Deepest Well Is Claimed by Texas

AUSTIN, Texas, May 21.—The deepest producing well in Texas is claimed to the Arnold No. 1, recently brought in by the Texas company

In Young county at 4700 feet. The report on this well, filed with the railroad commission, said: "We invite your attention to the log of Arnold No. 1, as we believe this is the deepest producing well in Texas, if not in the United States, same being a producer at 4700 feet."

to consider "safety first". Fire Loss is a dead loss. Be prepared with an extinguisher, for "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure" and in this age of H. C. L. is worth a ton of cure. We have The Standard extinguisher for both home and car use. This is a powder form and exceedingly effective. Cost but $1.50 for home size and $2.00 for car size. Also have the Johns-Manville liquid gun similar to Pyrene. It is certainly a dandy costs $10.50, but is worth the money. A few strokes of pump allows you to put a stream of "fire killer" where ever you wish. Did you know that carrying one of these in your car would reduce the cost of insurance?

YOUR LIBERTY BOND.

The United States government borrowed money from you to finance the war. You hold the government's promise to pay you back. This promise is called a Liberty bond or Victory note. On this bond is stated the conditions under which the government borrowed the money from you, says the government bulletin published to encourage people to hold their bonds.

For instance: If you hold a bond of the third Liberty loan, it states that on April 15 and October 15 of each year until maturity, you will receive interest on the amount you paid for the bond. Other issues bear other rates of interest and other maturity dates, all of which are clearly stated on the bond.

Now, if you keep your bond until the date when the government pays you in full for it, you do not need to worry if, in the meantime, the price is low one day or high the next. You and Uncle Sam are living up to your agreement with each other, and neither will lose by it.

On the other hand, if you sell your Liberty bond now, you will find that the man you sell it to will not give you a dollar for every dollar you paid for it. The price has been brought down because so many people are offering to sell their bonds. If the market is flooded with tomatoes, you can buy them cheap, but if everyone is clamoring for tomatoes and there are few to be had, the price goes up. The same is true of Liberty bonds. Short-sighted people are dumping them on the market, and wise ones are buying them.

The best advice that can be given to the owner of a Liberty bond is this: Hold the bond you bought during the war; it is as safe and sound as the United States government itself.

Buy as many more at the present low rate as you can afford. If you hold them to maturity you are bound to make the difference between what they sell at now and their face value. You will also receive good interest on your investment.

Hold on to your Liberty bonds and buy more.

Good Reason For Changing Name

By Associated Press MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 21.—Sverre Holland thought his name suggested too much profanity, so he petitioned the district court here to allow him to change his appellation and selected Lewis Moore as his title. His petition was granted.

Cotton Brings High Price

By Associated Press LUBBUCK, Texas, May 21.—A bale of long staple cotton grown on irrigated land at the state experiment farm here sold at 85 cents a pound.

The superintendent of the farm says the cotton was a portion of the crop raised on a one and a half acre tract which averaged a bale to the acre. The tract was irrigated in the early spring before planting time and again from time to time after the plant began to materialize.

Tent Villages To Beat High Rents

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 20.—High rents and scarcity of houses have caused "tent villages" to spring up in the vicinity of St. Louis. The tent dwellers generally report they have stored their furniture and intend to camp out until cold weather sets in.

Several industrial concerns that are enlarging their plants, it is said, will set up tent colonies for employees they bring here from other cities, until homes are erected for them. A housing corporation has been formed to construct cheap homes.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Commencing Saturday, May 22, the Roseburg Cafeteria and Restaurant will be open from 6 a. m. to 10 p. m.

Invalids Like Jazz Music

GALLIPOLIS, Ohio, May 21.—Patients at the Ohio hospital for epileptics here are jazz music fans. The music not only furnishes entertainment for the unfortunates, but aids in relieving their suffering, says Dr. G. G. Kincaid, superintendent.

Scattered throughout the cottages in which the patients are housed, are 12 pianos, 35 phonographs, and more than a hundred string and wind instruments.

The patients are particularly fond of band music, especially that rendered by the patients' bands.

At the weekly dances, jazz music is played for hours.

Class Holds Meeting
