

Introducing MASK O'UTH

W. F. Chapman, Druggist, has secured the exclusive Roseburg rights to Mask O'uth—the new and scientific method of non-massage which restores and preserves for men and women the smooth skin and youthful glow—fine, clear, clean, inviting—which counts so much for happiness and success.

PUBLIC DEMONSTRATION and INSTRUCTION Given By

W. F. Chapman Drug Store
Phone 269 Roseburg, Oregon

TUESDAY, JUNE 1, 1920.

"A Skin of Beauty is a Joy Always"

Oh Wonderful "MASK O'UTH"

to restore the expression of youth again.

Mask o'uth has been called the "Modern Alchemist," and truly, for it transmutes that leaden, fallow, sagging, wrinkled visage of neglect, or age, into the dear desirable expression and impression of golden youth.

This demonstration and instruction will interest everyone, as the matter of bathing the skin, together with proper application of creams, powders, rouges, etc., will be entered into in detail; also the application of "Hair-A-Gate," a perfect and complete scalp and hair shampoo, guaranteed to grow hair and correct all diseases of the scalp.

University to Give Musical Festival

On June 7, 8 and 9 the University of Oregon will hold its first Music Festival under the direction of Mr. Albert Lukken, head of the voice department and Mr. Rex Underwood, head of the violin department. This festival promises to be a rare treat. There will be three distinct events:

On June 7 the festival opens with a Cantata, "The Laurel and the Rose," the chorus being composed of all the city school children. The soloists are Miss Mildred Bettigen of The Dalles and Miss Gladys Lane of Heppner. The University Orchestra accompanies the Cantata throughout. Several other musical numbers of interest also appear on this date.

On June 8 the festival chorus consisting of one hundred voices (university students and out-of-town people) will present the Cantata, "The Rose Maiden," accompanied by the orchestra. The soloists are Madame Rose McGrew, soprano, of Denver, and Riccardo Clarke, a tenor of international fame; Curtiss Peterson, baritone, of Eugene, and Laura Rand, contralto, of Portland.

On June 9, a departure from ordinary music festivals will be noted in that "Cavalleria Rusticana," a grand opera by Mascagni will be presented. Attention is called to the fact that in so far as can be ascertained this is the first time that grand opera has been given by any educational institution on the Pacific coast. Soloists for "Cavalleria Rusticana" are Madame Rose McGrew, formerly of Hamburg Opera Co., Riccardo Clarke, National Opera Co., of Mexico City; Miss Martha Findahl, of the voice department, University of Oregon; Mr. Albert Lukken, head of the voice department, University of Oregon, and Miss Kate Chaburn, of Bandon.

MCKINGHT MAKES ADDRESS.

Prof. C. H. McKnight, of the local high school, yesterday delivered the memorial address at the joint observance ceremony held at the Ten Mile church by the residents of Ocala and Ten Mile communities. Following the program a banquet was held and in the afternoon the school children and the ex-servicemen marched to the cemetery, where the graves were decorated.

Tom Williams to Be Guard at Pen

Tom Williams, former member of the Roseburg police force, has secured a position as guard at the penitentiary and will leave in a few days for Salem to make his home. Mr. Williams has not been with the local force for some time but has been serving as a guard in the local S. P. yards. He left for Salem Sunday morning with the three negroes and Jack Dennis, all of whom were sentenced to terms in the penitentiary and after delivering them to the proper authorities returned to this city. He was offered a position of guard during the short stay at the capital city and as soon as his affairs here can be arranged he will move to that place permanently.

Sacred Services Are Held Today

ended with the "Star Spangled Banner."

The Women's Relief Corps of the Reno Post began the afternoon ceremony with the annual rite of strewing flowers on the river in memory of the sailor dead. They met at the armory at 1 o'clock and marched in a body to the Oak street bridge, where flowers were thrown on the waters and an appropriate service read. From there they continued on to the Soldiers Home.

Buck and Billy Sale Successful

The buck and billy exchange and sale held under the auspices of the Sheep and Goat Breeders' association at Roseburg Saturday was a success in every way. Thirty-one head of purebred bucks and billys were sold at public auction. In addition to these there were 19 or 20 exchanged. The average price received for the purebred bucks was a little better than $40 per head the highest bringing $65.

It must be remembered that these were all used animals and were of no more value to the owners than what they could receive for them for mutton.

The billys brought an average of $38.00.

Over 200 people attended the sale. This is one of the first sales of the kind ever held in the state and the success of the present sale justifies the continuance of the sale as an annual event in Douglas county.

The sale showed the necessity for more purebred bucks in the county. There were numbers of people who came thirty or forty miles to buy, but the number of registered animals was limited, and not of the quality that was demanded by the buyers.

Some of the best sheepmen in the county stated after the sale that if there had been fifty more highclass registered bucks present they could have been disposed of at a good price.

Officers, councilmen and other intimately connected with the office are of the opinion that enough attention is being given the matter. A member of the council this morning said: "I would welcome publicly regarding this proposition. It is no credit to our officers to stop law arrests for even though arrests are made and in the majority of cases the parties are guilty, it is a hard matter to locate the city recorder."

D. W. Crosby, the Riddle man, was in this city Sunday.
