WILSON APPOINTS R. R. LABOR BOARD

Will Be Authorized to Meet At Once and Take Up Strike Grievances.

CABINET IS CALLED

President Will Meet With Cabinet Tomorrow for First Time Since His Illness, to Discuss the Strike Situation.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, April 13.—The railroad labor board appointed today by President Wilson consists of the following members, representing the public: George W. Hanger, Washington; Harry Hunt, Cincinnati, and R. M. Barton, Tennessee.

Representing the railroads: Horace Baker, J. H. Elliott and William L. Park. Representing the employes: Albert Phillips, A. O. Wharton and James J. Forrester.

The board will be authorized to meet in Washington immediately and take up the grievances of the railroad employes now on strike and prompt action is expected from the senate on nominations.

Asks for Names.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—The Pennsylvania and New York Central railroads were asked today by the department of justice to send the names of all their striking employes and to indicate which ones are the leaders of the walkouts.

Conditions Are Improving.

CHICAGO, April 13.—The main strength of the striking railroad workers was today exerted in the section east of Pittsburg and in the Pacific northwest, with conditions, according to the railroad brotherhood officials, pointing toward a return to normal in the remainder of the country.

Embargo Is Placed.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—An embargo against all incoming and outgoing freight was placed today by the railroads entering Washington, and the only freight received within the last 24 hours was two carloads of fresh meat.

Aged Veteran Seeking Land

Hailing from all portions of the county, nearly one hundred ex-servicemen crowded their way this morning into the small land office.

In 1863 Private Haskins fought his way forward through the haze of the battlefield, his young muscles matching themselves in hand to hand combat with those of his southern enemy and coming off victorious.

The city officials are greatly puzzled over a letter received today enclosing $10 for boarding Alba Artlip, in the year 1900.

The undersigned citizens of Roseburg, Oregon, as a protest against the ever-increasing cost of living do hereby signify our intention of joining the order of the Blue Overalls and Soft Shirts, which is known as the B. O. S. S. CLUB IS FORMED HERE

Business Men Will Wear Blue Overalls and Soft Shirts On the Streets.

SUCCESS MANY PLACES

Roseburg Is Following Example of Other Towns—Mass Meeting at City Hall Tomorrow Night—Auxiliary is Planned.

It is not only possible but very probable that within a short time, a few days at the very least, the majority of the prominent business men of Roseburg, including bank presidents, realty dealers, county officials, merchants and others will be going about the streets attending to their business matters in the usual way, but with a difference.

This "back to the simple life" movement seems to be thought by some to be the only preventative at the present time of actual bankruptcy, as the clever little spring suits for gentlemen come out with their cute little belts and nifty pockets, and a price attached which makes one stop and wonder if the clerk misunderstood and thought that the price of the store was asked instead of the price of a suit.

The B. O. S. S. club is a real organization, with a serious and steadfast purpose behind it.

It is a well known fact that the local Roseburg merchants have not been guilty of profiteering in the past and it is not the intention of those who are instrumental in the organization of this society to take any such action as has been taken in many other towns.

Hatchery Improvements Are to be Started Within Near Future.

TO INCREASE CAPACITY

Fish Ponds for Both Trout and Salmon to be Added so That the Facilities Will Be Made Much Greater.

Between $10,000 and $15,000 will be spent on improvements at the North Umpqua fish hatchery during the next two years, according to J. E. Savoyers and D. B. Bubar, who returned this morning from Portland, where they attended a meeting of the state fish and game commission.

The hatchery represents an expenditure of about $14,000, and the improvements will almost equal that amount. Additional salmon and trout ponds will be provided and the facilities for handling both salmon and trout will be greatly increased.
