BUSINESS CHANGE COMPLETE.

The Roseburg News-Review makes its initial bow as a combined publication to its thousands of readers today.

The bringing together of the two papers was purely for economical and business reasons.

At this time it is not out of place for the managers of the new concern to thank its thousands of readers for their loyal support and the generous patronage given both papers in an advertising way by the live merchants and business men of Roseburg.

It's a mighty peculiar situation for either a republican or democratic editor who has been working in the harness for so many years, to write entirely along independent lines.

True to its past record in every particular, March came in as meek as a lamb—but the going out was not at all respectful to the climatic conditions of this section.

The average newspaper man is deeply touched by the affectionate greeting of the people who are working for free space or want their particular hobby boosted.

There's a few people left in this old world who don't believe in consolidation—which is merely co-operation—but their number is dreadfully small.

It seems to be Leap Year for the presidential candidates as well as the girls.

there's still hope for a fellow to keep on speaking terms with his mother-in-law.

Flurry of snow on the last day of March. Some record, but this section always sets the place in things out of the ordinary.

In view of the price paid for baled paper, the News-Review is not discouraging the contributions of the spring poets.

There's nothing like boosting for your old home town. It's the best place on earth.

COUNTY FIELD MEET AND DECLAMATORY CONTESTS SUGGESTED FOR CARNIVAL

The following letter was received today from Prof. Fred Goff of the Elton school:

A short time ago a plan for a "County Field Meet and Declamation Contest" was submitted to the Roseburg Chamber of Commerce by two of the school principals of the county.

The plan was to have this event in connection with the annual Strawberry Carnival, some time in May.

We note that there seems to be little interest in arranging the carnival as yet. In order to have the field meet, it will be necessary for definite action to be taken at once.

After corresponding with the various high school principals of the county we are able to submit the following report as to their sentiment in regard to such an event:

"I think the track meet and declamatory contest to be held during the Strawberry Carnival in May would be a good thing."

"We are ready to enter the county athletic contest."

"I have this to say, that our school would in all probability, take part in both."

"Your plan in regard to a declamation contest and track meet interests me greatly."

"I am quite accustomed to the combination track meet and oratorical or declamatory contest, which was the biggest day of the year with us in central Oregon and I am heartily in favor of the same."

"I endorse the sentiment of the letter."

"I am interested in a school field meet."

"We wish you and your co-workers in this project unbounded success."

"Your plan for a county track meet and declamatory contest, in my judgment, is a good one. I shall be glad to co-operate in any way that I can to make the event interesting and successful."

From the above it is plain that such an event would be a success. Will Roseburg wake up and make this possible by holding the annual Strawberry Carnival?

Remember, this work must be started immediately. It takes time to prepare for this contest.

Sincerely yours in the interest of education.

FRED A. GOFF, Principal District No. 34, H. W. HAYDEN, Principal Union H. S. No. 6.

GRAND CHANCELLOR HURLEY PAYS VISIT

JULIEN A. HURLEY, STATE SENATOR OF VALE, OREGON, AND GRAND CHANCELLOR OF K. OF P., VISITED LOCAL LODGE LAST NIGHT.

Alpha lodge, K. of P., held one of the best meetings of the year last night and the attendance was very good.

The grand chancellor, Julien A. Hurley, visited the local lodge and after initiatory work, the members listened to one of the finest talks ever given before a lodge membership.

Mr. Hurley is a resident of Oregon, and a self-made man. He told the members before he started his address he would just as soon make his talk before the whole town as before the members of Alpha lodge.

The theme of the grand chancellor's talk was to have some aim in life, some higher ideal, and work to attain that point.

He said that he liked to see people of a town believe in their town, and to say that Roseburg was the best town in one of the best communities in the state of Oregon.

"If I lived in a town and did not have faith in its future, I would certainly move to some other place," said Mr. Hurley.

A man must either go ahead or go back, he cannot stand still, and it is the same with a town. The fraternal orders of America are the great underlying principles that have made this country what it is.

The reconstruction period after the Civil War was brought about by the growth of fraternal orders, whose mission was to teach men to forget their differences, and work together for the better things in life, for the great principles of the constitution of the United States, and for patriotism and Americanism.

The unrest that is being agitated by Bolshevism, and other organized menaces, will find no footing if the great fraternal brotherhoods will follow the teachings of the orders, and work for brotherly love.

In speaking of the Knights of Pythias, he took one example which is not founded on mythology, but was exemplified by those ancient Greeks, Damon and Pythias, and showed how they were bound together so closely that one was willing to give up his life for the other.

The school which was founded by Pythagoras gave to the world one of the greatest examples of learning that history has ever known. This school was founded several hundred years before Christ, and its principles have lived and shown down through all the ages, a shining tribute to mankind.

"He who is a seeker after knowledge must first learn to imagine and deliberate." This was Mr. Hurley's text, so to speak, and from that one sentence there is a world of good to be derived by anyone who will take the time to give it thought.

You must first picture in your mind an ideal, some point which you aim to reach, and then go after that ideal, when you know you are right, and so achieve a great benefit in your efforts to attain something.

