

HARDING'S SPEECH OF ACCEPTANCE IS A NEW KEYNOTE

Republican Nominee at Notification Ceremonies Discusses Problems Confronting Nation.

"HOLD HERITAGE AMERICAN NATIONALITY UNIMPAIRED"

Advocates Party Responsibility as Distinguished from Dictatorial and Autocratic Personal Rule—in Referring to League of Nations, Says We Do Not Mean to Shun a Single Responsibility of This Republic to World Civilization—Favors Protective Tariff, Merchant Marine, a Small Army, Woman Suffrage and National Budget.

Marion, Ohio.—(Special.)—Warren G. Harding was officially notified here of his nomination as the Republican candidate for the Presidency. His speech of acceptance is, in part, as follows:

Chairman Lodge, members of Notification Committee, members of National Committee, Ladies and Gentlemen: The message which you have formally conveyed brings to me a realization of responsibility which is not underestimated. It is a supreme task to interpret the covenant of a great political party, the activities of which are so woven into the history of this republic, and a very sacred and solemn undertaking to utter the faith and aspirations of the many millions who adhere to that party. The party platform has charted the way, yet, somehow, we have come to expect that interpretation which voices the faith of millions who must assume specific tasks.

Believes in Party Government.

Let me be understood clearly from the very beginning. I believe in party sponsorship in government. I believe in party government as distinguished from personal government, individual, dictatorial, autocratic or what not.

No man is big enough to run this great republic. There never has been one. Such domination was never intended. Tranquility, stability, dependability—all are assured in party sponsorship, and we mean to renew the assurances which were rendered in the cataclysmal war.

Our first commitment is the restoration of representative popular government, under the Constitution, through the agency of the Republican party. Our vision includes more than a chief executive, we believe in a cabinet of highest capacity, equal to the responsibilities which our system contemplates, in whose councils the vice president, second official of the republic, shall be asked to participate. The same vision includes a cordial understanding and co-ordinated activities with a house of congress, fresh from the people, voicing the convictions which members bring from direct contact with the electorate, and cordial co-operation along with the restored functions of Senate, fit to be the greatest deliberative body of the world.

Republican Senators Conscious of Oath

It is not difficult, Chairman Lodge, to make ourselves clear on the question of international relationship. We Republicans of the Senate, conscious of our solemn oaths and mindful of our constitutional obligations, when we saw the structure of a world super-government taking visionary form, joined in a becoming warning of our devotion to this republic. If the torch of constitutionalism had not been dimmed, the delayed peace of the world and the tragedy of disappointment and Europe's misunderstanding of America easily might have been avoided. The Republicans of the Senate halted the barter of independent American eminence and influence, which it was proposed to exchange for an obscure and unequal place in the merged government of the world. Our party means to hold the heritage of American nationality unimpaired and unrenounced.

The world will not misconstrue. We do not mean to hold aloof. We do not mean to shun a single responsibility of this republic to world civilization. There is no hate in the American heart. We have no envy, no suspicion, no aversion for any people in the world. We hold to our rights and mean to defend, eye, we mean to sustain the rights of this nation and our citizens alike, everywhere under the shining sun. Yet there is the concord of amity and sympathy and fraternity in every resolution. There is a genuine aspiration in every American breast for a tranquil friendship with all the world.

One may readily sense the consciousness of our America. I am sure I understand the purpose of the dominant group of the Senate. We were not seeking to defeat a world aspiration. We were resolved to safeguard America. We were resolved then, even as we are today and will be tomorrow, to preserve this free and independent republic.

In the call of the conscience of America is peace, peace that closes the gaping wound of world war, and silences the impassioned voices of international envy and distrust. Heeding this call and knowing as I do the disposition of the congress, I promise you formal and effective peace as quickly as a Republican congress can pass its declaration for a Republican executive to sign.

