

NOTICE OF ELECTION.

Notice is hereby given that the Common Council of the City of Roseburg, Oregon, has referred Ordinance No. 719 to the qualified electors of the City of Roseburg for their approval or rejection at the Primary Election to be held in said city May 21, 1920, and which said ordinance was passed by the Common Council on the fifth day of April, 1920, and is in words and figures as follows, to-wit:

Ordinance No. 719. An ordinance creating a Boxing Commission for the City of Roseburg, under the provisions of Chapter 344 of the General Laws of Oregon for 1919, and submitting the creation of said commission to the qualified voters of said city for approval or rejection, and declaring an emergency.

Whereas, a petition signed by more than 100 taxpayers and citizens of the City of Roseburg, Oregon, has been filed with the City Recorder and presented to the Mayor and Common Council, praying for the creation of a boxing commission for said city under the provisions of Chapter 344 of the General Laws of Oregon for 1919;

Now Therefore, Be it ordained by the people of the City of Roseburg, Oregon, that the Mayor and Common Council shall appoint a commission of three persons, who shall be appointed by the Mayor and whose term of office shall be for one year from the date of their appointment.

Section 1. That there be and is hereby created a boxing commission for the City of Roseburg, under the provisions of Chapter 344 of the General Laws of Oregon for 1919.

Section 2. Said commission shall consist of three persons, who shall be appointed by the Mayor and whose term of office shall be for one year from the date of their appointment.

Section 3. Said commission and all boxing bouts within the City of Roseburg shall be governed by the provisions of Chapter 344 of the General Laws of Oregon for 1919.

Section 4. The creation of said boxing commission shall not become effective until this ordinance is ratified by a vote of the qualified electors of the City of Roseburg, and for that purpose this ordinance is hereby referred to the qualified voters of said city for approval or rejection at the primary election to be held therein on the 21st day of May, 1920.

Section 5. The form in which said proposition shall appear on the official ballots at said election shall be as follows, to-wit:

Proposed by the Council. Shall a boxing commission be appointed for the City of Roseburg, as provided by Ordinance No. 719? Vote "Yes" or "No".

Section 6. The judges and clerks appointed to conduct said election are the judges and clerks appointed by the proper authorities of Douglas County, Oregon, to conduct said primary election, and the voting places in the respective voting precincts for the respective voting precincts for holding said election in said city are the places designated by the proper authorities of said county for such purpose.

Section 7. That the City Recorder of the City of Roseburg be and is hereby directed to give notice of said election, as required by the laws of the City of Roseburg.

Section 8. Whereas, it is necessary in order to promote peace and harmony among the citizens of the City of Roseburg that the question of the creation of said boxing commission be settled by the qualified voters of said city at the earliest possible date, this ordinance is deemed of immediate necessity for the preservation of the peace, health and safety of the City of Roseburg and its inhabitants, and an emergency is therefore hereby declared, and this ordinance shall be in full force and effect immediately upon its passage by the Council and its approval by the Mayor.

Notice is hereby further given that the Common Council of the City of Roseburg, Oregon, has referred Ordinance No. 720, passed by the Council and approved by the Mayor April 5, 1920, proposed the repeal of Sections 146 to 155, both inclusive, of the existing municipal charter of said City and that said proposed Charter repeal will be submitted to the qualified electors of said City for approval or rejection at the Primary Election to be held therein May 21, 1920, said proposed act being as follows, to-wit:

Proposed by the Council: An act to repeal Sections 146 to 155, both inclusive, of the Charter of the City of Roseburg, Oregon, which authorize, among other things, the issuance of $500,000 in bonds for the construction of a railroad from Roseburg to Coos Bay, Oregon, and which said sections of said charter were adopted by the vote of the qualified voters of said city, at an election held therein on the 5th day of October, 1914, and the same is hereby repealed.

48, 49, 50 and 51 of Section 33 of the existing municipal charter of the City of Roseburg, Oregon, as enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon, by "An Act to incorporate the City of Roseburg, and to repeal all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith, to-wit: An Act entitled 'An Act to incorporate the City of Roseburg,' approved October 3, 1872; and an act entitled 'An Act to amend an act entitled 'An Act to incorporate the City of Roseburg,' approved October 19, 1880; and 'An Act to amend an act entitled 'An Act to incorporate the City of Roseburg,' approved February 23, 1889; also, an act amendatory of said act, filed in the office of the Secretary of State February 19, 1891; and also an act to incorporate the City of Roseburg, and to define the powers thereof, approved February 25, 1895; and to repeal all acts amendatory thereof and in conflict therewith," (which act was filed in the office of the Secretary of State on February 22, 1905) and as amended by vote of the people of said city at an election held May 6, 1907, and as amended by vote of the people of said city at the general election held therein on the 5th day of October, 1914, and as amended by vote of the people of said city at an election held therein on the 3rd day of June, 1915, and as amended by vote of the people of said city at an election held therein on the 22nd day of May, 1916, shall be and the same are hereby amended so as to read as follows, to-wit:

