Ashland Man Tragedy Victim

ASHLAND, July 27.—Another tragedy has overtaken a local man, the victim being H. C. Chamberlain, engaged in the wood business, whose dead body was discovered in the timber section of Anderson creek last Saturday afternoon. Indications point to the circumstance that the unfortunate man was overhauling his auto truck, a powerful machine, without having set the breaks, when it backed down grade, dragged him with it, for over a hundred feet before the truck came to a standstill against the bank. His body was considerably mangled, and death is supposed to have been instantaneous. It was his custom to make two trips daily from this city to the wood lot, and he drew an extra heavy load. The accident happened on the morning trip of Saturday, presumably about 8 o'clock, and his body was not discovered until about 3 in the afternoon, by Nick Brophy, of Talent, who was also after wood in that locality. Nobody was with him at the time as he was in the habit of making these trips alone.

NOVELTY PHONOGRAPH BEING MANUFACTURED IN THE EAST

The Dryola, a phonograph, made in the shape of a barrel, with a faucet, etc., and inside the barrel is a concealed phonograph. But why should Roseburg people care for a substitute when they can get the real thing for the same price. It is now no longer necessary to substitute as we have plenty of Edisons, the phonograph with a soul, and the only phonograph that can stand the acid test of direct comparison with the human voice. Also the Victrola, the old standard by which all others are compared. We also have the Sonora, known the world over as the highest class talking machine in the world, and the Cheney, absolutely the only phonograph made that it is impossible to hear any surface sound or needle scratch on the record. This seems almost a miracle, but nevertheless it is a fact. The four best makes on earth, and you can try them in your own home any time you like, as we have the goods, the Edison, Victrola, Sonora, Cheney.

AROUND THE TOWN

Case Heard Today—Sheriff George Quine, and District Attorney Neuner, left this morning for Boomer Hill to investigate a recent fire there. They then went on to Canyonville, where the case of Al Hollenbaugh charged with assault and battery was heard today. Several complaints of alleged crime have been received from that community and were investigated.

Babies Underweight—Thirty per cent of 50 children examined by doctors in baby conferences held in two communities in Benton county under the direction of the home demonstration agent, were under weight, due, it is said, in many instances, to improper food. The home demonstration agent persuaded the majority of the mothers to follow directions with a view to bringing the children up to standard weight and health.

Visiting in Roseburg—Rev. Thomas McClary, of Los Angeles, who is traveling on Chautauqua circuit and is on his way to Kansas to fill an engagement, stopped off in this city last evening to enjoy a few days visit with Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Duff, of Pitzer street.

Simon Caro Home—Simon Caro, one of the local Elks became so interested in the convention at Salem that he nearly forgot to come home, but he is now back in the city and reports that the convention was one of the best he ever attended. He made the trip from Salem to Portland and then back to Roseburg with A. J. Martineau of the Josephine hotel in Grants Pass and R. Scott Weaver of the Umpqua hotel in the former's car.
