We are making this public appeal for your kind forbearance and patience. We shall do the best we can, but if the inconveniences stand out conspicuously, don't desert us on that account.

The owners of the building promise us a splendid store, which we shall endeavor to make the greatest mercantile establishment in Douglas county. In the meantime, come and see us in the shed adjoining, and let's grin and bear it.

Sincerely yours, PEOPLES SUPPLY CO.

F. T. D. WINDOW.

The mysterious letters, F. T. D., which have been appearing from time to time for the past week, are at last explained in the unusual window now on display at the local florist shop, The Fern.

The window is a complete wireless telegraph outfit arranged with colored lights which send out messages and signals at night. This apparatus explains the letters F. T. D., which mean Florists' Telegraph Delivery, and demonstrate the fact that The Fern is ready to deliver flowers in all parts of the world.

In the center front is a picture of Roseburg, from which many colored ribbons go back to a huge map of the world, showing the method in which Roseburg flowers can become known. The window is most original and distinctive and is causing much favorable comment.

GAME COMMISSION CIRCULAR NO. 1.

In past seasons there has been many instances of people capturing young fawns and then asking permission from the department to hold and rear them. Two such instances have occurred so far this season. It is the consensus of opinion that the mother deer knows where her young ones are at all times and that if the fawns are unmolested the mother will find and provide for them. This will conserve the deer, which are the property of the state.

Therefore, except in instances where the mother is known to be dead no permission will be granted by this department to hold deer taken during the closed season and the law which covers the taking of deer during closed season will be enforced.

It is desired that this matter be given due publicity in order to facilitate the protection of our deer. A. E. BURGHDUFF, State Game Warden.
