

"SWEETEST GIRL IN DIXIE" AT THE TENT TONIGHT.

The second performance of "The Call of the Woods" pleased another good house at the tent last night and will give way to "The Sweetest Girl in Dixie" to night. This is a delightful little Southern romance full of well drawn natural characters, the little story is as simple and interesting as it is sweet. The love and dramatic interest, while both are strong, are really overshadowed by the quaint comedy that predominated throughout the entire little play. This comedy is furnished by the two colored house servants of the Old Colonel and the airing of their domestic difference is little short of a riot of fun. Our friend Toby will be the Colored Mammy tonight, it is one of his very best efforts, and that is saying considerable. The other members are in congenial parts and The Sweetest Girl in Dixie promises to be a real treat.
