

WINCHESTER IS LOYAL TO NATION

PEOPLE OF THAT THRIVING HAMLET DONATE MORE THAN $200 TO THE RED CROSS. COMMITTEES ARE HAID AT WORK.

SOME PERSONS ARE SELFISH

A Few Men of Large Means Have Offered to Give as Little as $1—One Man Hopes War Will Continue.

The Red Cross teams bring in good reports from the canvass for funds thus far, in some instances meeting with much better results than anticipated, but over against these good reports they also are compelled to report certain selfish individuals, who lack the useful spirit of patriotism, or are so inhuman that they care not what becomes of the soldier and sailor boys who go from our homes to fight for our country in this her hour of peril. Douglas County will be compelled to send to Washington a list of "slackers," and most of the names handed in thus far are men of plenty of wealth, so that they would be making no sacrifice, even should they subscribe hundreds of dollars each. This call for funds to the Red Cross war fund does not come from the men who are in the field begging for your little contribution, nor from the state headquarters at Portland, nor does it come from National headquarters at Washington, D. C., but the call comes direct from President Wilson, commander-in-chief of the army of the United States, so when you refuse to give in this great cause you are refusing the President. But this is not all. You are deliberately saying to the mothers of Roseburg and Douglas County, "Send your boys, for whom you have suffered and sacrificed; let them go to the trenches of France and fight for me, for the security of my property and interests, and for the continuation of American liberty; they may be wounded in battle, and lie on the battle fields until death shall come to relieve their pain, but I will not give one cent to help the Red Cross care for them, for I believe in keeping the money at home." You say there are no such selfish people in this county? Well, ask the captains and lieutenants of the several teams, and they can tell you things that will make your blood boil. What do you think of a man worth possibly $50,000 offering $1.50 to the committee, and of a man who hopes the war will continue so that the price of wheat will go still higher, providing this country does not have to enter the war?

Just to show that the true spirit of American patriotism is not confined to the larger cities and towns, the little village of Winchester set an example in liberal giving by subscribing $200 to the Red Cross war fund yesterday. These people not only gave liberally, but willingly and gladly, and counted it a privilege to be able to do their part in the interest of suffering and dying soldier boys, who will fight our battles for us. We predict that no other locality of a like population in the state of Oregon will do more than Winchester has, and they are to be commended and congratulated. Lieutenant Burchfield had promised to hold a rally at Winchester this evening, but on account of his team being obliged to visit Camas Valley and other outlying districts today and tomorrow, this meeting had to be cancelled. If every part of the county will respond as Winchester has, Douglas County will be able to report double our apportionment.

DESERTER WAS TAKEN BY ROSEBURG OFFICER; TAKEN TO PORTLAND

After ending detection for several months, Roy Goodman, a well known resident of the Oakland vicinity, was arrested there by Sheriff George Quine last night and was later brought to Roseburg and committed to the county jail. He is charged with being a deserter from the United States Army and will be taken to Portland tomorrow, where he will be turned over to the Federal authorities. Reports received at the sheriff's office indicate that Mr. Goodman deserted from the army while stationed on the Mexican border last summer. He has traveled quite extensively since that time and only recently returned to Oakland. The Government is making a determined effort to round up all deserters at this time and the sheriffs have special instructions to arrest them as rapidly as they can be found.

SLACKER FROM COOS COUNTY IN JAIL HERE; WILL GO TO PORTLAND

Preston Berg, a Norwegian, and a resident of Coos County, is the latest slacker to be placed in the county jail here, preparatory to being taken to Portland to answer to the Federal authorities. According to the prisoner, however, he is willing to register, and came here for that purpose. But since the time has expired, there is no other alternative, say the officers, but to turn the man over to the Government. On account of his willingness it is believed he will be taken at once into the army. Berg is 26 years of age and is not naturalized. He was accompanied here by a number of his Coos County friends.

One day last week while fishing on the bar, something went wrong with the engine of the boat occupied by Charlie and George Perkins and they came very nearly being carried out to sea. They had made some miscalculations in regard to the tide, and when their engine stopped on them in a very dangerous position. While one held on to their net the other succeeded in getting the engine started and they got back inside. The both agree that one experience of this kind is sufficient. Coos Bay Harbor, R. P. Echols, is arranging with Tiernan and Beronzo, of San Francisco, to take over the Point Terrace mill on the Siuslaw under a lease from Paul Schillerstrom and associates.

Coos Bay News: Umpqua spring salmon, which are shipped to the local markets here, compare favorably with the royal chinook of the Columbia River. The price is pretty steep, however, 20 cents per pound retail.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

(From the Gardiner Courier).
W. P. Reed returned the first of the week from a business trip to Roseburg and other points.

A. F. Smith, deputy sheriff, took out the election returns and registration cards to Roseburg.

Commissioner Fred Weatherly, of Spotsburg, was in Gardiner Wednesday attending a meeting of the Port.

Bert Roberts, well known in the lower Umpqua country, is now located in business at Manhattan, Nevada.

Mrs. L. S. Weeks was in this city from Winchester Bay the last of the week visiting with friends and shopping.

Commissioner Frank Wells, of Elkton, was in this city Wednesday for the purpose of attending a meeting of the Port.

Mrs. Mary E. Lankester, of Astoria, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, was in this city the last of the week.

E. C. Hill, a game warden from Eugene, was in this neighborhood last week looking after matters connected with his office.

