her Glendale home. Many old friends of Mrs. Elliff will rejoice to hear that she is in good health, and always happy in recounting her very romantic and thrilling experiences in her useful life in this valley. With tear dimmed eyes she told us of her first meeting with Hardy Elliff, and as memory's veil lifted she eulogized the husband of her youth, who was the one man in all the world to her. Every incident was related carefully and correctly and we listened raptly as she lifted her eyes to a picture of Mr. Elliff hanging on the wall. She gazed with reverent awe on the face of her husband, who had made her life a dream of joy. A smile of ineffable sweetness illuminated her features. Thank God for our beloved pioneers.

Guy Jacques, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jacques, returned from overseas this week. Guy had a long and eventful experience in the army, and bravely and valiantly did his whole duty in answer to our country's call to service. Many friends join his parents in a welcome home to another one of our country's heroes. His youngest brother, Joseph Jacques, is still in the service but is expected home soon.

Miss Mildred Jacques, who has been attending school at Portland, where she made her home with her sister, is now at her parental home for the vacation. X. X.

MANAGER PERCY TAKES OVER MEDFORD SHOWHOUSE

A big change in the local amusement world has just been announced by Arthur J. Morgan and H. L. Percy owners and managers of the Rialto Theater have just secured possession of the Page Theater having taken a lease on that house from Frederick C. Page, says the Medford Tribune. Negotiations for this lease had been on for some time. Dr. Page finds that he can no longer devote so much of his time to the running of the Page and has therefore retired so as to give much needed time to his other interests.

Along with the lease they took over all the moving picture contracts of the Page, which means that at the Rialto the Medford public will see all the big movie stars.

The rise of Messrs. Morgan and Percy in the local amusement world has been rapid since they first entered that business here two years ago, building the Rialto and conducting that house so as to make it popular with the public. These young men will pursue the same winning policy at the Rialto and at the Page.

"TYPIST" TYPES SELF INTO POLICE CELL

Gives Weird Demonstration When Police Demand Proof of Proficiency.

Chicago.—A man with a typewriter under his arm was seen to enter a State street saloon by Detectives Fitzpatrick and Lynch of the South Clark street station. They suspected he had stolen the machine and followed him. The man offered it to the bartender for a pint of whisky. He was arrested and taken to the station, where he gave the name of William McDermott.

Lynch Dictated.

"Now tell us where you stole that typewriter?" Fitzpatrick demanded. "I didn't steal no typewriter," protested the man. "I brought it with me from Pittsburgh."

"Do you take dictation?" asked the detective. "I take anything." "I think you took the machine," interjected Fitzpatrick. "Is that so?" said the suspect. "You got another thing coming." He spat on his hands and remarked: "You may fire when ready, Gridley."

Lynch dictated: "Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their party." After ten minutes of pounding at the keys, with perspiration rolling down his face, he produced this: "now is THE TIME FOR (aLL *% GOOD men x to come to the aid of The Party."

Fling With Girls Costs Him $600

London.—Having received an engagement ring from George William Whitman, who went to Woolwich on munition work, Miss Eva Lunt spent $190 on articles for the "bottom drawer." The courtship lasted two years. Thus the young man wrote that he "had something on his mind" which he wished to tell the girl, and he went on: "I think it would be best if we broke our friendship. I am spending most of my time down here with other girls, and I can see the way I am going I shall be no good to anybody. I cannot be working with girls all day and act straight to ward you. I would never be right, as down here I have had my fling." A breach of promise action brought against him was unfounded. Miss Lunt was awarded $600 damages.

When the fighting was thickest— When the suffering was greatest—

Where Was the Salvation Army Lassie?

Me'll say:

"She Was Right on the Job"

And now, back home—in the byways and hidden places—where misery always lives, where a mother needs a home, where men, women and children are on the downgrade, she's "right on the job."
