cast as 484,047,000 bushels. This

nished by the department of agricul-

Signs In the Religious World

SUTHERLIN, May 8.—(Special to the News-Review)—Last night Evangelist O. H. Shrewsbury mentioned many additional signs of Christ's second coming, which appear in the physical, financial and religious worlds.
He read from James 5:1-9 the distressing conditions in the financial world that are to precede the immediate coming of the Savior, the great concentration of wealth in the hands of the few, which is followed by deep poverty among the masses and the labor unrest. From Luke 21:25-27, Mr. Shrewsbury read of the rivalry and consequent bloodshed among the nations, "Upon the earth distress of nations with perplexity," and from Isaiah 2:2-5 the paradoxical "peace and safety cry" that has attended the great preparations for war.

He stated that the low standard of morality that we see in evidence about us was vividly forecast by the Savior in a wonderful prophecy of His second coming recorded in Luke 17:26-30. In comparison Mr.
Shrewsbury read Gen. 6:3, 5-7, 11-13, and then continued by stating that the saddest of all statements made in Holy writ is that which tells of the backslidden condition of Christ's professed followers just before their Lord is to return. "Because iniquity shall abound the love of many shall wax cold," Matt. 24:12. "And the church which should stand as a bulwark against the tide of evil is found recreant to her trust and throws a cloak over wrong, giving it a religious aspect, thus making the last days perilous, for evil covered with a cloak of religion makes it many fold more powerful to ruin men," said Mr. Shrewsbury citing 2 Tim.
3:1-5 and Luke 18:8.

In concluding, Mr. Shrewsbury stated that these signs were given to encourage, not to discourage, for to him who has made his peace with God by repentance, confession and restitution, the second coming of Jesus means joy and happiness thru the destruction of all evil. "Therefore be ye also ready."

Filing Time Ends This Afternoon

The time for exercising military preference rights before the drawing in filing on O. & C. grant lands closes at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon. Several days will be given the clerks of the land office to prepare for the drawing which is to be held on May 14. There are a great many conflicts, as many as ten applicants having filed on certain pieces of land, while practically all that of any account have three or four applicants.
Filing has been very brisk during the past few days and the land office has been the scene of great activity for several weeks.
The drawing will decide all conflicts and after that time all applications will be honored in or-merchants get in touch with manufacturers and place orders

Socialists Make Rash Predictions

NEW YORK, May 8.—An attack on the administration of President Wilson and the prediction that the socialist party would poll over 2-000,000 votes in the presidential campaign was made today by Morris HRIQUET, temporary chairman of the socialist national convention, at the opening session here today. He said the party would survive the concerted attack, "unparalleled in its ferociousness and lawlessness," made on it last year by "all the powers of darkness and oppression in the country."

presented to the Chamber of Com-advertise the city. The photograph is an excellent specimen of artistic of being framed by a highly polished beautifully grained section of Dougberries and blossoms neatly arranged. The Chamber of Commerce expects to have this picture made in-grade quality of paper and will send

GRAND JURY TO MEET NEXT WEEK

Long Docket Results In Session Being Set Earlier Than Usual.

MURDER CASE FIRST

Arthur Thompson, Charged With Having Killed Odie Bates in Fight, Will Appear Before Grand Jury Tuesday.

Because of a long docket and the nearness of election it was deemed advisable this year to call the grand jury for May 11. It is customary to call the grand jury just a few days before circuit court but this year it is desired that a number of matters be settled in time to allow the jurors to return home for election. Circuit court does not convene until May 24.

There are many criminal cases to be taken up by the grand jury at this term and the first to be given consideration will be that of Arthur Thompson, charged with having killed Odie Bates at Riddle recently.

Thompson and Bates were both members of the same section crew and negotiated a trade, Bates trading Thompson a horse for a cow.
The horse proved unsatisfactory and Thompson demanded a "trade back." This was refused by Bates, and Thompson went to Bates' home to get the cow in spite of protest. An argument ensued and a fight followed. Thompson, it is claimed, having stabbed his opponent with a pocket knife, causing death. He is being held in the county jail until such a time as his case can be given a hearing. It is understood that he has employed an attorney and will plead not guilty.

Three colored prisoners, "Kid" Williams, Charles Williams and Joe Brown, are also in jail charged with having robbed the S. J. Gasel store at Glendale. Two were arrested in Glendale and the third in California, the goods being found in their possession. They have been in confinement for several weeks, and one of the number recently made an attempt to escape, hiding under the courthouse after having been let out to secure some firewood.

Jack Denny and Frank Hardan are also being held on a robbery charge, accused of having entered the Wilson store at Glendale. They escaped with a large amount of goods which was found in their possession when they were arrested at Grants Pass.

Memorial Highway Will Be Constructed

NEW YORK, May 8.—A Roosevelt Road of Remembrance, planted with memorial trees from ocean to ocean, would be the greatest of all memorials that could be erected in honor of the former president, declared Charles Lahrop Paek, president of the American Forestry association, of Washington, in an address at Flushing today. Mr. Paek spoke at a memorial tree planting in memory of Theodore Roosevelt and Quentin Roosevelt. Two white oaks that have been registered on the association's honor roll were dedicated.

"In a Roosevelt Road of Remembrance," said Mr. Paek, "every citizen of the United States would have a part and no finer memorial could be erected than such a memorial highway. As never before, the Unit-

Social Unrest Upsets Japan

TOKIO, April 8.—Kanae Ikeda, director of the Middle School of Kure, suddenly disappeared a few weeks ago leaving a letter stating that he was dissatisfied with the recent state of social affairs and determined to lead a hermit's life. Now he has been discovered in a famous Buddhist monastery leading the life of a monk.

This is an incident showing the spread of the social unrest in Japan.
The old national mentality has greatly been modified since the war and the authorities find it hard to recruit sufficient officers for both the navy and army, as well as officials for the diplomatic and consular service.
Commercial careers now appeal more to young Japanese.

Big Prizes For Decorated Cars

With the co-operation of the Douglas County Automobile Dealers association, it is certain that the decorated auto parade will be one of the biggest events the city has ever known. The prizes previously announced have been doubled, the dealers putting up an equal amount with the carnival committee. The prizes are now as follows: First prize $150, second prize $100, third prize $50. The prizes offered by the dealers came as a complete but pleasant surprise to the committee.
The money was tendered at last night's meeting of the committee and was accepted. The list of those who will enter in the contest was already very large, but with the exceptional prizes offered it is expected that many more will compete in the parade and the success of the event is assured. Two judges will be appointed by the committee, two by the dealers, and the four thus appointed will choose the fifth judge, a fair and impartial decision thus being a certainty.
