WHAT IS THE CENSUS OF ROSEBURG

Mail Your Guess to Census Editor of The News-Review. And Await Returns.

INCREASE OR DECREASE

Much Speculation Regarding the Report of the U. S. Census Bureau as to the Present Size of the City of Roseburg.

The Roseburg News-Review will give a year's subscription to the person guessing what the population of Roseburg will be according to the 1920 census figures, soon to come out. How much do you think this city will gain over the previous census report? Get your thinker to working and mail in your guess to the Census Editor of the Roseburg News-Review.

The census returns are arriving in bunches but as yet the name of Roseburg has not been included. It is expected within a very short time and the figures given officially by the U. S. government will end a great deal of speculation here as to the present size of the county seat of Douglas county. A great many cities in the northwest have increased in population by a large percentage while others have shown only a slight change from the 1910 figures. In some places the chambers of commerce have been so disappointed and astounded by the returns that a new check has been started just to satisfy their curiosity as to whether or not a mistake was made.

It is the general consensus of opinion in Roseburg that the population has increased considerably. What do you think about it? Mail your estimate of the present population and let the U. S. "nose counters" verify your declaration. "A great deal depends on the census report," said a prominent business man of Roseburg today. "We have made our best estimate of a 'growing city' and have really convinced ourselves that at least a 20 per cent increase will be shown by the forthcoming census reports. We are hoping for the best. A 50 per cent increase would be more satisfactory and would be indicative of a thriving community. I'll send you my guess as to the present size of Roseburg and you'll be mighty startled when you read the figures." Such has been the comments on the streets from day to day and the

The monthly music club will be postponed until June 15. All members who are going to Brand's to the picnic on that date please notify Miss Farlow this week.

News-Review finally decided to put on a contest to determine who has the best idea concerning the magnitude of the 1920 figures.

Same Committee Serve Next Year

It is understood that the strawberry carnival committee which served so well during the event just passed will serve again next year. The committee recently held a meeting and it is learned that an agreement has been reached whereby they will continue to serve. In past years there has been a great deal of difficulty because of the inexperience of men on the carnival committee, the failure to have materials properly cared for, and the lateness in getting started. This time the committee will hold over and with the knowledge derived from the event so recently passed will make next year's carnival much better. They have had the left over materials cared for and will meet frequently during the winter to make plans and will start early next year to make arrangements so that there will be no last minute details to arrange. The carnival will be kept before the people during the winter and spring months and it is hoped to make the entertainment next year the best ever held. The members of the committee are: Dexter Rice, who has been appointed chairman; A. A. Wilder, C. W. Parrott, Roy Bellows, W. H. Fisher, W. S. Hamilton, C. A. Lockwood and the Roseburg Fire Department.

DANCE AT MILLER

Saturday night, June 5, Miller will entertain at a dance in the pavilion. Good music, Roseburg and other burles invited to attend.

LOCAL REAL ESTATE MAX ON BOOSTER TRIP

J. V. Starratt, accompanied by his wife will leave Roseburg next week driving his "flivver" and intends during his absence to visit as far south as San Diego. Mr. Starratt, who is connected with the Ak-Sar-Ben realty company in this city, will carry with him a large number of placards bearing wording "just to let 'em know Roseburg is on the map." These booster signs will be placed in every camp ground in which Mr. Starratt stops and will also be placed in conspicuous places along the Pacific highway. There is no doubt but what a great deal of good advertising will result from this unique idea and Mr. Starratt is to be commended for putting it into operation.

LOVE and MARRIED LIFE by the noted author Idah McGlone Gibson

THE JOY OF MOTHERHOOD.

"Put her closer to me." I whispered to the nurse. I felt I must protect my baby from her father's disappointment. For answer she put the little moist mouth to my breast. Again everything was swallowed up in the ecstatic bliss of motherhood. Poets may rave of the soft texture of the rose leaf, more material men may talk of velvet skin but a baby's flesh is indescribable. It has the softness of velvet, the smoothness of satin and the lustrous texture of the rose petal. It has that something that only a human soul can give. "It is mine—it is mine—my baby—my little girl!" I caught my breath and closed my lips as tightly as I could in my weakness and I determined then and there that my child should be taught to face the world, to face a crisis such as mine; that whatever else she was taught she was to be patient where she could learn the duties as well as the joys that come to a woman.

