

DRAIN ITEMS. Dick Sanders took an auto load of folks to the picnic held in Shore-street last Saturday. On Monday he took an auto load to Bandon, but he did not learn the names of any of the party.

week and was brought out for medical treatment. Mrs. Lucy Brookhart and three children were over on the head of Smith river one day last week picking huckleberries.

Appreciative Letter From W.G. McAdoo

R. R. Turner, of the local U. S. land office, today received the following letter from Attorney William G. McAdoo, thanking Mr. Turner for the support given at the recent democratic national convention in San Francisco:

Former German Warships Here

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—The former German warships which were recently turned over to the United States by the allied powers reached quarantine stations late today.

LOCAL NEWS.

In City Today.—I. J. and W. A. Norman, of Tillam, were in the city today. M. C. Weatherford, of Green, spent a few hours in Roseburg this morning transacting business matters.

At Whistlers Bend.—County Treasurer J. E. Sawyers, wife and family, Mrs. E. L. Kidder and Miss Gertrude Rast spent Saturday and Sunday camping at Whistlers Bend, returning to Roseburg this morning.

Return From Vacation.—Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kelley, Mrs. F. L. Russell, and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Bettes, who have been camping at Winchester Bay and Gardiner for the past few weeks, have returned to their home near this city.

Crop Production Above the Average

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—That the country will have ample foodstuffs was shown in the crop production forecast issued today by the department of agriculture. According to the department the condition of crops and yields on August 1, estimates winter wheat at 533,000,000 bushels; spring wheat at 262,000,000 bushels, or a total of 795,000,000 bushels for this year.

LADIE'S LOW SHOES ABOUT ONE-HALF PRICE For quick disposal we have grouped eight complete lines of... OXFORDS at $4.85 Former prices to $9.50

Bargain day at the Hat Shop, Aug. 11, 10 a. m.

WE PROVE IT SPOTS & STAINS absolutely removed by our DRY CLEANING A trial proves—let us have the suit, coat, skirt, today, as a starter.

AUTO OWNERS' ATTENTION! The Universal Tire Filler Co. of Portland, Ore. has established a filler station in this city.

My only regret is the disappointment of my splendid friends. That they could muster such strength in the face of the discouragements I put in their way, and of my refusal to sanction the presenting of my name to the convention, was a surprising achievement.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Carr, who have been enjoying an outing at Bandon for the past two weeks, arrived at their home in this city last night.

I have a profound conviction that the hand of God is in these great affairs and that all that has happened is for the best. It is our duty to fight reactionary forces represented by the republican party with all our might and prevent them from regaining control of the government.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Perrine, arrived in the city last evening from Salem to remain here for a week.

Miss Helen and Maude Jennings will arrive in Roseburg tomorrow from Boise, Idaho, where they reside, and will make an extended visit at the T. O. Dixon and R. B. Dixon residences.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Weaver and family are visiting here at the home of Rev. J. E. Conder of the South Methodist church.

WELL KNOWN WRITER HERE.

David Hazen, feature writer for the Portland Telegram, who is in the city today with J. D. Farrell and A. H. Lea, of the state fair board, is an ex-war correspondent and spent 13 months overseas with the 91st division.

MARKET QUOTATIONS.

PORTLAND, Aug. 9.—The demand for cattle has slowed down, choice steers from the ranges bringing only 10 1/2 cents. Hogs are steady with good sale at 18 1/2 cents for prime mixed lots.

CIRCULATING PETITIONS.

Percy Webb is today circulating petitions in the city asking for the re-election of Walter Hamilton as mayor, R. L. Whipple as city recorder and Corrine Alley as city treasurer.

PLENTY OF GAS.

The gasoline shortage in Roseburg seems to be relieved for some time to come. With the arrival of the dealers' car yesterday all of the stations have been filled and everyone is being supplied.

NEW TODAY.

FOR SALE—4 hole steel range, 1253 Winchester. Phone 225-J. WANTED—Three brush pickers. Can camp. Geo. L. Russell, Looking Glass, Oregon.

HUNTER AND GUIDE—Pack horses furnished. Write for dates. BEIT WELLS, Camas Valley, Or.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children In Use For Over 30 Years Always bears the Signature of J. C. Watson

LEONA ITEMS.

Mrs. Ewing went up to Cottage Grove last Monday to have some dental work done, and incidentally took in the baseball game.

DROWNED AT REEDSPORT.

L. E. Truesdale was drowned in the Reedport Lumber company's boom at Reedport some time Saturday afternoon. It is not known how the accident happened, as he was last seen at 5:30 o'clock placing his logs.

THIEVES ARE CAUGHT.

Two well known local boys today confessed to the city police of having stolen the large motor coffee grinder from the old store room of the Peoples Supply Company some time ago.

CHILD'S FOOT CUT OFF.

A deniable accident is reported in the Eugene newspapers of recent date. While cutting hay on his farm, Fred Lockwood, a rancher in the western end of Lane county, cut off both the feet of his three year old daughter who was playing in the tall oats and was not seen by her father before the sickle severed the child's feet.

CHILDREN'S FOOT CUT OFF.

A deniable accident is reported in the Eugene newspapers of recent date. While cutting hay on his farm, Fred Lockwood, a rancher in the western end of Lane county, cut off both the feet of his three year old daughter who was playing in the tall oats and was not seen by her father before the sickle severed the child's feet.

Eighteen hats at $5.00 each. The Hat Shop, Aug. 11, 10 a. m.

Miller's Dillard Sub-Division Choice River Bottom Land, in Tracts of 5 acres and up.

G. W. YOUNG AND SON Real Estate and Insurance. 116 Cass St. Phone 417

MARRIED SATURDAY.

James L. Roberts and Clara Fullerton, both well known Myrtle Creek residents, were united in marriage at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage Saturday afternoon.

A. Dieckmann, of Myrtle Creek, was transacting business here today.

BEGINNING MONDAY, AUGUST 9, 1920 We Will Have On Our Sales Floor 206 N. Jackson Street Exceptional Values in TRUCKS OF VARIOUS SIZES FOR FARMERS, FRUIT GROWERS, DELIVERERS H. MERTEN MOTOR CARS AND TRUCKS

SALEM, Or., Aug. 7.—Bids on a proposed bond issue of $1,500,000 will be opened by the state highway commission at a meeting in Portland August 24.

To Our Customers:-- The only way to paint economically is to FORGET GALLON PRICE and figure cost by area cover and years of life.

CHURCHILL HARDWARE COMPANY The only way to paint economically is to FORGET GALLON PRICE and figure cost by area cover and years of life.

Majestic THEATRE TODAY ONLY TODAY ONLY Anne Cornwall in a picture that will grip and hold you 'THE GIRL IN THE RAIN' Comedy art Bound and Gagged No' 8 TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY OWEN MOORE in THE DESPERATE HERO