Salem Elks to Entertain Right

SALEM, June 29.—Everybody who chances to be in Salem the week-end of July 23, when the state convention of Elks will be held in this city, will be a guest of the lodge, J. F. Hutchason stated today. "Everybody is welcome," Mr. Hutchason declared. "The big celebration is to be not for Elks alone, but for all visitors who care to enjoy it."

Work on the stands to accommodate the huge crowds which will witness the boxing matches has already begun. "Without doubt the matches to be seen here July 23 will surpass in quality anything ever before held in the state," Mr. Hutchason said. Names of the fighters have not yet been made public but are said to be prominent in the sporting world.

Two thousand posters advertising the convention were sent out this morning to every nook and corner of Oregon. There will be few places in the state that will not know about the event.

Arrangements have already been made by the housing committee to take care of 5000 of the visitors. It was stated this morning and many hundreds of automobiles will be available.

TOWN CRIER QUITS

PROVINCETOWN, Mass., June 8.—Provincetown's town crier, said to be the last of the profession in America, has hung up his bell and announced that he has cried his last message. For 22 years Walter Smith has plodded the two miles to the town's only street, announcing the time and place of events of interest, from sales of fish to the election of a president. Now, in his seventieth year, he says he is through, and there is no one in sight to succeed him.

The old crier's last cry was for the reopening of the Church of the Pilgrims, founded in 1714, and which had been closed for a year.

HITS INTERSECTION SIGN.

Doll Smith, of Oakland, this morning drove his Dodge car into the Jackson and Oak street intersection traffic post and "knocked it for a goal." Mr. Smith was driving south on Jackson street and evidently did not see the traffic sign. His car straddled it and it was dragged for about fifty feet until he finally stopped his car in front of the Umpqua hotel. The car was damaged very little and Chas. Lerry with a corps of assistants managed to roll the heavy concrete post back in place with the result that Charles sustained a mashed finger.

Dimpled Knees Are All the Rage

NEW YORK, June 29.—They've taken the dimpled left knees on the Paris bathing beaches.

That's the latest fad, according to Mmine. Eleanor Rubenstein of this city, who returned here today on the steamship Savile. "Because of the short skirts many fat women are seeking to reduce the size of their legs, and dimpled knees though many of the dents are artificial, are all the rage on the beaches," she said.

Rev. Brougner Is Frowned On

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 28.—Whether the Northern Baptist convention will frown upon the marriage of divorced persons by refusing to elect the Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougner of Los Angeles as a member of the executive committee will not be known until tomorrow.

Dr. Brougner performed the marriage ceremony for Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford. The names of the moving picture stars were not mentioned on the convention floor, when the nominating committee's ticket was submitted, but it was concluded that the opposition that developed to the election of Dr. Brougner was due to his stand on the divorce question. The chair ruled the names might be written in by delegates opposite to the nominating committee's slate.

UNDESIRABLE ON WAY.

SALEM, Or., June 28.—Milton Schwartz, who was recently released by the New York courts on the promise of relatives that he would be taken to Oregon, left the eastern city for Portland on June 17, according to a telegram received at the executive offices here today from Chas. Johnson Post, Mr. Post is a New York newspaper man and his daughter was one of the children attacked by the degenerate prior to his arrest.

The telegram from Mr. Post said Schwartz was accompanied west by his mother, Mrs. Addie Schwartz, and his uncle, Max G. Cohen, and that they intended to locate on a ranch near Portland. The governor also was advised by Mr. Post that the people of New York have no sympathy for the judge who released Schwartz, for the reason that Schwartz is considered a dangerous character and should have been committed to an asylum.

Poison May be Used Instead of Hanging

SALEM, Or., June 28.—A move has been started among state officials to go before the legislature at its next session and request the elimination of that part of the capital punishment law providing for the hanging of persons condemned to death and the substitution of a clause authorizing the administering of poison in carrying out the mandates of the court.

