POPULAR COUPLE WERE MARRIED IN ROSEBURG ON SATURDAY NIGHT

Surrounded by members of the immediate family and a few intimate friends of the contracting parties, Sam J. Shoemaker, a prominent young merchant of this city, and Miss Lesta Elizabeth Rhoads, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Rhoads, were married at the home of the bride's parents, on West Mosher street, at 9:30 o'clock Saturday evening. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. E. W. Warrington, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church.

Immediately following the wedding ceremony, the happy couple were the recipients of many congratulations, after which a delicious dinner was served by the bride's mother. Mr. and Mrs. Shoemaker have already begun housekeeping in the bungalow formerly occupied by Mrs. H. T. McClallen, and situated on East Washington street. Besides the members of the immediate family the wedding ceremony was witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Cordon and Miss Katherine Paul, intimate friends of Mr. and Mrs. Shoemaker.

Mr. Shoemaker came to Roseburg from Napoleon, Ohio, about five years ago, and until last January was one of the owners and publishers of the Roseburg Evening News. After disposing of the newspaper plant Mr. Shoemaker enjoyed two months rest, at the conclusion of which he and his father, M. J. Shoemaker, purchased the Roseburg Book Store from R. H. C. Wood. Mr. Shoemaker is one of the promising young business men of this city and is very popular. He is a member of several fraternal organizations and has been active in all movements which have had for their purpose the development and upbuilding of this city.

Mrs. Shoemaker has resided in Roseburg practically all of her life, and has a host of close friends in this city. She attended the Roseburg public schools, and for several years was employed as stenographer in this vicinity. For a long time prior to last January she worked in this capacity at the law offices of Attorneys Rice & Orcutt. Mrs. Shoemaker belongs to several civic organizations and is very popular in the younger circles.

The Review joins with their many friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Shoemaker many years of wedded happiness.

JENNINGS CASE WAS CONCLUDED AT NOON; DAMAGES WERE ASKED

The case of Mrs. Myrtle Jennings vs. R. E. Jennings which was called before a jury in the Circuit Court here at 9 o'clock this morning, was concluded about 2 o'clock this afternoon. After a deliberation of less than 30 minutes, the jury returned a verdict in which the plaintiff was awarded a judgment in the sum of $375. Defendants in this action, other than Mr. Jennings, were eliminated by the jury.

The action was brought by Mrs. Jennings to recover damages in the sum of $550, which she claimed was due because of the defendant's action in visiting her ranch and taking away a number of cattle which he later sold. It was claimed by the plaintiff that the money derived from the sale of the cattle was pocketed by the defendant. Witnesses who testified on behalf of Mrs. Jennings were R. R. Porter, Mildred Lee and Mrs. R. A. Porter.

Mr. Jennings alleged ownership of the cattle and claimed he had a legal right to sell them at his convenience. J. A. Cox, W. W. Wilson and Henry Wiffe appeared as witnesses for the defendant. The jury was composed of A. Field, Arthur Black, R. J. Farnsworth, George Aiken, W. F. Briggs, I. J. Norman, George S. Madison, Leonard Perkins, George Weber, H. Guest, P. E. Turnell and A. J. Lilburn.

The principals in the case have been estranged for some time and are not strangers in the Circuit Court here.

MAN SOLICITING FOR ACCOUNTS WANTED AT MEDFORD, IS REPORT

A man giving his name as F. J. McCarthy, who spent the past few days in Roseburg and vicinity soliciting accounts for collection for the National Adjustment Association, of Los Angeles, is said to be wanted at Klamath Falls, Medford and other Southern Oregon cities, according to the officers. The presence of the man in Roseburg was detected by E. C. Benson this morning, and the sheriff was notified. Subsequent communication with the Medford officials was to the effect that he is wanted there, although a formal warrant of arrest has not been issued. It was stated at noon today that McCarthy had left town and was enroute to Eugene. A column article in Saturday night's Medford Tribune indicates that McCarthy defrauded residents there to the extent of about $300. He is also thought to be wanted at Klamath Falls, where he "jumped" a board bill. While in Medford he posed as a capitalist and won the confidence of the business men of that city.

CONSTABLE CHURCH WAS SERIOUSLY INJURED IN COLLISION WITH AUTO

In one of the most dangerous accidents occurring here in some time, Constable H. B. Church, of North Roseburg, was struck in head-on collision by an automobile at North Jackson and Court streets about 9 o'clock Saturday night, and as a result barely escapd with his life. Church was riding a bicycle and was caught when the advancing machine suddenly swung into the side street. He was thrown backward to the pavement, striking on his head. Other than cuts and bruises, he was uninjured.

According to those who witnessed the accident, their attention was attracted to the scene by cries which preceded the crash by several seconds. Church was riding down the hill and seeing the car ahead in the center of the street, eased the brakes to increase his speed. Apparently the driver of the car, who was Clarence Rexroad, also of North Roseburg, did not see the bicycle and consequently turned into Court street with speed on which to take the hill on Main street. At the same time another car was coming down Court street and the two automobiles avoided probably a more serious meeting only by the collision between the Rexroad machine and the bicycle. As the car turned Church saw the impossibility of escape and braced himself for the contact with the radiator. The bicycle was knocked from under him and he was thrown some distance away to the curb.

Mr. Rexroad carried the injured man to the office of Dr. Sether and later to his home. He was deeply grieved at the accident which occurred, he said, because of his inability to see the bicycle. Church had no lights. He was on the street today, although with numerous scars and bruises testifying to his narrow escape.

G. W. Dimmick, of Winston, was in the city Saturday afternoon looking after business matters.