44. To borrow money on the faith and credit of the city; and to that end may provide for the issuance and sale of negotiable bonds of the city for any specific purpose and to designate the manner and time of payment thereof, and the interest thereon; provided, that the amount of the principal of said bonds so issued, except the bonds heretofore issued by the city and now outstanding, and except as may hereafter be provided by law, exceed in the aggregate the amount hereinafter in this section authorized. It shall be lawful and the council is hereby given the power, under the restrictions herein expressed, to issue and sell negotiable bonds of the city, the principal of which shall not exceed the sum of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars for the purpose of acquiring, constructing and maintaining a system of water works or electric light works, or either or both thereof, for the purpose of supplying water and electricity, or either thereof, for any and all purposes for which the same may be used, to said city of Roseburg and the inhabitants thereof, and the vicinity thereof. The bonds hereby authorized may be in such form and of such denominations as the council may determine. The principal of said bonds shall become due thirty years from the date hereof, but any part or all of them may be paid by the city at the expiration of ten years from their date, or at any interest payment period thereafter prior to maturity. They shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed five per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, and shall be sold for not less than their par value. They shall be issued and sold at such times as the council may direct, but not so as to exceed in the aggregate the sum of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars. They shall be signed by the Mayor and Recorder with their respective names of office, and shall bear the seal of said city. All bonds issued hereunder shall be deemed concurrent and shall be without priority as to each other. In addition to being a general obligation of the city, they shall be a first and exclusive lien on all of the water and light system acquired with the funds obtained by the city from their sale.

45. The power plant for said electric light system shall be acquired by original construction and shall be located at what is known as Whistler's Bend on the North Umpqua river in Douglas county, Oregon, and the remainder of said electric light system and all of said water system may be acquired by original construction, condemnation or purchase, as the Council may deem fit and proper.

46. The Council of the City of Roseburg, under the limitations in this charter set out, shall at all times have power and authority to provide for the acquisition, ownership, construction and maintenance of a system of water works and electric light works, or either or both thereof, and for the issuance of bonds therefor.

47. The income derived from said water and light plant, or either thereof, shall be disposed of in the following order and manner: (a) In the payment of the reasonable costs and expenses of operating said plant, including needed repairs thereon, and collecting its revenues.

(b) In the payment of the interest accruing on the outstanding bonds issued to secure such plant.

(c) In making extensions to and improvements upon said plant.

(d) In the accumulation of a sinking fund for the payment of the outstanding bonds issued to secure such plant.

(e) In the payment of the bonds issued to secure said plant.

48. The Council may provide by ordinance a system for the management, operation and maintenance of all such public utilities as may be acquired by the city under the provisions of this charter, not inconsistent with the provisions of this amendment.

49. The Council is hereby authorized and directed to levy a tax annually, in addition to the taxes authorized by sub-divisions 1 to 5, inclusive, and sub-division 39 of section 33 of this charter, and in addition to all other taxes authorized by this charter and collected by this charter or any of the amendments thereto, sufficient to pay the interest accruing on the bonds authorized by sub-division 44 of this section, and after ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, such further levy as may be necessary to provide a sinking fund sufficient in amount to pay said bonds at maturity, or to pay said bonds on any part thereof at any option period hereinafter provided; and the Council may cause said sinking fund to be loaned at interest upon approved security or invested in approved interest bearing securities in the name of the city pending the maturity of said bonds.

50. The indebtedness authorized by this amendment to the municipal charter of the City of Roseburg is in addition to all indebtedness heretofore authorized and incurred by said city and is not to be considered as affected by any limits of indebtedness in said charter or elsewhere.

51. All parts of the charter of the City of Roseburg and all ordinances and parts of ordinances of said city in conflict with the provisions of this charter amendment are hereby amended, modified or repealed as the case may require in order that this amendment may be in effect.

The form in which said proposed amendment shall appear on the official ballots at said election shall be as follows, to-wit:

Proposed by the Council. Shall the City of Roseburg be and is hereby directed to give notice of said election, as required by the laws of the City of Roseburg.

Section 1. That there is hereby appropriated from the funds of the City of Roseburg not otherwise appropriated the sum of Five Hundred Dollars a year for the maintenance of a camp ground for tourists, and submitting this ordinance to the qualified electors of said city for approval or rejection, and declaring an emergency.

Whereas, it is deemed necessary for the welfare of the City of Roseburg to maintain a camp ground for tourists, and

Whereas, it is considered just that the qualified voters of the city should have a voice in the expenditure of public moneys, now, therefore, Be it ordained by the People of the City of Roseburg:
