SPECIAL MEETINGS CLOSE.

Rev. W. A. and Dr. Keeney Ferris, who for the past ten days have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Starr at their country residence west of Sutherlin, and have conducted special services in the chapel nearby, closed the meetings on Tuesday evening and took the early morning train Wednesday to be in attendance at the Umpqua Baptist Annual Association meeting to be held with the Elmira Baptist Church near Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferris have been greatly appreciated by the good people of Calapoua Valley, and many friends who will not soon forget their visit and ministry. Rev. Ferris has showed himself an able preacher of the gospel, while Dr. Keeney Ferris, by means of select readings and special music, has endeared himself to old and young. Both express themselves as exceedingly happy to have had the privilege of knowing and laboring with so excellent a people, and believing that the acquaintanceship has been like mutual and beneficial, will entertain the hope of some time returning for another "star" visit to Calapoua.
