HOT AIR NOT EFFECTIVE.

Town boosting is not done by hot air. It is accomplished by a serious, determined purpose upon the part of the people of a city to build better institutions, and to provide the best possible facilities for living and development.

Some Chambers of Commerce adopt the following method: They distribute a kind of blank ballot, in which spaces are left for the answers of such questions as these: "What is the first thing of greatest importance which in your opinion this organization should take up, for the benefit of your own business?" Also, "What do you want this organization to take up for the benefit of the whole city?"

Some suggestions collected in such a way, would have to be discarded as mere crank ideas. Some would be impracticable, too great for any resources in sight. But there would always be a good many that are within reach, and which could be accomplished by a persistent and enthusiastic effort.

A Town Promotion organization, after sifting these suggestions, should select a certain number that seem practical. Then it will organize the work of putting through a certain definite program. It will not merely issue statements, saying that this and that should be done. It will go to work as a business man will go to work on his own business.

Usually the first step is to secure publicity in the newspapers, which is always to be had. The second way will be to call a public meeting, and to get people warmed up on the subject, usually on the basis of a good dinner. Under the stimulus of full stomachs, good talk, the desire for civic advance, and the enthusiasm of numbers, there can be secured in any five town, pledges of support enough to accomplish some large results.

There is much art in striking when the iron is hot. Get the people who are willing to work for certain definite objects, to sign up for the task. After people have agreed to do a thing, they usually make up their mind to put it over.

Do you find that your back cracks and your legs wobble when you yield the spade and the hoe, after years of work in an office, Mr. Middle Aged Man? If so, do not necessarily feel that you are a candidate for membership in the Old Folks society. You have probably noticed that in any form of exercise to which you are accustomed, you can do just as much as you ever could. If you have always walked five or ten miles a day, you can do it still. But if the hoe and the spade bother you, it is because you have allowed the ho and spade muscles to get rusty as you sat in your padded chair. If you allow this condition to continue, you will become an old man prematurely. But if you get out in the garden daily for a moderate effort, you will find the amount you can do will gradually increase. It will prolong your life, enlarge your lungs, give you better sleep, and increase your working ability in your calling.

Successful business men are able to secure but a part of the news paper advertising space that they desire, on account of paper shortage but you can't convince an unsuccessful man that advertising pays.

The merchant who doesn't advertise need not bother to clean up his store, as not many people are likely to discover his disorderly condition.

Some people spend days and weeks hunting for a place to live or do business in, while others let a 25-cent Want Ad do the job for them, without loss of time.

Anyway there are a lot of men who would rather join the Overall club, than put on a full coat and go out making calls with their wives.

Many millions of profiteers rave with anger when they see anyone wearing a pair of $2.50 silk stockings.

Snake story season is reported rather dull under prohibition.

Get in trim for the annual Strawberry festival. She's going to be a hummer.

The local Commercial Club is off with a clean slate.

ARE MAKING PLANS FOR BIG CONVENTION

Fred Upham Been Directing Genius of Republican Gathering For 16 Years.

EXPENSE IS ENORMOUS

Cost of Altering the Chicago Coliseum Will Alone Cost More Than $50,000 This Year—Task a Difficult One.

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, May 13.—The directing genius of our republican convention in the past, Fred W. Upham, republican national treasurer, this year has planned his fifth and greatest one.

Mr. Upham has been chairman of the Chicago convention committee for 16 years and in that time has probably promoted more national political gatherings than any living man. He has organized and financed the local arrangements for the republican gatherings since 1904.

Every four years the planning of the big gathering has become a more complex and more costly affair. In 1904, the first year the republicans met at the Chicago coliseum, the convention arrangements cost $70,000. In 1916 the expenses had increased to $110,000 and this year the sum will exceed $150,000.

To raise this money, contract for building alterations, extra seats, decorations, tickets, badges and all the other myriad details of staging big quadrennial spectacles, in which more than 12,000 delegates and spectators will this year participate, is Upham's task.

Cost of altering the coliseum and decorating it will alone cost more than $50,000 this year. The task of obtaining and then safeguarding the tickets, is a problem in itself. The admission cards are printed on safety paper, in special tanks, and then locked in vaults until Thursday before the convention. None are sent by mail, all being distributed here. In spite of these precautions, many fall into the hands of speculators, who retail them at anywhere from $50 to $100 each; and even counterfeiting of the cards is not unknown.

