THE SHIPPING PROBLEM.

Increased production everywhere in the west and increased competition at many points in the east form a problem with which the Pacific coast shippers must grapple to earn this year.

With the return of the railroads to private control, transportation lines generally are leading their efforts to catching up with the marked shortage of equipment.

Formerly cities and towns would wait for years for some needed improvement, because they could not get the money.

Formerly it took great learning to become a clergyman. Now you have to understand poultry keeping and other means of eking out your scanty salary.

The women who mourn about the lack of servants made housework unpopular by refusing for many years to touch a bit of themselves.

It is claimed that the government has a lot of superfluous clerks. If so, they must be very careful not to work too hard and get out of a job.

DILLARD CHURCH NEWS.

IS A VALUABLE ASSET TO CITY.

There is no more valuable asset to a city than a good hospital. And there is probably less interest taken in the welfare of an institution of this kind by the public generally than in any other enterprise in the community.

What Mercy Hospital needs more than anything else at this time is a little cooperation from the citizens and business men of Roseburg. This home for the afflicted has passed through a series of misfortunes the past few years and in one or two possible exceptions of two or three individuals, has offered in any way to lend a helping hand.

their efforts the Sisters of Mercy should receive the loyal support of the community at large. The hospital has not been a paying proposition for years, but regardless of this fact it is a valuable asset and should receive liberal support in any undertaking that is proposed to put it on a higher plane.

THE KNOCKER'S PRAYER.

Lord, please don't let this town grow. I've been here for many years and during that time I've fought every public improvement. I've knocked everything and everybody. No firm or individual has established a business here without my doing all I could to put them out of business.