It is better to be the free and distinguished agent of international justice and advancing civilization with the covenant of conscience, than be shackled by a written compact which surrenders our freedom of action and gives to a military alliance the right to proclaim America's duty to the world. No surrender of rights to a world council or its military alliance, no assumed mandatory, however appealing, ever shall summon the sons of this republic to war. Their supreme sacrifice shall only be asked for America and its call of honor. There is a sanctity in that right we will not delegate.

Disposed as we are, the way is very simple. Let the failure attending assumption of obstinacy, impracticability and delay be recognized and let us find the big, practical, unselfish way to do our part, neither covetous because of ambition nor hesitant through fear, but ready to serve ourselves, humanity and God. With a Senate advising as the Constitution contemplates, I would hopefully approach the nations of Europe and of the earth, proposing that understanding which makes us a willing participant in the consecration of nations to a new relationship to commit the moral forces of the world, America included, to peace and international justice, still leaving America free, independent and self-reliant, but offering friendship to all the world.

Humanity is Restive.

It is folly to close our eyes to outstanding facts. Humanity is restive, much of the world is in revolution, the agents of discord and destruction have wrought their tragedy in pathetic Russia, have lighted their torches among other peoples, and hope to see America as a part of the great red conflagration. Ours is the temple of liberty under the law, and it is ours to call the sons of opportunity to its defense. America must not only save herself, but ours must be the appealing voice to sober the world.

WARREN G. HARDING

It must be understood that toll alone makes for accomplishment and advancement, and righteous possession is the reward of toll, and its incentive. There is no progress except in the stimulus of competition. The chief trouble today is that the world war wrought the destruction of healthy competition, left our storehouses empty and there is a minimum production when our need is maximum. Maximums, not minimums, is the call of America. It isn't a new story, because war never fails to leave depleted storehouses and always impairs the efficiency of production. War also establishes its higher standards for wages, and they abide. I wish the higher wage to abide, on one explicit condition—that the wage earner will give full return for the wages received.

Greater Production Necessary.

I want, somehow, to appeal to the sons and daughters of the republic, to every producer, to join hand and brain in production, more production, honest production, patriotic production, because patriotic production is no less a defense of our best civilization than that of armed force. Profiteering is a crime of omission. We must work our most and best, else the destructive reaction will come.

The menacing tendency of the present day is not chargeable wholly to the unsettled and fevered conditions caused by the war. The manifest weakness in popular government lies in the temptation to appeal to grouped citizenship for political advantage.

It would be the blindness of folly to ignore the activities in our own country which are aimed to destroy our economic system, and to commit us to the colossal tragedy which has destroyed all freedom and made Russia impotent. This movement is not to be halted in throttled liberties. We must not abridge the freedom of speech, the freedom of press, or the freedom of assembly, because there is no promise in repression. These liberties are as sacred as the freedom of religious belief, as inviolable as the rights of life and the pursuit of happiness. We do hold to the right to crush sedition, to stifle a menacing contempt for law, to stamp out a peril to the safety of the republic or its people, when emergency calls, because security and the majesty of the law are the first essentials of liberty. He who threatens destruction of the government by force or flouts his contempt for lawful authority, ceases to be a loyal citizen and forfeits his rights to the freedom of the republic.

No party is indifferent to the welfare of the wage earner. To us his good fortune is of deepest concern and we seek to make that good fortune permanent. We do not oppose but approve collective bargaining, because that is an outstanding right, but we are unalterably insistent that its exercise must not destroy the equally sacred right of the individual, in his necessary pursuit of livelihood. Any American has the right to quit his employment, so has every American the right to seek employment. The group must not endanger the individual, and we must discourage groups preying upon one another and none shall be allowed to forget that the government's obligations are alike to all the people.

We are so confident that much of the present day insufficiency and inefficiency of transportation are due to the withering hand of government operation that we emphasize anew our opposition to government ownership, we want to expedite the reparation and make sure the mistake is not repeated.

