OUR rating in your mind, our progress, the growth of this clothing store, are things that depend entirely on us. To achieve them in the right measure calls for the thorough co-operation of every individual related to this business—and that includes the makers of the clothes as much as ourselves. You'll know that the House of Kuppenheimer has been working with us, shoulder to shoulder, in your interest, when you see the clothes we are now showing—clothes for men that express quality in their fabrics, in their style, in their workmanship.

HARTH'S TOGGERY HOME OF FLORSHEIM SHOES

MYRTLE CREEK VICINITY.

H. A. Tibbitts had the misfortune to get three fingers on his left hand badly crushed Monday. We all are well pleased with the News-Review combination and we think if they would only add a reliable daily market report our paper would indeed be hard to beat. The Methodist church held their Easter service and children's day program together Sunday night. Special music and recitations were given and the church was beautifully decorated with evergreens and flowers. At the Christian church the children's program was given at the Sunday school hour, followed by an Easter sermon and basket dinner. In the afternoon Pastor Fred Coley gave a talk on constructive work that should be taken up by the several churches. Riley Peters has been seriously ill for the past week. Homer Galtman has returned from San Francisco, where his daughter, Mona, is ill in a hospital.

Mrs. Angle Dobson is spending a few days in Roseburg at the home of her niece, Mrs. Sam Starmer. "Brownie" Willis has come back to Myrtle Creek and will assist Mr. McKinley in his barber shop. John Hall and daughter, Mrs. C. D. Baick, were called to Medford Wednesday morning by the death of Mr. Hall's sister, Mrs. Ann Beall, who has been very sick for several weeks. Mrs. Harry Stimson, of North Myrtle and Mrs. J. S. Wiley, of Newport, were city visitors Wednesday. Hon. G. W. Womacott and wife are visiting old friends in this vicinity this week. The funeral of Mrs. Honor Hervey, of Clark's Branch, was held at the Methodist church Monday at 11 a. m. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Branham. Mrs. Hervey was born in Missouri, June 19, 1856. She was married to W. S. Hervey on Nov. 20, 1856. She is survived by one son, Marvin Hervey, of Clark's Branch. Mrs. Hervey was a good Christian woman who made many friends during her long and useful life.

Examinations Be Held Each Month

Stenographers and typist examinations for the government service are announced for the third Saturday in each month at Roseburg until further notice. Examinations may be taken in either stenography or typewriting or in both together. Those passing one of these examinations will be eligible for positions in all branches of government service in Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Wyoming or Alaska. Upon application a special examination will be given for forest clerk to fill clerical positions in the forest service. Those passing this examination will also be eligible for positions in the reclamation service. Separate examinations will also be given upon application for stenographer and typist positions in Washington, D. C., in the Philippines and the Panama Canal service. Entrance salaries for all of these positions are very good compared with those of civil life and it is hoped that the reclassification committee now at work at Washington will adjust the scale of salaries to provide substantial increases each year for efficiency and length of service. Announcements for the field service stenographer and typist examination and the examination for forest clerk are posted on the bulletin board in the postoffice. For further information and application forms see Mr. Keyes at the forest service on the second floor of the post office building or Mr. Fields, secretary of the local civil service examining board, at the post office.

Paraguay Is Land of Opportunities

BUENOS AIRES, March 17.—(By Mail)—Paraguay is a land of wonderful opportunity for North American investors, says W. L. Schurz, United States trade commissioner who has just completed a seven months' investigation of its resources. Ten million dollars in American money has thus far been invested in the little republic but in the opinion of Mr. Schurz millions more of American capital would find a profitable return there. Nearly the size of the state of Missouri and with less than 1,000,000 inhabitants, Paraguay has untouched resources of amazing variety and possibilities. Mr. Schurz told a correspondent of the Associated Press. "Over half the country is forested with the finest hard woods in the world" he said. "Its soil and climate are capable of raising anything under the sun, including wheat and bananas. Experiments have proved that more cotton to the acre can be raised on Paraguayan soil than on any other soil where cotton is cultivated at present. It is good for tobacco and sugar. It is good for anything. "Oranges in Paraguay grow wild. You would not believe that only one out of every 100 oranges produced in Paraguay ever is eaten. But it is so. Billions of oranges lie on the ground and rot. "There are deposits of manganese and iron of unknown extent that have not been worked since the Paraguayan war ended in 1870. It is waiting for a railroad to be built to it. There is also copper. "The American investments in Paraguay at present are in cattle meat packing plants and quebracho. There are less than 100 Americans in the whole country. They are popular with the natives who think a lot of the United States.

STILL LOVES TANGO

BUENOS AIRES, March 17.—The Argentine has retained its affection for his national dance, the tango, despite the introduction of American "jazz" music and syncopated melodies in the programs of Argentine balls and dances. This was shown during the balls held in a recent carnival when tango tunes outnumbered the fox-trot and one step in a proportion of three to one. Several American waltzes, however, are very popular. The Argentines call the syncopated music "Yanqui-tunes." Some native musicians have grown rich composing tangos. One of the most popular here is called "Pan y Agua" (Bread and Water). The title of another is translated as "Flower of the Mud."
