VOTE DOWN HIGH TAXES.

On Tuesday, Nov. 7, a little over two weeks hence, officers will be elected in county, state and Nation to have charge of public affairs for two or four years. Honest, efficient public service at minimum expense is service at minimum expense should be the prime object sought.

Is not your county and state government costing decidedly more than it ought to be, in comparison with the service you are getting? Undoubtedly it is.

Do you want such a condition to continue? The way you vote on Nov. 7, will be your answer.

For the past 40 years Oregon has had nothing but Republican Legislatures. It now has about 57 varieties of boards and commissions, most of them useless but all are expensive. On account of these and other things Oregon now has the highest tax rate in proportion to population of any state in the Union.

It is the same in county affairs. This year's taxes were about $55,000 higher than last year. Are you getting better service for this additional outlay of $150 a day for each and every day of the current year than you got last year or the year before? The average taxpayer certainly is not.

You also remember that this additional $55,000 of taxes was levied by the Marsters regime over the protest of a body of heavy taxpayers who appeared before the court last December.

The taxpayers were warned two years ago by The Review that if they placed the county's affairs in the hands of the Marsters element they would get poor service at high cost. The increase of $55,000 in taxes this year is the answer, with public service in that department below the standard.

Hence you should be doubly careful not to vote for any candidates having the Marsters endorsement. It is too expensive to the taxpayers.

If the dippy deponent who dub himself "the village doctor" has any friends they ought to look after him. At first he was merely maudlin, but now he is becoming frantic. In his violent outbursts he may do himself harm if someone don't take care of him. It is easy to see that he is in such a state that he should not be held accountable. He even assumes responsibility for the whole campaign, from President down to pound-master. Asleep or awake he continually wails, "Vote 'er straight! vote 'er straight!" Yes, it is growing pitiful. He needs care. Already he imagines he owns all the offices and can hardly wait until election day so he can hand them out to his chosen few. Again he wails, "Vote the ticket straight, don't let the Democrats steal a single office." Yes, poor fellow, he imagines he owns them all. He seems to have grown worse rapidly, ever since he endorsed Buchanan. Now his condition is pitiful.

BEST PRICES SOARING.

Sugar beets will soon reach $6 a ton, according to an item appearing in the Grants Pass Courier this morning. Announcement to this effect was made yesterday by the Utah-Idaho Sugar Company, which recently established a big plant at the Josephine County seat. Douglas County produced quite a number of sugar beets this summer and the acreage will be materially increased next year.

SUTHERLIN MAN ACTIVE.

Newspaper dispatches from Marshall state that J. W. Harris, a wealthy resident of California, left for his home yesterday after checking and inspecting the Waite and Kinney properties located in that vicinity. Although he refused to make any statement for publication, it is surmised that he is negotiating for the purchase of the lands owned by F. B. Waite, of Sutherlin. The lands are located in the vicinity of Marshall and are said to be very valuable.

"Busy Bees" Frolic.

A Halloween party was the merry social occasion which the "Busy Bees" enjoyed last evening when they were entertained by Mrs. L. L. Hildinger at her home on Houck street. The warm colors and tints of autumn leaves radiated throughout the rooms and deep yellow pumpkins were there in festive appearance. Many clever Halloween designs were used in decorating and cards were the diversion of the evening. Very dainty refreshments were served by the hostess at small tables made pretty with motifs of the occasion.

Halloween Festivity.

Miss Frances Lawrence entertained with a very unique and pleasant Halloween party last Saturday evening at her home on Glenn street in honor of her mother, Mrs. G. B. Lawrence, who had just returned after several weeks spent in Coles Valley. The rooms were decorated in the warm, harmonizing color notes of orange and brown adorned with many cunning Halloween motifs. Autumn colors ran riot of the house in bright yellows, scarlets, russets and reds. An evening of pure fun and enjoyment pleased the guests, with many new games and novel features. From wifely nook and corner peered the withers and hobgoblins, prevalent on such an occasion, that gave an added delight to the ghost dancing which was one of the diversions.

Everyone enjoyed a delightful time and at one o'clock they were invited to the dining room, where they partook of a sumptuous and very delicious lunch at a long table with covers placed for thirty. The festal board reflected the true Halloween spirit and the center was graced with a huge pumpkin. Autumn foliage and pretty Halloween suggestions completed the table decorations.

Happy Picnic Sunday.

Those lovely autumn days proved too alluring to the members of the Entre Nous Club of Green, so Sunday they decided to capture one of them for their very own, and motored to the forks of the Umpqua River, where they whiled away the hours in that delightful picnic spot. A delicious lunch was enjoyed at noon-time. Those present were the members of the Entre Nous Club, Misses Mabel and Anna Bryan and Miss Lloyd, of Omaha, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Fred Renner of Green. During the course of the evening the conversation turned to politics and so much interest was shown in the discussion that a straw vote for President was taken among fourteen of the ladies present. The result of the voting was 4 for Wilson and 10 for Hughes. Late in the evening dainty refreshments were served at small tables.

Surprise Farewell Party.

Miss Alvira Campbell and her guest, Mrs. W. R. Silverwood, were delightfully surprised Friday evening, October 13, when about fifteen of their friends gathered at their home in North Roseburg to spend a happy evening. Miss Campbell expects to soon leave for Nevada, where she will visit indefinitely, and the occasion was in the nature of a farewell party. Music was enjoyed during the evening and games made merry entertainment. A very delicious lunch was served.