A state of inadequate transportation facilities, mainly chargeable to the failure of governmental experiment, is losing millions to agriculture, it is hindering industry, it is menacing the American people with a fuel shortage little less than a peril. It emphasizes the present day problem and suggests that spirit of encouragement and assistance which commits all America to relieve such an emergency.

Gross expansion of currency and credit have depreciated the dollar just as expansion and inflation have discredited the coin of the world. We inflated in haste, we must deflate in deliberation. We debased the dollar in reckless finance, we must restore in honesty.

Will Prevent Unreasonable Profits.

In all sincerity we promise the prevention of unreasonable profits, we challenge profiteering with all the moral force and the legal powers of government and people, but it is fair, it is timely, to give reminder that law is not the sole corrective of our economic ills.

Let us call to all the people for thrift and economy, for denial and sacrifice if need be, for a nation-wide drive against extravagance and luxury, to a recommitment to simplicity of living, to that prudent and normal plan of life which is the health of the republic. New conditions, which attend amazing growth and extraordinary industrial development, call for a new and forward looking program. The American farmer had a hundred and twenty millions to feed in the home market, and heard the cry of the world for food and answered it, though he faced an appalling task amid handicaps never encountered before.

Contemplating the defenselessness of the individual farmer to meet the organized buyers of his products and the distributors of the things the farmer buys, I hold that farmers should not only be permitted but encouraged to join in cooperative association to reap the just measure of reward merited by their arduous toil.

Aid to Farmer Pledged.

Our platform is an earnest pledge of renewed concern for this most essential and elemental industry and in both appreciation and interest we pledge effective expression in law and practice. We will halt that cooperation which again will make profitable and desirable the ownership and operation of comparatively small farms intensively cultivated, and which will facilitate the caring for the products of farm and orchard without the lamentable waste under present conditions.

America would look with anxiety on the discouragement of farming activity either through the government's neglect or its paralysis of socialistic practices. A Republican administration will be committed to renewed regard for agriculture and seek the participation of farmers in curing the ills justly complained of, and aim to place the American farm where it ought to be—highly ranked in American activities and fully sharing the highest good fortunes of American life.

Becomingly associated with this subject are the policies of irrigation and reclamation, so essential to agricultural expansion, and the continued development of the great and wonderful West. It is our purpose to continue and enlarge federal aid and not in sectional partiality, but for the good of all America.

Budget System Favored.

I believe the budget system will effect a necessary, helpful reformation, and reveal business methods to government business. I believe federal departments should be made more business like and send back to productive effort thousands of federal employees, who are either duplicating work or not essential at all.

I believe in the protective tariff policy and know we will be calling for its saving Americanism again.

I believe in a great merchant marine. I would have this republic the leading maritime nation of the world. I believe in a navy ample to protect it and able to assure us dependable defense. I believe in a small army, but the best in the world, with a mindfulness for preparedness which will avoid the unutterable cost of our previous neglect. I believe in our eminence in trade abroad, which the government should aid in expanding, both in revealing markets and speeding cargoes. I believe in establishing standards for immigration, which are concerned with the future citizenship of the republic, not with mere manpower in industry.

I believe that every man who dons the garb of American citizenship and walks in the light of American opportunity, must become American in heart and soul. I believe in holding fast to every forward step in unshackling child labor and elevating conditions of woman's employment. I believe the federal government should stamp out lynching and remove the stain from the face of America. I believe the federal gov-

SALIENT POINTS IN SPEECH OF ACCEPTANCE.

"I pledge fidelity to our country and to God, and accept the nomination of the Republican party for the Presidency of the United States."

"The human element comes first, and I want the employers in industry to understand the aspirations, the convictions, the yearnings of millions of American wage earners."

"The Constitution contemplates no class and recognizes no group. It broadly includes all the people, with specific recognition for none."

"We approve collective bargaining."

