JAPANESE PROTEST CALIFORNIA LAWS

Memorial Sent Crying Against Legislation Now Before Voters of the State.

CLAIM OPENED LAND

Japanese Untenable By Americans Taken Up by Japanese and Made Best Producing in State Open Letter States.

(The Associated Press.)
 SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 29.—The complete text of the memorial in which the citizens of Hiroshima province, Japan, recently protested to the people of California against proposed legislation affecting Japanese immigration, has been received here.
 The greater number of Japanese in California came from Hiroshima Province, it is said.
 The memorial in full was given as follows by Japanese newspapers: "From the people of the Prefecture of Hiroshima.
 "To the citizens of the State of California:
 "Gentlemen: We, the people of the prefecture of Hiroshima in the Empire of Japan, who are closely connected with your State, must, through our representatives, most sincerely express our earnest desires and appeal to all that is human and chivalrous in the nature of the citizens of your state.
 Now it is long since the people of the prefecture first went to your state as emigrants and thus formed intimate relationship with your people and soil. Although their present favorable condition is no doubt largely due to the facilities provided by your State, it cannot be denied that they have done much in their way toward the cultivation of the land. Let us give some instances of the favorable results of their industry: The marsh of San Okin (Joagrin) which was once overgrown with reeds, has now become a very famous potato growing region; the wilderness of Fronsio which was in days gone by abandoned to savannah and other wild creatures is now a noted place of raisins that have become renowned all over the world; the desert of Imperial Valley once called the "Gate of Death" on account of its high temperature of 130 degrees has now become a famous melon-growing district, the produce of which is supplied to every state. All these are the fruits of the industrious labor of our emigrants' forefathers who have been publicly recognized in your country. As it has been in the past, will it not be in the future. Indeed, there is unquestionably no reason to doubt that your countrymen and our brethren in your state can continue to help each other for the promotion of their mutual interests. This, we believe, must have been fully understood by the wise and judicious inhabitants of your state.

 "There is, however, a certain amount of misunderstanding arising from the fundamental differences between your national manners and internal conditions and those of ours, and that feeling of difference has of late years become deepened and embittered, causing a most deplorable disturbance in the friendship of the two nations owing to the gradual increase of our emigrants.
 "This sort of misunderstanding comes mainly from the difficulty of conforming our customs and habits to those of America—a difficulty which cannot be easily removed and often puts us in a very difficult position.
 "It is possible that this small disagreement can have weight enough to break long established relations.
 "Looking back to the history of the foundation of your country and to her development we see that there was framed a special national constitution, based upon the three noble doctrines of freedom, equality and humanity, and providing for the government of men of all races upon this basis. As to the Japanese residents in your state, who are comparatively small in number for the area, it is needless to say that under no circumstances would they give any trouble. Whatever the cause of the anti-Japanese movement may be, it is entirely contrary to our wish—we believe to yours also—to give any difference to the humans and chivalrous citizens of California for any fanciful reason, or to injure the good relationship thereto subsisting between the two peoples. For this reason, we the people of the prefecture of Hiroshima must ask with the deepest earnestness for a calm and deliberate consideration on the part of your fellow citizens.
 "Relying upon the lofty spirit of your people we do not doubt that those rights which have already been granted to our people and the happiness which they now enjoy as a consequence will be continued and safeguarded to their satisfaction. Submitting this letter in the earnest hope that a favorable consideration will be given our requests, we beg in conclusion to express our profound respect for the citizens of your state, and remain your obedient servants.
 Signed: K. Takatsuka, J. Akaki, K. Takagi, U. Nakamichi, K. Aways, T. Mareda."
 The G. A. R. and the W. R. C. will hold their annual picnic at Bellows Grove Friday, July 30. All members are requested to be present.

LOVE and MARRIED LIFE

by the noted author
 Idah M'Glorie Gibson

KATHERINE'S MARRIAGE PHILOSOPHY.

