GOOD COMEDY SHOWN AT ANTLERS THEATER

"The Man From Koxomo," the comedy presented by the Alcafar Stock Company at the Antiers Theater last night was one of the best productions the company has produced since starting its circuit in this city. It was a scream from start to finish and the many complicated situations, which kept getting more and more entangling towards the end of the play, provided the crowd with plenty of laughs. Next week this company will present "The Shepherd of the Hills."