Reason for Ignorance.
I had not learned them because my dear mother was so engrossed in her invalid husband and her overmodest mid-Victorian ideas had prevented her from telling me what the reality of marriage and motherhood meant.

My child should understand that marriage is a paradox where love is all and love is nothing; that a woman might love a man devotedly and not only make him unhappy, but be unhappy herself, and that she would need much beside love to be a successful wife. In fact, as I lay there with my child at my breast I felt that I had been very foolish to think that love was all. In the great scheme of nature marriage means only one thing: perpetuation of the race. Nature has no time to nurture human things. It remained for man himself to make nature's law bearable, by saying that one man and one woman shall love each other and cleave to each other till death.

My little girl shall know this. My little girl shall understand that she must bear and forbear. She must have compassion, sympathy and forgiveness of self. But above all she must have tolerance.

"Oh, what wonderful dreams I dreamed as I lay there with the little moist mouth close to my breast and with the unutterable joy of knowing that my child was drawing

Price Tendencies To be Considered

(By Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—Price tendencies will be considered at the annual convention of the National Dry Goods association which opened for a two days session here yesterday.

Some of the most prominent merchants in the country are here for the meeting, the first the national body has held west of the Rocky mountains. Added interest is given the proceedings by the presence of a large number of British dry goods merchants who are on a tour of the United States.

The California Retail Dry Goods association will hold its annual convention immediately at the close of the national meeting.

Peculiar Accident Only Injures One

(By Associated Press.)
HEALDSBURG, Cal., June 3.—A peculiar automobile accident occurred near here a few days ago, when a party of four in a large touring car went off a mountain grade while spending the machine turning over four times completely, landing right side up among large boulders in a gully several hundred feet from the road.

When the dust cleared it was found that a woman of the party was beneath the car, and the floor boards had to be removed to permit her to get out. She was uninjured.

The driver, who remained in the car while it rolled, was the only one injured and he received a cracked rib. The car was later towed back to the road and it proceeded to a garage under its own power.

Short Skirts Not For School Teachers

(By Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—School teachers should not wear skirts that fall to reach the shoe tops, according to members of the San Francisco board of education, who have just asked principals of schools near here if any of their teachers are immodestly dressed.

MAY CELEBRATE FOURTH.

Several local merchants are endeavoring to stimulate interest in a Fourth of July celebration and it is quite probable that the matter will be taken up at the coming meeting of the merchants' association. It is believed that a local celebration should be staged and it is possible that a program will be planned. The celebration will be held on the 5th of the month in the event it is approved as Independence Day this year falls on Sunday.

Learning to Feed A Family Cheap

AUSTIN, Tex., June 2.—Young women students in the home economics department at the University of Texas are learning how to cut the cost of feeding a family. At the beginning the prime thing is to get a meal, but toward the finish of the course the young woman has also to turn out the finished product cheap.

The university expects its young experts to cut about half off of a luncheon by switching deserts and leaving off biscuits. Here is a sample of its before and after college menus:

For 45 cents a plate for four persons: Salmon croquettes, mashed potatoes, beef tea, tomato salad, biscuits, strawberries and ice cream.

For 24 cents a plate for four persons (toward the end of the course): Creamed tuna fish on toast, French fried potatoes, apple and celery salad, hot tea, lemon pie.

Doctor Cupid
That love sometimes cures disease is a fact that has been called to the attention of the public by a prominent physician. Love is not, however, the cure for all women. Many a woman is nervous and irritable, feels dragged down and worn out for no reason that she can think of.
Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription gives new life and new strength to weak, worn-out, run-down women. "Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong and sick women well. It is now sold by all druggists in the United States in tablets as well as liquid form.
ROSEBURG, OREGON—"I suffered something terrible from an organic trouble. Could scarcely stand on my feet. My head and back ached so hard and I was weak and nervous. I had severe pains in my side and my limbs and feet ached. I was also troubled with constipation. I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, Golden Medical Discovery, and Pleasant Pellets. These medicines cured me of all my ailments and I was well and strong."—Mrs. W. D. MOORE, 1246 N. Jackson Street.