Dr. R. Lee Steiner, while superintendent of the penitentiary, informed officials in the event that capital punishment was restored in Oregon much of the unfavorable publicity attendant to hangings under the old system could be eliminated by so changing the law that poison instead of the scaffold would provide the death penalty.

It was Dr. Steiner's suggestion that the sentence be so worded that the person condemned to death by execution within a specified week this would give time and opportunity for the warden, according to Dr. Steiner, to place in the food of the prisoner a few drops of some powerful poison. Death would be instantaneous. In case the legislature acts favorably upon the request for changing the capital punishment law, it will not be necessary to erect a new scaffold room. Should the request fail, the new executive chamber probably will be installed in one of the prison buildings some distance from the main penitentiary plant.

TURNER CARRIED STANDARD.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—The Oregon delegation performed its part in the Wilson demonstration at the convention yesterday, when R. R. Turner, of Roseburg, carried the Oregon standard in the parade of delegates.

Many New Members For Local Chamber

The weekly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce executive committee was held last night at the room of the secretary and a number of important matters given attention. Considerable routine business was disposed of and plans made for future activity. The committee that has been conducting the membership drive reported good success and submitted the names of 75 new members, many of which have never before been connected with Chamber of Commerce activities. The outlook seems very bright and the members of the executive committee are greatly pleased with the showing that has been made up to the present time.