Jovial Social Afternoon.

One of the merriest and most enjoyable afternoon occasions of the week occurred at the home of Mrs. W. T. Wright, on West Lane street, when she extended cordial hospitality to the members of the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid. Rooms bright with clusters of gaily tinted autumn leaves formed a lovely setting for the happy afternoon hours that were passed with sewing and fancywork of various kinds, from the newest patterns in crocheting to the daintiest bazaar articles.

Business affairs were not forgotten and the final date for the bazaar was set for December 2, on Saturday. New members who were welcomed into the society are: Mrs. Chas. Roberts, Mrs. J. F. The evening was spent with various merry stunts and games and the hostess served the daintiest of refreshments.

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist church met at the home of the president, Miss Frances Meader, on Winchester St., Thursday afternoon, where they listened to a very interesting program and spent an afternoon of pleasant entertainment.

CHARLES A. BRAND NOMINEE OF THE REPUBLICAN and PROGRESSIVE PARTIES FOR STATE REPRESENTATIVE From Douglas County (Two to be Elected) Vote 55 X

Think of this:

Do not sometimes forget that the men who make our laws in the Legislature should be as broad-minded, as fair, as honest, of as wide experience with men and affairs as the judges who administer those same laws? Douglas County has never needed to elect strong men to represent her more than she does at the present time.

A vote for Charles A. Brand on Nov. 7, will be a vote for a man who is competent to represent us; who is supported by men of all parties, by both farmers and business men, by the school teachers and the home-makers. He will go to the Legislature as a public servant, pledged to work to the limit of his ability for Douglas County and the state of Oregon. (Paid Adv.)

Northside Sunshine Club. The members of the Northside Sunshine Club spent a very enjoyable afternoon yesterday when they were entertained by Mrs. W. T. Kiser, at her home in North Roseburg. A good attendance was present and sewing work occupied the afternoon hours.

W. C. T. U. Postponed.

On account of the absence of the president, Mrs. F. A. Bemis, the meeting which was planned for the W. C. T. U. this week has been postponed until next Wednesday when it will be held as usual at the Baptist Church. Mrs. Bemis left early in the week for The Dalles, where she will attend the state convention of the W. C. T. U.

Club Hears Report.

Tuesday afternoon was a very interesting occasion for the ladies of the '95 Mental Culture Club, when they listened to reports given by the delegates to the state Federation, which met at Seaside last week. Mrs. William Bell, who attended the first day of the convention, was the first to read a report. She told of the entertainment given the visitors and said she was a guest of Mrs. O. F. Godfrey, formerly of this city. She described the beautiful decorations in the building and told of the program which was enjoyed the first evening. This contained a number of interesting talks from prominent people and several delightful musical numbers. She gave a brief review of the reports received from the officers of the Federation at the opening the next morning with explanations of the reports of the delegates to the bi-annual convention and the resolutions adopted.

Mrs. Stella Woodruff was present for the second day of the Federation and reported the business coming up for discussion and the addresses made. Her report contained much of interest and was greatly appreciated.

An account of the third day was given by Mrs. J. W. Oliver, who spoke of the movements endorsed and approved by the Federation, the recommendations of the legislative committee and resolutions adopted. She said that invitations were received from Medford and Prineville as the place of meeting for the Federation next year.

The Federation reports were greatly enjoyed by the members of the club and were very interesting, instructive and entertaining. It was decided during the afternoon that hereafter a part of the period devoted to Current Events be given to the study of Federation books.

Mrs. C. H. Bailey read a splendid paper concerning the "Domestic Side of the Civil Service." She stated that federations in 39 states were working to put the civil service beyond the reach of partisan politics, and explained how the civil service affected the life or the home through the kind of men holding the offices. Schools, banks, water supply, streets, teachers, and many kindred topics came up for discussion, with the argument that political influences be kept out of the civil service. In ending, Mrs. Bailey stated that in the morals of a community there must be both democracy and efficiency.

Next week Rev. R. E. Jope will address the members of the club on "Preparedness Against War."

Towards the close of the afternoon very delicious refreshments were served by the ladies of the social committee for the month, including Mrs. W. T. Wright, chairman; Mrs. J. E. Enger, Miss Josephine Parrott, Mrs. Hagan, Mrs. S. C. Barrum and Mrs. Hartin.

Hostesses at Breakfast.

Miss Kathryn Agee and Miss Waltha Watson, who taught at Riddle two years ago and are now teachers in the Roseburg schools, were hostesses Tuesday morning to the Riddle teachers at a delightful breakfast, cooked on a camp fire in the maple grove west of Roseburg.

Miss Agee took the guests to the grove in her automobile, proving herself a chauffeur of no mean ability. The time was short, as the teachers had to return for the morning session of the institute, but the limited time could not have been more enjoyed, as they grouped themselves around the breakfast table, telling tales and eating the delightfully served meal prepared by their hostesses.

Picnic On Nebo.

A merry group of four scrambled up the sides of Mt. Nebo late Tuesday afternoon, where they enjoyed a picnic and watched the sunset. The occasion was planned in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mr. Arthur Harriman, commercial instructor in the local high school. At eventide a bonfire was built, where "weinies" were roasted and a spread of dainty delicacies enjoyed. Those present were Miss Lella Lent, Miss Ethel Yates, Mr. Harriman and Prof. Doane, of Youella.
