TON CORRESPONDENT WRITES COMMUNITY NEWS

March is making up for the deficiency in rainfall of January and February.

Sunday school was well attended today. Rev. J. L. Stratford preached very interesting sermons...

The Sunday school will give an inter-program next Sunday. Special music.

G. G. Grubbe, our genial assessor, may take people's personal and estate holdings.

Our sawmill is able to whistle.

Robert Grubbe recently purchased White Leghorn hens. It is his intention to increase the size of his plant...

Reimer demonstrates that there is too much waste land in Oregon. He operates a creamery, a poultry house, and will soon erect a cannery...

His one acre of ground. This is his business efficiency.

An article quoted from the Grand Telegram we note that in a main house in Portland there was to be housed "twenty-two men and 170 gallons of grapes and a goodly quantity of wine."

We note that a compromise is sought for the father who is charged with violating the prohibition laws. Do we need this kind of compromise?

Robert Grubbe recently purchased Albany two dairy cows to add to herd, one of these being a registered Jersey with excellent record.

It is the kind of progress that the future must make.

One number of the folks here who could see the box supper. One person suggested that it was caused the draft created by the vacuum of their pocket books.

Miss Hattie Grubbe has returned from Roseburg, where she has been to have her eyes treated.

Our Community Club will meet on April 2. Prof. A. R. Sweet of the University of Oregon will give an illustrated lecture, "David's Trip to Elkon in Search of the Sugar Pine." Prof. Sweet will be here Friday on the state to give pictures of interest in the early history of Oregon.

Among them will be the site of "old Fort Umpqua" and "historic oak," under which the county court of Umpqua county was held. Elkon and vicinity is in early history. Prof. Sweet especially invites all old pioneers to visit him here Friday and Saturday.

IMPROVE COLORADO BASIN.

LOS ANGELES, April 1.—The problem of improving the basin of the Colorado river will be discussed more than fifty speakers from all parts of the United States at the annual convention of the League of the West, which opened a three-day session here today.

According to engineers, improvement of the Colorado river would eliminate floods in the southwest; save water for irrigation; save water for irrigation; save water for irrigation.

LIBRARY FIGURES SHOW CHILDREN GREAT RETDERS

NEW YORK, March 30.—Figures compiled by the American Library association in its "Books For Everybody" movement now under way, show that nearly one-half of those who patronize public libraries are children.

The fact that children are wide users of library service is encouraging to educators who see in the flux a greater development of good citizenship. They point to the fact that ideals of American history and traditions inculcated in the youthful mind will do much toward placing citizenship on a much higher plane in the coming generations.

The American Library association, through its enlarged program, is striving to bring the best of literature within easy reach of every man, woman and child in the United States, with the principal aim of self-education through books. It hopes, with the other library agencies, to extend library service to the 60,000-600 persons in the country who are without adequate facilities and to spread the doctrine of broader knowledge and sane thought by acquaintance with the best reading matter. The "Books For Everybody" movement is to be financed during the next three years by a fund of $2,000,000 which is being obtained, not through the agency of a drive or campaign, but by the individual efforts of librarians, library trustees and friends of librarians.

HOTEL FOR WINCHESTER BAY.

Reports published in the Marshfield papers state that Portland men have been looking over the Winchester Bay country with prospects of building a summer hotel. Winchester Bay is about two and one-half miles from Reedsport, has a beach and is sheltered from the wind and is an ideal spot for a hotel. Plans are said to have been prepared and it is thought the deal will go through Winchester Bay is reached from Reedsport by boat, affording a beautiful ride down the Umpqua river and will soon be reached by auto as a direct road from Reedsport to the bay has been opened and is being completed.

LIQUOR TRADE WORRYING THE MEXICAN AUTHORITIES

MEXICO CITY, March 22.—(By mail)—Mexico's embarrassing position—that of having a dry neighbor to the north of her—has no end of worries.

Reports of smuggling difficulties continue, booze threatening to supplant the place of arms and munitions as a source of contraband trouble. The latest American complaint, however, instead of coming from the border, is voiced by the officials of Galveston, New Orleans, and other Gulf ports. Sailors on tankers and other steamers from Mexico, they declare, are acting as "booze agents" and are carrying liquor across the gang plank when they are granted shore leave.

Mexican authorities have been asked to co-operate with the Americans in suppressing this practice, so that henceforth, according to an announcement made here today, every effort will be made to strip Mexican sailors of bottled goods before they leave home ports for the United States.

Fear is expressed here, following the receipt of communications from Mexican consuls in the United States, that the producers of wood alcohol and other forms of pseudo-whisky in the States, hard pressed by American federal authorities, will attempt to dispose of their fake stocks in Mexico and other Latin-American countries. The Mexicans don't want these bogus goods—they have plenty of the genuine article—so the border and port authorities have been instructed to maintain a sharp lookout for anything that smears of imitation booze.

General Ignacio Enriquez, head of the Social Defense league (Chihuahua and candidate for the governorship of that border state, offers a remedy for the international booze problem.

"Make the border dry," says Enriquez, "the Mexican as well as the American side." Whereupon violent protests are heard, both from Mexican and American sources.

DRY SEASON THREATENED.

SALEM, Ore., April 1.—Oregon irrigationists are threatened with the driest season on record, according to Percy A. Copper, state engineer. Copper has asked water users to co-operate in the equitable distribution of the depleted supply of water.

FOR A LOW SUMMER RATE.

The Roseburg Chamber of Commerce have simplified their intentions of having Roseburg on the list for lower summer excursion rates. Passenger Traffic Manager Chas. Fee announces that the Southern Pacific will this year make effective low local summer resort rates to mountains and seashores. Two classes of tickets will be sold commencing April 30. One ticket will be sold daily at a 20 per cent reduction from the regular round trip rate and will be good for 30 days with final limit October 31. Another ticket intended to meet the requirements of the average vacationist will be sold on Fridays and Saturdays and will be good for 15 days and will cost one-third less than the regular round trip rate.

EASTER DISPLAYS MANY.

The Roseburg merchants this week have their show windows "dotted up" in true Easter style. Everything from an Easter hat, priced at "steep plunks" to the colored egg, has been included in the decorations. Roseburg merchants realize that an attractive window display, coupled with appropriate advertising has to make for better business and are faithfully carrying out such a scheme this season.