Mr. Upham, who has been treasurer of the national committee since February, 1918, has been associated with national politics for 28 years. In 1892 he was a delegate to the national convention from the 8th Wisconsin district. He represented a Chicago district in 1912 and 1916 and ran on Governor Lowden's slate for election as a delegate-at-large from Illinois this year. He was western treasurer of the national committee in the first T. F. campaign in 1908 and again in the Hughes campaign in 1916. The only elective offices he has ever held were alderman in Chicago in 1896 and a member of the Cook county board of tax review for 14 years. He is president of a large coal company.

Salvation Army Drive Going Over

PORTLAND, May 13.—Reports reaching the headquarters slowly from outlying points in the state show several additional counties over the top in the Salvation Army drive and the majority of the state outside of Portland working hard to wind up the campaign for funds with which to finance the statewide home service program for 1920. There are but one or two laggard counties. In these, the quotas will be reached but not by the time limit set for the final report. Union county is cleaning up the small pledges, but is over the top. Wheeler county is over the top. Deschutes county reports nearing quota. Hood River is launching final campaign. Crook county reports finish in sight. Baker county is 50 per cent through and closing up. Lake county expects to finish Thursday. Marshfield is leading the Coos county race with $1,000 in hand from the city alone. In Yamhill county Seaside is over its quota and the Newberg district close up. The American Legion boys have taken over the Tillamook drive and, according to President Campbell, are putting it over. Polk county expects to report over plus tomorrow. Benton county is over half through and expects to make a quick finish. Marion county has over $25,000 in hand and expects to clean up its quota today. John L. Eberidge, state drive president, declares that with very few exceptions the counties out in the state will be over the top by the end of the week. Many have the money in hand but reports from laggard districts are coming in slowly, he says. "I look for the drive to be a big success and for the majority of the counties to go over plus," he declared.

MISSIONARY LEAVES.

Miss Julia Morrow, a missionary lately returned from India, who addressed a meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist church at the home of Mrs. A. C. Marsters yesterday afternoon, left this morning for RIALLA where she is to speak tonight. From Riddle Miss Morrow will continue on to Grants Pass and other southern Oregon points, and then into California. Miss Morrow is sent out by the missionary societies to acquaint their members with the conditions existing in India.

Foley and Burk Be Here Monday

Foley & Burk have for years been noted as being among the best carnival men in America, and their shows are coming this year through the efforts of the Roseburg Strawberry Carnival committee. The committee in charge promises many novel stunts and guarantee a week of wholesome fun.

There is no higher grade two-colored trained wild animal show on the road than that given in one of the many tents. Yuma, the fire-eating horse, another highly trained equine that adds and subtracts, and speaks colors, and several high school dogs and ponies show almost human intelligence and perform with a grace that is marvelous with the Foley & Burk shows.

The baby of the carnival, at least the latest addition to the family, weighs 60 1/2 pounds. Charles G. Johnson, state dealer of weights and measures, says so, and "Jolly Joe," that's the baby's name, looks the part. He used to run a restaurant in Sacramento until he got so big that he couldn't get into the kitchen. There are ferris wheels, merry-go-rounds, games of skill, hot dogs, concessions, crazy houses, and everything that goes to make a carnival complete.

The shows will arrive Monday and will start Tuesday, May 25 and will continue for five days at the Catholic grounds which have been donated free of charge as in former years. There will be a big street parade Tuesday evening at about 6:45 from the show grounds through the business district of Roseburg and then back to the show grounds, when the big time of the week will start.

Strong Women

By Dr. VALENTINE MOTT.

Women and men too—are just as strong and healthy as their blood. Vigor and health come with good blood. Without good red blood a woman has a weak heart and poor nerves.

In the spring is the best time to take stock of one's condition. If the blood is thin and watery, face pale or pimply, if one is tired and listless, generally weak, a Spring Tonic should be taken. An old-fashioned herbal remedy that was used by nearly everybody 50 years ago is still safe and sane because it contains no alcohol or narcotic. It is made of roots and herbs and called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. If druggists do not keep it in tablet form, send 60 cents for a vial to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y.
