CHAUTAUQUA FOR 1918.

About 200 season tickets have already been pledged for a Chautauqua in Roseburg during 1918. It is necessary that 600 tickets be signed for before the contract can be closed. Pledge cards have been left at Chapman's drug store and at the Mursters drug store. Persons interested in holding another Chautauqua here are urged to sign for as many tickets as they need without delay.

LOCAL FORESTRY OFFICE SENDS MEN TO HANDLE BIG FIRES IN TIMBER

Two men connected with the local forestry office left this morning to take charge of two of the largest forest fires now burning in the timber of Southern Oregon. Deputy Supervisor George Bonebrake went to Winston, Lane County, where he will take charge of a crew of over 70 men, while H. F. Wallace was sent to organize a crew of 10 or 12 fighters to extinguish the blaze that has been raging for several days in the vicinity of Grave Creek, in Josephine County.

LOCAL YOUNG MAN LEAVES SOON TO JOIN ENGINEER COMPANY

J. D. Ritchie, who is visiting with his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ritchie, of Garden Valley, expects to leave Sunday evening for Portland, where he will join his company for mobilization. Mr. Ritchie is a member of the Oregon National Guard Engineers, Company A, which is now in headquarters at the armory in Portland. Mr. Ritchie's company is composed of civil engineers, who will be sent to Palo Alto for training before leaving for the front. Mr. Ritchie will join his company at Portland on Wednesday.

The latest report on the conditions in England and one of the most interesting and accurate obtained here since the beginning of the war, was received today by W. W. Thackrah, of East Douglas street, from his sister, Mrs. Samuel Roberts, who is a prominent resident of Falmouth, England, now one of the chief ports on the western coast.

LOCAL YOUNG MAN LEAVES SOON TO JOIN ENGINEER COMPANY

Mrs. Roberts also stated that on her estate, which is at the edge of the city, the English government had a short time ago decided to locate a camp for the stationing of American troops on their way to France. Forty lady cooks are already located in her house, she said, waiting for the troops to arrive.
