Too Much Appetite

may be as dangerous as too little

When the skin is sallow or yellow, the eyes dull, the head aches or sleep broken and unrefreshing, the back aches, or there is a pain under the right shoulder blade—it is an indication that the body is being poisoned by poorly digested and imperfectly eliminated food-waste. It is a wise thing to take

See Their Uniform Mileage Through Your Meter's Eye

That Long-Distance Service Every Miller Gives

We pay our respects to the motor car's meter—it is proving that, tire after tire, Miller casings, under like conditions, wear alike. That, after tire, they are long-distance runners.

This Miller feat of producing Uniform Tires is much discussed. Of course it requires the choicest rubber and fabric. But more than that, the workers must be trained to build alike.

That is what the Miller factory has accomplished. And that is why we feature Miller Tires. By giving you exceptional mileage, we know we can earn your trade. Reasonable prices, fair charges and quick service go with everything we sell.

LOVE and MARRIED LIFE

by the noted author
 Idaho McGlone Gibson

A NEW IDEA.
 Before I wrote John I received a telegram from him saying he was coming down on the afternoon train. Evidently someone had telegraphed him I was ill again, for his wife said: "I am very much worried about you. Be sure and take care of yourself until I can come and take care of you."

I didn't want John to come. I was a coward. I knew if he came and took me in his arms and said the nice things to me that only he can say I should love him again with all my heart. Strange, isn't it, that a coming child weaves a magnetic chord between a man and a woman when they have nothing else in common. Before we were married the glamour of love was over us both. We talked of nothing except our death and each other. In that whirlwind of three weeks of John's courtship every one of my brain faculties was lulled to sleep by the magnetism of his presence.

One of the Reasons.
 It seems to me that this is one of the reasons why the modern marriage is so often unsuccessful: neither really knows the other, even though the courtship lasts much longer than mine.

Love is one thing and married life is quite another.
 I have come to feel that Alice is right. She has many interests besides marriage which takes up her time. She has become interested in the affairs of the modern woman and her husband is perfectly willing that she should be. They are good pals and friends, but I do not think that they have ever been lovers. I am quite sure that the modern novel, the modern drama, and, above all, the modern movie exerts a bad influence upon modern young men and women. They are always wenching—Love is all.

You see, we Americans are such emotional people. In no other country in the world is delicious and romantic love deemed the only thing that is necessary to a successful marriage. In fact, delicious and romantic love is not deemed necessary at all to a successful marriage anywhere except in America. The French sharply define love as one thing and marriage another.

During my stay abroad it seemed to me that I had never known a happier and more contented home life than in the houses of my friends, most of whose marriages had been made French fashion by the fathers and mothers for the sake of financial or family reasons.

MAY BUY LAND.
 Forest Supervisor W. F. Hamsdell spent Tuesday at GHS looking over property there which the forest service expects to purchase for the purpose of erecting an office to be used for telephone exchange and also to build a warehouse and blacksmith shop to be used for storing supplies and making repairs. The plan was proposed last year but nothing definite has yet been done. A selection of land has been made and in the event the report of the local supervisor is approved the site will probably be selected at a near date.
