPTIONS GIVEN TO MR. AND MRS. F. L. BEARD AT YONCALLA RECENTLY

YONCALLA, Or., Aug. 21.—A series of farewell receptions have just been given here in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beard, who are leaving for Harrisburg, to engage in the business of general merchandising. Mr. Beard has served as mayor of Yoncalla, and has been active in advancing the welfare of the community. Both he and his wife have also been prominent in lodge and social affairs.

Last Thursday evening the local Masonic and Eastern Star lodges entertained in their honor and a fine banquet was served. Wm. Kietzer acted as toastmaster and felicitous addresses were made by Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Bass, S. N. Woodard, Mr. W. Daugherty, and Messrs. Clark, Harden and Applegate. Appropriate responses were made by Mr. and Mrs. Beard.

On Friday evening the local Rebekahs gave a reception in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Beard, at which there was a large attendance. Refreshments were served and a highly fraternal spirit prevailed.

On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Beard were entertained at dinner by Postmaster and Mrs. Manley M. Strawn. This was also a very happy event.

There is general regret at the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Beard, who have gained the highest esteem of the entire community.