Abram Lincoln once said that he was going to take a certain side in a decision, and he said by his friends would defeat him for the United States senatorship. It matters not whether I am defeated for that high office, I know I am right, and if I do not get to be United States senator now, I will be elected president of the United States two years hence.

Lincoln was right, and then said there he had pictured in his mind the position he sought to achieve, for he knew he was right and proved it to his countrymen when he was elected president.

"He who seeks to acquire, must first learn to imagine and deliberate." It is the kindness you do in every day life that builds you up.

The Knights of Pythias have over 10,800 members in the state of Oregon now, and are just beginning to grow and, said Mr. Hurley, I consider as my greatest friend, or to put it in another way, the man who did me the greatest kindness was he who took my application into the order of Knights of Pythias.

Following the grand chancellor's talk, a banquet served by the Pythian Sisters concluded the evening's entertainment. Senator Hurley will visit Cottage Grove tonight. He spent the day here visiting with Senator B. L. Eddy and calling upon the brothers of the soldiers' home and around town.

Many Car Sales—The C. O. Thomas automobile agency reports the sale of the following cars within the past two weeks: J. A. Summer in California—Mrs. W. A. Burr, daughter Mae and son Billy, left this morning for San Jose, where they expect to make an extended visit with Mrs. Burr's brother, M. Maiden, who resides at that place. They will also spend several months in Los Angeles before returning. Mr. Burr, who recently sold his interests here and joined them in California. They will probably return to this city next fall. It is hoped that the change of climate will benefit Mrs. Burr's health which is very delicate.

Moving to La Grande—Clyde Adair and wife of Portland arrived in this city this morning to pack and ship their household goods to La Grande, where Mr. Adair is to be employed. He is now field representative of the Mutual Creamery company and will have the eastern Oregon territory under his supervision.

Here From Kansas—H. D. Arlington, whose home is in Kansas, and who has been spending the winter in California, left this morning for Portland after two days in this city. Mr. Arlington is much pleased with this part of the country.

RADIO STATIONS WILL ROB FOG FROM DANGERS ACCORDING TO REPORTS

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—Fog will soon be robbed of its dangers to Pacific coast shipping by means of radio, it was announced today by Lieutenant-Commander Scott D. McCaughey, district communication officer of the twelfth naval district here.

The opening of the naval radio compass stations on the Pacific coast is but a few weeks off, he announced. The first will be four stations at the entrance of San Francisco bay, at Point Montara; Bird Island near Point Benita; Point Reyes north of Point Reyes Light-house, and Farallon Islands.

The system was one of the most valuable aids to navigation developed by the allies during the war, and since has been in successful operation along the Atlantic coast.

The method in operation is based on determining the direction of radio waves. The vessel, concealed in fog, sends out radio signals. Each of the four radio stations intercept these signals, and by compass radio determines from which direction they came. Each station notifies the vessel the precise direction it is from the station, and these directions charted show by intersection of the lines the vessel's precise location.

Due to shortage of enlisted personnel, the opening of all stations cannot be expected at present, it was announced, but it is the intention to open at the earliest possible date one station, probably Bird Island, at the northern entrance of the Golden Gate, as soon as personnel can be trained.

BLUE RIBBONS AWARDED.—WORTH WORTH, Texas, April 1.—The great sacred cattle of India have gone to home pastures with blue ribbons for the first time from the Fort Worth fat stock show, setting a new era in the industry in the southwest.

The Brahmas came from the great Pierce ranches in Wharton county.

What attracted most interest about the "sacred cattle" is the fact that they are tick-proof and drought-resistant. Originally pure-bloods, crossed with Texas cattle until they have dropped some of the physical characteristics of their kind. But they still retain the hump and their natural wildness has been intensified.

FAMOUS SALOON CLOSED.—SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—The Bank Exchange saloon, the bar, flag stone floor and fixtures of which were brought "around the Horn" in the old rush days, is closed. Duncan Nicol, known to men and women tourists from many parts of the world as "Placo John" because of the famous punch he served, sold out several months ago. His successor, John Lanner, has given up after a futile effort to continue the place on soft drinks and its reputation as a rendezvous for bon vivants since 1853. Lanner said he intends to present the saloon's collection of quaint old prints and engravings to the Golden Gate park museum.

HAVE DIFFERENT IDEAS.—It is interesting to note that Walter L. Toozie, Sr. of Salem, the Leonard Wood organizer in this state and his son, Walter L. Toozie, Jr. of McMinnville are apparently divided in their political beliefs as to the best republican candidate for the presidency. While the father was working in Grants Pass Monday in General Wood's interest, the son was in Portland conferring with C. A. Herberman, the Seattle manager of the Polk Dexter-for-president campaign in which the young McMinnville attorney is interested.

WILL HAVE LEGION COLUMN.—Commencing next week the News-Review will run a department for the Douglas county members of the American Legion. This column will be published one day each week and will bulletin the news of vital interest to the legionnaires of this county. The News-Review will be one of the first papers in the state to handle the legion news and it will no doubt be appreciated greatly by the "Budies" of Umpqua post. The local post is growing rapidly and is fast taking a hand in public affairs. The legion has as its motto, "Policies, not politics," and is at all times looking for a square deal to the ex-service for a square deal to the ex-service.