Oregon Barred Rocks Lead Egg Contest

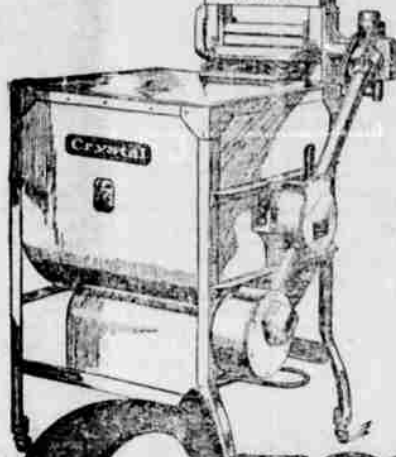

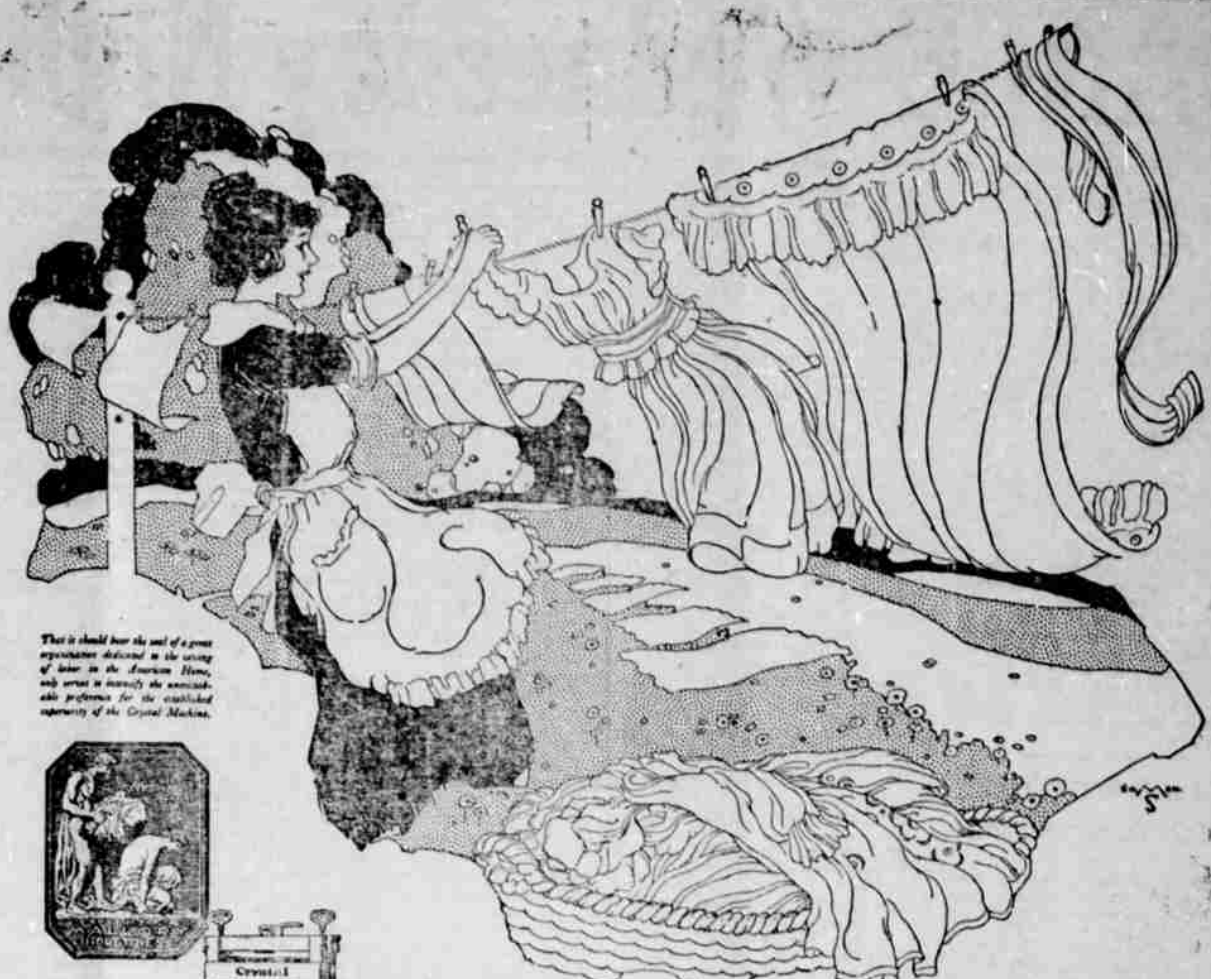

CORVALLIS, June 29.—Oregon's O. A. C. barred rocks still lead in the sharp egg-laying contest of the western Washington experiment station with a record of 831 eggs for the pen of five. This is 64 eggs ahead of their nearest competitors, Tanager's white leghorns.

The college birds were first for the month of May with 127 eggs. Another pen of college stock "Oregonians" stands near the top for the term to date and was only one egg below the rocks for May. The "Oregonians" have proved to be great long distance birds in the national and world contests, and their backers look to see them jump to the front in the remaining five months. The record for the 95 pens for the whole term is 61 per cent and for May, 66 percent. Fifty five birds laid as many as 25 eggs each for May.

One hen has laid 78 eggs in 78 days without a skip. She then "blew up," as baseball writers say. Literally, she laid a big double yolk egg on the 78th day—then went on a vacation or celebration or something for five days.

The cost of feed for one hen of all American breeds for one month was 40 cents, for the pen of five, $2. The value of the eggs at the market rate was 40 cents a dozen—$4.20 for the leading O. A. C. pen four distance birds in the national

That office boy was a good picker

IT WAS my busy day, AND I told the boy, I COULD not see, ANY VISITORS, AND HE popped back, AND SAID there was, A GENTLEMAN outside, WHO WISHED to see me, AND I said "No," BUT I guess the boy, IS LIKE my wife, AND DOESN'T know, WHO'S BOSS, FOR BACK he comes, AND SAYS the man, WANTS JUST a word, AND I told the boy, I COULD tell the man, BUT WHERE to go.

IN JUST three words, BUT THE boy came back, AND SAID the man, COULD SPOT me one, HIS BUSINESS needed, JUST TWO words, AND I'M a sport, AND CURIOUS too, SO IN he came, AND HANDED me, SOME CIGARETTES to try, AND SAID "They Satisfy," AND I will state, HE SAID something.

THEY satisfy—that says it. Never were finer tobaccos used in any cigarette and never were tobaccos more carefully and skillfully blended. Chesterfields give you all that any cigarette could give, plus a certain "satisfy" quality that is exclusively theirs. The blend can't be copied.