"Gross expansion of currency and credits has depreciated the dollar. We will attempt intelligent and courageous deflation."

"When competition—natural, fair, impelling competition is suppressed, whether by law, compact or conspiracy, we halt the march of progress, silence the voice of aspiration and paralyze the will for achievement."

"I promise you effective peace as quickly as a Republican congress can pass its declaration for a Republican executive to sign."

"I can hear the call of conscience an insistent voice for a largely reduced armaments throughout the world."

"Our vision includes more than a chief executive. We believe in a cabinet of highest capacity, equal to the responsibilities which our system contemplates, in whose councils the vice-president, second official of the republic, shall be asked to participate."

Government Should Protect Bonds.

I believe this government should make its liberty and victory bonds worth all that its patriotic citizens paid in purchasing them. I believe the tax burden imposed for war emergency must be revised to the needs of peace and in the interest of equity in distribution of the burden.

I believe the negro citizens of America should be guaranteed the enjoyment of all their rights, that they have earned the full measure of citizenship bestowed, that their sacrifices in blood on the battlefields of the republic have entitled them to all of freedom and opportunity, all of sympathy and aid that the American spirit of fairness and justice demands. I believe there is an easy and open path to righteous relationship with Mexico. It has seemed to me that our undeveloped and uncertain and infirm policy has made us a culpable party to the governmental misfortunes in that land. Our relations ought to be both friendly and sympathetic. We would like to reclaim a stable government there and offer a neighborly hand in pointing out the way to greater progress. I believe in law enforcement. If elected I mean to be a constitutional president and it is impossible to ignore the constitution, unthinkable to evade the law, when our every commitment is to orderly government.

The four million defenders on land and sea were worthy of the best traditions of a people never warlike in peace and never pacifist in war. They commanded our pride. They have our gratitude which must have genuine expression. It is not only a duty, it is a privilege to see that the sacrifices made shall be requited and that those still suffering from casualties and disabilities shall be abundantly aided and restored to the highest capabilities of citizenship and its enjoyment.

American Womanhood Praised.

The womanhood of America, always its glory, its inspiration and the potent uplifting force in its social and spiritual development, is about to be enfranchised. Insofar as congress can go the fact is already accomplished. My party edict, by my recorded vote, by personal conviction, I am committed to this measure of justice. It is my earnest hope, my sincere desire, that the one needed state vote be quickly recorded in the affirmation of the right of equal suffrage and that the vote of every citizen shall be cast and counted on the approaching election.

And to the great number of noble women who have opposed in conviction this tremendous change in the ancient relation of the sexes as applied to government I venture to plead that they will accept the full responsibility of enlarged citizenship and give to the best in the republic their suffrage and support. This is not only a fortunate people but a very common sense people with vision high but their feet on the earth, with belief in themselves and faith in God, whether enemies threaten from without or menace from within, there is some indefinable voice saying: "Have confidence in the republic; America will go on."

RUITER ANSWERS DOCTORS' CHARGES

Claims Jealousy Prompted Attack Before Council on Tubercular Sanitarium.

EXPLAIN ITS PURPOSES

Says That Best of Care is Taken of Tubercular Patients and That Every Precaution is Taken to Prevent Spread of Disease.

Maintaining that strict care is taken of tubercular patients and that the attack made upon him is for purely jealous reasons, Dr. V. L. Ruitter today responded to the charge made against him at the city council at its Monday night session.

"Some of our ethical brethren, appear to be highly agitated over the health and welfare of the community," Dr. Ruitter says. "It appears that they have directed an attack on this institution alleging that we are menacing the health of other residents of the city. In their own case they give their tubercular patients a little cough syrup and allow them to expectorate on the streets, use the public drinking fountains; eat from dishes at public restaurants and enjoy all the privileges of a healthy person. In this institution a patient carries his or her own sanitary napkin, which is burned immediately after being used for expectoration. Every person has individual towels, and such articles, and has individual dishes which are sterilized each time they are used. Patients are certainly allowed to go about, as fresh air is the best cure for consumption, and our highly ethical friends recognize the same fact, but our patients are warned against expectorating on the streets or sidewalks, are not allowed to use the public drinking fountains or to use dishes at any confectionery or restaurant, or come in contact with other people.

