DOING A GREAT WORK.
 The history of a live chamber of commerce or board of trade will show a great deal of work on big and little matters that but for such an organization would have gone unattended to. No one of these efforts is likely to be overshadowing importance, yet the aggregate of all this service is what creates an advancing town. For instance, in a city well known to the readers of the News-Review, there is a list of 95 matters on which the chamber of commerce worked for a period of one year. And besides these a great number a smaller problems came up for consideration and action. Some of the typical propositions on which this organization worked during that year, were as follows, illustrating very well the general character of board of trade activities:
 "Housing committee worked with town planning board; visit of business men to local factories arranged; clerks' association formed; unload-freight day observed; stores reached agreement to close four nights in week; dollar day promoted by the stores; purchaser found for factory; meeting to consider retail trade conditions; road signs started; clean up campaign promoted; home building association organized; correspondence with war department to find work for disabled soldiers and sailors," etc.

The gains accomplished when some civic agency like this is working all the time, are not merely the practical results achieved. It gives the people a lot of confidence and faith in their community, to know that some active agency stands ready to take up and work for community causes. A town where such an active spirit is manifested is bound to gain a reputation as a progressive community, even if it is disappointed in some of the specific aims it sets out to achieve. The Roseburg Chamber of Commerce is one of the most active organizations in the state and is carrying out a definite and constructive policy that is bound to bring forth good results to the city and entire county.

Portland Oregonian: The average man pays little attention to local conditions. He votes for the fellow he knows; the others, if he is at all familiar with their names, as he is with shoes, gum, cigarettes or any article that has much publicity, gets his vote. Therein is a hint to the office-seeker.

The Bluebeard with scalps of twenty-five wives strung to his belt might be envied by some of the inexperienced, but the fellow who has had a hard time handling only one member of the female species feels perfectly satisfied to let the other twenty-four alone.

The spud is now some vegetable and takes a front seat among the gallery gods along with other necessities of life that have joined the H.
 C. L. It took the potato a long time to get its eyes open, but it is sure traveling some now.

At least once in every normal man's life there comes the time when he believes he is about to be made suddenly rich from oil.

Just a gentle reminder, Mr.
 Weather Man. You can trip up old Jupiter Pegasus any time. Mother Earth is soaked.

The man who can wear overalls and at the same time include the spud on his daily menu is getting by all right.

Anger poisons the system. There should be a prohibition law against anger.

The ever increasing price of gasoline will not check reckless speeders.
 Those overalls don't look so bed-on a fat man.

Magazines Added to School Library

Several students of the local high school are today at work in the library arranging the new magazine department which has been added through the efforts of Superintendent Smith. A standard school library is required to contain a certain per cent of magazines in addition to the books which it contains, and with the many new books which have recently been added, and the magazines, the Roseburg school library will equal that of any school of its size in the state. Many of the magazines were purchased from the ladies of the Mental Culture club, and from other sources as well. The list includes American Review of Reviews, Literary Digest, American magazine, and many others of a nature to be useful in school work.
 Files for them are being made, and new additions will be made from time to time.

BUYS HALF INTEREST.

John Ashworth today purchased a half interest in the Owl Cleaners establishment, and Ray's Suit shop conducted by Ray Ward. It is expected to enlarge the plant in the near future and to put in several new features which will be announced in the near future. Mr.
 Ashworth is a son of R. T. Ashworth and only recently returned from service overseas.

SUNDAY AT THE CHURCHES.

Christian Church, Pine and Woodward streets, C. H. Hilton, minister.
 —The revival service continues over Sunday and during the coming week.
 Great plans have been laid for Sunday services. The program for the remainder of the week is as follows: Tonight a chart sermon entitled,
 "The Two Railways of Life," especially interesting to railroad men.
 Mrs. Cross will sing a railroad song.
 Saturday night service, sermons, "The Ready Man." Sunday morning, "Life's Discoveries." Sunday afternoon to men only boys only.
 Subject, "The Third Degree man." A sermon of special interest to lodge men, and no unfair advantage will be taken of anyone. Evening message, "The Seven Church Facts." This will be a great setting forth of church truths. There is a thrilling song service, and Mrs. Cross will sing at each service, and everyone who hears her is greatly pleased.
 Bible school at 9:45. The school has done a great work, and Sunday will be looked forward to with interest. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6:30.
 "When Is Courage Needed," will be led by the prayer meeting committee, and will be a novelty meeting.
 The meeting for girls yesterday afternoon was largely attended. Forty-three have united thus far.

The Presbyterian Church, Jackson and Lane streets, E. W. Warrin-gton, minister.—We are in favor of

DIVINE HEALER
 Styled by the newspapers
 "the world's greatest divine healer," and teacher of immunity from disease and sorrow, has been lecturing to large, enthusiastic audiences in Grand Opera House, Salem, and People's Auditorium, Portland.
 Father Grammer carries records of many wonderful cases of healing from Denver, Seattle, Portland, Salem, Albany, Eugene and many other places. In the larger places crowds were turned away from the opera houses and hotels, unable to see him on account of the rush. Some waiting as high as four days to get to see him, and he was prevailed on to go out in autos and taxis every available moment that he could spare, to see those who were unable to come or be brought to him. He will visit Roseburg Thursday, April 15, and remain for a week, lecturing and teaching every evening at 7:30, at Liberty theater, and healing at Hotel Grand 16

FISHER'S BLEND BRAND FLOUR

BLEND'S MAN FRIEND

Costs More Per Sack
 Costs Less Per Loaf

This trade phrase which we have adopted tells, in a nutshell, why the housewife should buy Fisher's BLEND FLOUR.
 It may cost you a few cents more per sack because it costs us just that much more to produce.
 It costs you less per loaf because actual baking tests, scientifically made, demonstrate that it bakes more and larger loaves of better bread to the given amount than other flours.
 Made of choicest Eastern Hard Wheat and the choicest of Western Wheats Fisher's BLEND is a perfect flour for every purpose—as good for cakes and pastry as for bread.
