THE SWEETEST GIRL IN DIXIE A HIT AT TENT THEATRE.

"The Sweetest Girl in Dixie" gave the Macy-Baird Comedians an opportunity last night to show their versatility. The pretty little southern romance is quite different from the three previous offerings, but equally as interesting and entertaining. Toby transformed into an Old Negro Mammy, was perhaps the biggest surprise, as well as the biggest hit of the evening. The story is dainty, and the atmosphere of the southland pervades the entire play. New vaudeville act last night were received with enthusiasm by the big audience, that practically filled the tent theatre. The Sweetest Girl in Dixie will be repeated tonight; so don't miss this delightful little play, as this will be the last performance of it this season.

W. A. Smith, Leslie Lilly, A. W. Ream and Hugh Shellabarger were among the Glide residents in this city today.
