

Carnival Name Is To Be Changed

The term "Strawberry Carnival" no longer be used to designate the annual spring festival of the city. The committee are anxious to change the name of the festival in the future. For the past years the roses grown in this city have assumed a place of prominence in the city. The strawberries have been the main feature of the festival. Consequently, it has been decided to change the name of the festival to "Rose Carnival". The name used will be "Rose Carnival" and "Rose Festival" will be used for the annual exhibition. The festival is one of the most popular and interesting features of the city. The roses in the city are always first class. The festival should be advertised. An effort will be made to give the festival an equal place with the other festivals of the city. It is also planned to have a battle of roses between the city and other cities next year and the festival which holds over will be in mind.

was given on Friday evening by our different grades. It was well received and merited considerable applause. The various industrial clubs were placed on the stage and called to order by Ruth Morgan, president, they all producing a laughable skit, closing with the various yells of the different clubs. These youngsters are certainly making progress with their club work. Prof. McQueen and Go, Qilham entertained the audience with instrumental music.

Fred Agee and family took in the entertainment Friday. Ivan Swift and brother of Ten Mile and their lady friends were here Friday and attended the play. The Ladies' Embroidery club also helped to entertain the audience Friday evening and later dispensed ice cream and cake to the tune of $45. This money is to be added to the gymnasium fund. These ladies are to be commended for their help and generosity.

APPENDICITIS CEASES TO BE "HIGH BROW" MALADY

PORTLAND, Ore., June 5.—Appendicitis is no longer fashionable. Operations for removal of the vermiform appendix are going out of style. Much that was called appendicitis in recent years was not that at all, but plain stomach ache in varying degrees of intensity. This was the consensus of majority opinion of doctors here today in attendance at the annual convention of the Oregon State Medical association, voiced following an address by Dr. James T. Case, of Michigan, on "arogentogenolical study of pain in the lower abdomen." "A number of doctors in New York have added to their equipment a physical culture course," said Dr. Case, "following the operation for appendicitis. My view after hearing them talk was that the same results would have been obtained in most cases by dispensing with the operation."

"I have been in the habit of saying that one-half of the operative cases called appendicitis were not appendicitis at all," said Dr. W. B. Holden, in the ensuing discussion. Dr. E. A. Sommer, of Portland, placed the number of ill-advised operations for supposed appendicitis at 80 per cent. The doctors agree that there should be more definite symptoms than the well-known pain in the right side before operating for removal of the appendix was essayed.

TROUBLES FROM MY AGE

Mrs. Nancy tells how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her Through the Change of Middle Life.

Rochester, Ind.—"My troubles were from my age and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me wonderfully. I took doctor's medicine and other patent medicine but the Vegetable Compound has helped my nerves more than anything I have ever taken. I am thankful to the one who recommended it to me and will surely do my part in telling others what the medicine has done for me."

—Mrs. LUTIE BANCY, 468 East 9th St., Rochester, Indiana.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dizziness, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and dizziness should be heeded by middle-aged women and let Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound carry them safely through this crisis as it did Mrs. Bancy.

2ND MISSION COMES FROM PHILIPPINES

Body Headed by Senate President Quizon Reiterates Demand for Independence.

That the Filipino people are in earnest in their demand for immediate independence is indicated by the coming to the United States of a second Philippine mission to work for independence. Coincident with this announcement the War Department received a cable from Manila stating that the all-Filipino legislature had adopted resolutions reiterating its plea for immediate independence.

The second mission, like the first, is composed of the leading men of the islands and will work in the United States not only for immediate independence, but also to bring about better understanding, greater confidence and closer economic relations between the United States and the Philippines.

The mission is again headed by Manuel L. Quizon, president of the Philippine Senate, who is well known in America, having been for six years resident commissioner to the United States.

Senate President Manuel L. Quizon.

States. Mr. Quizon and the Hon. Sergio Osmena, Speaker of the Philippine House of Representatives and Vice President of the Council of State, are the leaders of the Nacionalista party, which has been in power since 1907.

While Speaker Osmena is not so well known in the United States as Quizon, he is considered one of the ablest men in the islands. Senate President Quizon recently referred to Osmena as "the greatest Filipino since Rizal."

The personal relations between Osmena and Quizon are probably without a parallel in modern politics. They have been the leading political figures in the islands for 12 years, yet there has never been the slightest indication of rivalry between them. Throughout their college life as well as their long political service each has refused to be a candidate for any position that the other aspired to.

During the years Quizon was the Philippine delegate in the American Congress he won the esteem and confidence of both the Republican and Democratic sides of the chamber. Whenever he spoke he was assured of a good attendance. One of the official short hand reporters once declared Quizon used the purest English of any member of the House.

Osmena, as president of the Nacionalista party, is the leader of the national movement for independence.

"Osmena is the premier 'de facto' of the Philippines," said a leading Filipino.

no Journalist, now in America. "A very conscientious and tireless worker, thorough and persistent, a genius for grasping the big features as well as the smallest details of public affairs, cool headed, quiet by temperament and education, a deep thinker, an eloquent speaker, a polished writer, a keen observer of men—such is Osmena."

Both Osmena and Quizon have been consistent advocates of Philippine independence, yet when the occasion demanded it they have never hesitated to champion the cause of America's good intentions toward the Filipino people.

ANTONIO MORENO

Inspired by the advice of an American actress, Antonio Moreno joined a stock company at Northampton, Mass., after completing his course at Williston Seminary. Soon he was engaged by Leslie Carter and later appeared with Constance Collier in "Thais." Then he went into silent drama and played with Edith Storey, Irene Castle and Pearl White. Theo Albert E. Smith, president of Vitagraph, placed him under a long-term contract and introduced him to the serial. His fiery black eyes, black hair, complexion of "golden pallor" and a talent for expression make him the ideal type for the screen.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Agnew, who have been located at the Mt. Alto ranch for the past two years, have returned to their home a few miles east of the city on Deer creek to remain permanently.