"I think Alice, that we had better go back to the hotel for a few moments. In fact, I am so tired that I hardly think that it will do any good to go out without making out a list. You see, dear, what I had intended to do was to go quietly back to my rooms in John's mother's house and live there until I had fitted the new house up so I could live in it comfortably, but Elizabeth spoiled all that you know."
 "I can not understand what John Gordon was thinking about to let that woman come into the house before you returned," interrupted Alice furiously.
 "I don't think that he really knew that she was going to do it so soon," I answered.
 "Well, you may think she is a clever woman, Katherine, but I think that she is a particularly sneaky one."
 "Oh, my dear, my dear; can't you see that she had become perfectly sure of John in the long time that I had been away from him. I wish I did not think that, had that flurry in oil not come to me, John would have made me so uncomfortable that I would have had to separate from him by this time. Elizabeth you can see was working for a divorce between us. Sometimes, you know, a woman becomes so thoroughly imbued with the idea that she owns a man, body and soul, that she oversteps herself and this, I think, Elizabeth has done. As it is, I am fully determined that I shall not go into the new home until I can go comfortably. John Gordon brought this on himself and, for once, he, not I, shall pay."
 "Why, Katherine, I have never seen you like this."
 "No, my dear, you never have, for I have never been like this. I have been hurt and exasperated and furious with John, but I have never been absolutely disappointed with him before. Your brother has taken something out of my life that he can never get back, and though I shall probably go on living with him, I know that he will miss this wonderful thing that he has thrown away quite as much as I."
 Alice reached over the car and touched my hand. I knew what she wanted to say. What she did say was totally different. "The more that I live with Tom," she exclaimed, "the more I think that marriage entered into with mutual respect and a promise of mutual forbearance is the most successful in the end. I thought when you and John were married that I had never seen two people who loved each other so passionately."
 "That is just it, Alice. The love that John has for me is the most ephemeral that a man can have for a woman. He did not take marriage

Glendale News Of Weeks Interest

J. L. Scott and James A. Dewey of this city, left yesterday for a month's vacation on the Siskiyous. Their first stop will be at Colostine, where they will enjoy the mineral water that has such health-giving properties. And we hope they may return home restored after a year of strenuous work.
 Thomas Butler of Riddle is a guest of his son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Butler in this city.
 Prof. and Mrs. G. J. Wardrip and two small daughters, who are spending their vacation in this city, went to Myrtle Creek for a week-end visit with relatives in that city.
 Mrs. Margaret Anspoker, who had a months vacation at Ashland and Seattle, returned home last Saturday.
 Noting the recent marriage of Rev. Dr. Louis Albert Banks to a popular young lady of Roseburg, calls backward the scroll of time. And we are again at Vancouver, Washington, where Dr. Banks was commencing his wonderful and spectacular career, in which his consecration to his sacred calling has borne evidence of his eminent fitness to be a chosen vessel for our master's service in life's evening time. We join his legion of friends and admirers, in asking for him and his bride that Heaven's choicest blessings may ever group around their pathway through life.

 Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Wilson and son Lee, as well as their daughter, Miss Marie, are spending their vacation at their home in this city.
 Mrs. R. M. Ellett, Mrs. Florence Dewey, Miss Jack Platner and John Patton are camping out on Tomney, see Gulch and prospecting. Of course they would not shoot at deer—well, until after September 1st anyway.
 The Rev. Father Storr of the Lutheran church, held services at their church in this city last Sunday, at 11:00 a. m. The services were bilingual and the first sermon was in our native language and was a gem of theological teaching and was greatly enjoyed by all present. The sermon following immediately was in the Norwegian dialect. We all felt the influence of the spirit, as we noted the deep pathos of the speaker. "It was good to be there."
 Contractors for timber to supply our near-by mills, are closing large deals this week, which is a very satisfactory evidence of greatly increasing work at the various mills in this valley.
 W. D. Hollislaw, who owns a cozy home on Willow street is moving his family to Fernvale, to be near the timber belt, where his contract for mill timber lies.
 Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cornell have moved to the Winchell place, also for convenience to their timber contract. A general exodus of laborers, who, with their families, will live in tents, also are moving out to Hills. Everybody busy, and everybody happy is our slogan.
 J. H. Dick, agent for the Singer Sewing Machine Co. at Roseburg, Oregon, made a business visit in this city and valley this week. Mrs. Chie Nebel has bought a Singer Machine from their local representative in Glendale. Mr. Dick delivered the machine at the Nebel home and with a look of surprise and appreciation he remarked that he did not know there was such a splendid home in this valley. We are proud of our great improvements in South Douglas and Mr. Dick will find many good homes when he gets out on Cow Creek valley. Mr. Dick was accompanied by his son Gerald. They went on to Medford yesterday.