"In regard to our Chadwick street annex, we were forced to find some place for the care of our patients when we were burned out of our present building. We had no place to take them except there and until our building could be repaired. We are thoroughly renovating and improving our present building and as soon as the work is completed we expect to abandon the annex. When we reoccupy our main building, we will be thoroughly equipped and will have a number of trained nurses.

"We do not need a regular physician for this is an open sanitarium and any patient has the right to employ any doctor they desire and our institution is open to anyone who may care to come to us for care and treatment.

"Regarding the use of morphine we do not advocate its use and I am willing to wager the sum of $1,000 that with the apparatus we use for stopping pain, that by our simple electrical treatment I can stop the worst case in quicker time than by using morphine.

"There is, I understand, some objection to our proposed Winchester sanitarium. The contract calls for all sewerage to be emptied into a septic tank and from there carried through our own private sewer to a point 500 yards below the Winchester dam. We have no building within 600 feet of the river. Our building sites are above the highway and the land is drained by using a 4 foot concrete ditch which empties into the river 200 yards below the dam.

"In our institution we are using every possible means to prevent the spread of tuberculosis. This is the purpose for which we are working. It is our purpose to quarantine so far as possible our patients and restore them to health.

"The building about which the statements were made is not to be used for tubercular patients. It is a fireproof hospital which will cost in the neighborhood of $130,000 and will be thoroughly modern throughout. It will be open for all of Douglas county.

Train Kills Three At Alford Station

Northbound train number 18, leaving Roseburg at 7:25 yesterday morning, struck an auto at Alford station, between Halsey and Harrisburg, yesterday at 11:45 and killed three of the occupants. The driver of the car, P. Scherimsher, of San Francisco, and two women who have not been identified, were killed, and a six-year-old boy was possibly fatally injured. Mr. Scherimsher was so terribly injured by the collision that he died before the train carrying the party reached Halsey. The names of the other members of the party could not be learned. The two women expired on board the train before it reached Albany, where it was planned to place them in the hospital. The child, though badly injured, is thought to have a chance of life.

The crossing where the accident occurred is considered a dangerous one, and it is supposed that in crossing the track the driver heard the coming train before he caught sight of it, and was said by witnesses to have looked in the wrong direction as he drove upon the crossing.

A message from Halsey stated that after an investigation the only conclusion to be reached was that the victims of the accident belonged to one family. The coroner of Linn county is now on the ground making an investigation.

Wonderful Results at Seventy From Internal Baths

Mrs. L. M. Waldia, 2043 National Ave., San Diego, Cal., writes Tyrrell's Hygienic Institute of New York as follows:

"Within the last month have had wonderful results and all inflammation has nearly subsided. I could hardly expect a woman over 70 to receive benefit from a trouble of long standing as quickly as a younger person. Money could not buy my 'J. B. L. Cascade' if I could not get another."

It is difficult to believe how many internal troubles internal bathing will relieve until you realize that physicians agree that 95% of human ailments are caused by accumulated waste in the lower intestine.

The "J. B. L. Cascade," the scientific method of internal bathing, removes, in a perfectly natural way all poisonous waste, and has been so successful in promoting health that over half a million intelligent Americans are now using it regularly.

It is the invention of Chas. A. Tyrrell, M. D., of New York, who for 25 years was a specialist on Internal Bathing, and it is now being shown and explained by Nathan Fullerton, Cass St., Roseburg, Ore.

He will give you on request a very interesting booklet on Internal Bathing by Dr. Tyrrell. "Why Man of Today is Only 50% Efficient."