Mose Towne, who is employed on the road at Winchester Bay, was in Gardiner the last of the week attending to matters of business.

A company has been organized to build ships at Reedsport, on the Umpqua. A number of vessels were built at Gardiner, in early days, but for many years there has been no shipbuilding on the Umpqua.

Mrs. J. S. Gray, Mrs. T. S. Angus and Mrs. G. Westerdale, accompanied by Judge Gray, left for Portland on Sunday morning, where the ladies went as delegates to the Grand Chapter, O. E. S.

Mrs. D. M. Charlemon and children arrived the first of the week from Bandon, and will make their home during the summer at the jetty, where Mr. Charlemon has charge of the jetty construction.

Mrs. E. H. Anderson, Mrs. J. W. Tanner and Minnie Buchanan, of Florence, were in Gardiner Friday representing the Rebekah lodge of Florence at the annual meeting of the assembly in this district.

Ernest Haskell has received a trailer which he can attach to his Ford, which he is running between the town and the station at East Gardiner. This will be a great convenience for the handling of light freight and baggage.

Attorney C. R. Peck, of Marshfield, was in Gardiner Wednesday attending a meeting of the Port Commissioners, of which he is the attorney. The "call to arms" is ringing in the ears of the general attorney and he is itching to join the reserves.

Miss Mary Lawson, well known in Gardiner, which at one time was her home, but now a resident of Portland, was in this city last week visiting friends. Miss Lawson is a trained nurse and holds a position in one of the largest hospitals in Portland, and on her trip accompanied a patient to Couville.

W. G. Grubbs, E. F. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hazen, Mary F. Wells, Mrs. C. E. Hawley, Mrs. S. P. Penley, Mrs. W. Rydell, Mrs. C. Franklin, and Mrs. A. Rydell were registered at the Gardiner Hotel on Friday. The ladies were delegates to the assembly of Rebekah which was held in this city Friday.

Coos Bay Harbor: Rev. F. G. Jennings, who has been acting rector of the Episcopal churches here and in Couville, plans to leave shortly for Portland, where he will be formally ordained June 24, after which he will go to Centralia, Wash., to accept a call. Rev. Mr. Black, of Cholan, Wash., is expected here then to relieve him.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Joplin were down from the quarry the last of the week. Mr. Joplin is the superintendent of the jetty and quarry work, but this labor does not keep him from putting in a "patriotic garden" at the quarry, of which Mrs. Joplin is superintendent. It is reported that this office that Mr. Joplin has a flag nailed at every post surrounding the garden.

The Southern Pacific Company has begun the construction of the passenger depot at Gardiner. They have put in 850 feet of walk, 12 feet wide, from the dock to the depot. This is strongly built and can be used by teams or trucks—even a locomotive could pass over it without doing any damage. From the walk to the dock a fine slip has been placed, making every thing connected and very convenient. As soon as the passenger depot is finished, work will begin on the freight depot. The company is spending over $12,000 in improvements at Reedsport.

A unit of the Red Cross Society was organized in this city Monday evening. This will be an auxiliary to the Red Cross at Roseburg. They have begun with a membership of 92 members. V. R. Allen was chosen president, Miss Belle Wade secretary, H. L. Edmunds treasurer, Mrs. Mae Fields 2nd chairman, and Mrs. W. F. Jewett vice-chairman. Mrs. Henry Sagabond, Mrs. Annie Perkins and Mrs. Mae Fields were appointed as a committee on membership. The big drive for funds all over the state will begin on the 15th and continue until the 25th of the month. Let every one do what they can in the matter of assisting the cause.

H. J. McKeown, who has returned from a fishing trip with V. G. Hindmarsh and Warren Reed has a true bear story to tell. They were taking their lunch on the shore of one of the lakes when a big bear came ambling down out of the brush to within 200 yards of them. They did not have any guns except a .25-caliber revolver. This scared the bear away. Mr. McKeown said that the bear had a grizzly beaten a mile for size and left tracks that would set off an elephant. He said that Warren Reed admitted it was the biggest bear he ever saw—and this is accepted as conclusive proof of Mr. McKeown's claim as to the size of the bear.

The old school building has been sold to Thos. Richmond, of the cold storage plant at East Gardiner, for $50. He will have it torn down and removed up to the plant.

A herd of 150 sealions was reported as having been seen at the mouth of the Umpqua one morning last week. They are said to be more destructive to salmon than seals.

Chiff Perkins arrived from California the last of the week for a visit with friends and relatives. Chiff says that he has joined an engineering corps in that state and expects to be called in about 20 days.

CHAUTAUQUANS PAY TRIBUTES TO OREGON

Say It's Most Beautiful Piece of God's Out-of-doors.

(Sutherland Sun.)

"Nothing ever painted on canvas comes anywhere near the beauty of God's out-of-doors in Oregon," said Dr. Andrew Johnson, a prominent speaker at the Chautauqua held in Cottage Grove last week. "Why, you're away ahead of California, and all you need is some roads, but when you get your roads, don't commercialize everything; don't make a visitor pay every time he turns around; remember you are in God's country."

Governor Carlson, another speaker, paid a similar compliment. He said he did not see how anyone could live in Oregon, with its beautiful hills and valleys, without becoming a poet, a painter or a nature lover. He said he had heard much about Oregon but had been unable to believe until seeing, and said he didn't blame anyone from Oregon for objecting to living in heaven.