A. E. Kerriek, of East Douglas street sustained a severe injury to his foot Tuesday which will confine him to his home for a number of days.
 Tomorrow—John's Latest Move.

When a Woman is Nervous—Worried

The lives of most women are full of worry. Men's troubles are bad enough, but women's are worse. Worry makes women sick. It pulls them down, and in their weakened condition they are subject to pains, aches, weakness, backaches, headaches and dizzy spells. Most women neglect their health, and for this they pay the penalty. Any woman will find that neglect does not pay. A little more attention to health would brighten up her life. If she asks her neighbors she finds that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription benefits a woman's whole system. It not only acts upon the troubles and weaknesses peculiar to women, but is an all-round tonic that braces the entire body, overcoming nervousness, sleeplessness, headaches, dizziness and a run-down condition.
 LENTS, OREGON—"In my younger days I was greatly distressed. I began using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and received such relief that I can recommend it to others. I have raised a large family and am a great-grandmother and have always insisted on my daughters-in-law using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription during expectant periods."—Mrs. B. F. SHELLEY, 6111-94th Street.

Attorney Dexter Rice Corners Egg Market

Scrambled eggs, fried eggs, eggs once over, omelets, and every other known mode and procedure for the cooking of eggs are being indulged in by campers at Rock Creek. It seems that last Saturday, Dexter Rice, the w. k. atty. (paragizing Dean Collins) who with his family is enjoying an outing on the famous stream, phoned in for some eggs. The person taking the order misunderstood and thought he said a case of eggs, and consequently 30 dozen at the prevailing price of 45 cents were put up for Mr. Rice, and were transported by Ray Ward, who went on for a day's fishing. The problem now is to devour the eggs before same are beyond the devouring stage, and all the Rock Creek Campers are lending themselves to the task.

 SHIPMENT OF CHITMAM BARK IS WELL "SALTED"
 George Schumacher of the Sumner Transportation company was today consulting the officers regarding action to be taken against a fraud in shipment of chitmam bark which he recently purchased. The chitmam bark came from some party near Allegany. In several of the sacks, were rocks some large ones, which were weighed in and paid for as chitmam bark. Some of the rocks weighed as much as fifteen pounds.
 The fraud was not discovered until the sacks were emptied.
 So far as ascertained about $15 was paid for the worthless rocks. M. Marshall Carter referred Mr. Schumacher to District Attorney Hall—Coos Bay Times.

SICK WOMEN HEAR ME

You Can Be Free from Pain as I Am, if You Do as I Did.
 Harrington, Mo.—"I suffered with backache, pains through my hip and such a bearing down feeling that I could not stand on my feet. I also had other distressing symptoms. At times I had to give up work. I tried a number of remedies but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did me more good than anything else I am regular, do not suffer the pains I used to, keep house and do all the work. I recommend your medicine to all who suffer as I did and you may use my letter as you like."—Mrs. MINNIE MITCH 322, Harrington, Mo.
 There are many women who suffer as Mrs. Mitchell did and who are being fitted by this great medicine every day. It has helped thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, indigestion, and nervous prostration.
 Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound contains no narcotics or harmful drugs. It is made from extracts of roots and herbs and is a safe medium for women. If you need special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass.
