LOVE and MARRIED LIFE by the noted author Idah McGlone Gibson

THE ISSUE. "These are Ruth Gaylord's children," I said to John in explanation, hoping he would say something that would show he was a little envious. "Well, they are some children I should say," he said as he picked up Ruth and sat her on his shoulder.

do not understand. You told me once you loved me. Do you feel the same about me now as you did then? I hesitated a moment before I spoke and then I answered: "Yes, it is because I love you so much, John, that I am contemplating not living with you."
