Ed. Strong is the guy that can barbecue the meat. Ah, well, do most of us know it, when about 50 people gathered at his home some two weeks ago and devoured a big lot of it.—Gee! it was fine.
Some time in the near future we will have a melon social at Grange Hall. Don't know the date at present, but just as soon as George Adams' melons are good and ripe.

Hotel and City Are Advertised

In the recent issue of "The American Greeter," a hotel magazine, which covers the entire United States, the Umpqua hotel of this city is given very favorable mention in a two and one-half column article. Roseburg is also given some very favorable advertising as a result of the announcement that the auto caravan will make an all night stop in this city. This magazine goes into practically every hotel in the United States and is widely read. The Umpqua hotel is being advertised all over the country as a 100 per cent "Greeter" hotel. Those who have charge of the reception and entertainment of the guests have all become members of the Greeters' organization, and this fact is bringing the hotel into great prominence. Manager Weaver is now distributing a large number of the Umpqua hotel road maps and card matches in hotels between Roseburg and San Francisco and is conducting a very progressive advertising campaign. The hotel is also sending out a number of the unique postcards recently made by Photographer Hemus which show a panoramic view of Roseburg with inserts of the Umpqua hotel and the "Greeters."

State of Oregon Leads In Timber

Oregon leads the state of Washington more than 100,000,000,000 feet in standing commercial timber, according to the latest reports of the forest service, made in response to a senate resolution calling for data on timber depletion. This estimate, made on all forms of ownership, gives Oregon 444,000,000,000 feet and Washington 301,000,000,000 feet.
In the Douglas fir region of western Oregon and Washington, the report states, there were, before the advent of white men, more than 28,000,000 acres of forest land, though this was not all commercial timber. Thirty per cent of this acreage has been burned over by forest fires, so that the amount of timber available for use is much below what it might have been if every acre contained a normal stand spared by fire. East of the Cascade range, there were about 20,000,000 acres of forest, a very little of which was yellow pine.
The report states that about two and a quarter billion feet of logs are cut annually, while Washington cuts five and a half billion feet. This represents an annual cutting of over 100,000 acres in Oregon and 160,000 acres in Washington.
Since logging in 1846, western and eastern Oregon have cut 24,000,000,000 feet over 1,380,000 acres, and western and eastern Washington have cut 95,000,000,000 feet over 2,950,000 acres.

Expect Heavy Vote in Cal Election

(The Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, August 23.—Records for heavy voting in California will be broken at the state primary election August 31, if all registered voters cast their ballots, as the primary registration totaled 1,252,631 and, according to Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan, was the heaviest in the state's history.
Political affiliation of the voters, in registering, was divided as follows: republicans, 779,854; democrats 282,449; progressives, 6,674; socialists, 19,071; prohibitionists, 19,117, and the balance scattering, about 2500. Those who declined to 143,077. Republican registration exceeded the democratic in every one of the state's fifty-eight counties.
State, district and county tickets will be voted upon at the coming primary. The county tickets, which will include nominations for the superior benches, are principally for non-partisan offices.
The main issues in the election are for the nominations for the following offices:
United States Senator.
Eleven congressmen.
Two justices for short term in the State Supreme Court.
Presiding Justice First Appellate Court District, Div. No. 1.
Presiding Justice First Appellate Court District, Division No. 2.
Presiding Justice Second Appellate Court District, Div. No. 2.
Two justices at Appellate Court District, Div. No. 2.
Two justices Second Appellate Court District, Div. No. 2.
Eighty assemblies.
Twenty senators in the odd-numbered senatorial districts.
In addition, the electors will choose delegates to the state party conventions and elect county central committeemen.
Interest in the election is centered on a three-cornered race for the republican nomination for United States senator, the winner of which will be opposed at the general election November 2, by United States Senator William Kent, who is running unopposed for the democratic nomination. The three republican candidates for the senatorial nomination are William Kent, of Kentfield, Marin county, former re-

Good Baking

A Forerunner to Good Baking

Wherever you find OLYMPIC Flour used in the kitchen, you'll find good bread and pastry in the pantry. That means happy and healthy folks in the family.

Here's Bread You'll Like
A short method of making three loaves, or two loaves and twelve biscuits.
1 1/2 pints tepid water; 2 1/2 tablespoons sugar (level); 1 tablespoon salt (level); 2 cakes compressed yeast; 1 tablespoon shortening; OLYMPIC Flour, well sifted before measuring, enough to make a smooth dough, about 1 1/2 quarts.
Dissolve yeast in part of water, add sugar in remainder. Combine and add OLYMPIC flour to make a smooth batter. Beat until free from lumps, then add rest of flour, sufficient to make a smooth dough. Add melted lard or oil. Knead well, put in greased bowl to rise until double the bulk. Knead down and let rise again until double the bulk. Mold into loaves, let rise till light, bake in moderate oven

There's a great treat sealed up in every package of OLYMPIC Pancake Flour—rich brown pancakes and waffles.
And wherever good flour is sold—of course, you will find OLYMPIC. Put up in 10, 24 1/2 and 49 1/2 pound sacks.

Try OLYMPIC Wheat Hearts, too.

representative from the First District, Samuel M. Shortridge, San Francisco attorney, and Albert J. Wallace, Los Angeles, former lieutenant governor.
No contests will be waged at the primary for nomination for congressmen in four of the state's 11 congressional districts. The uncontested districts are the Third, Fourth, Fifth and Eleventh. In the other districts the voters will have the choice of two or more candidates on the party ballots.
Candidates for the supreme and appellate court justiceships are chosen on non-partisan ballots. The supreme court ticket will list the names of Warren Olney, Jr., of Berkeley, incumbent, who is unopposed for the associate judgeship made vacant by the resignation of Justice M. C. Sloss, and of Justice W. A. Sloane, San Diego, and Judge John M. York, of the Los Angeles county superior court, the latter two being contestants for the unexpired term of the late Justice Henry A. Melvin.
RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE.
At a regular meeting of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school board of Canyonville, August 1st, 1929, the following resolutions were adopted:
WHEREAS, The hand of Divine Providence has removed our beloved pupil Peter Applegate, from our Sunday school, we are desirous of testifying our respect to his memory and expressing our sympathy with the bereaved parents and relatives, therefore, be it
RESOLVED, That we tenderly condole with the sorrowing family in their hour of trial and affliction, and devoutly point them to the keeping of Him who doeth all things well.
RESOLVED, That in our natural sorrow for the loss of our friend, we find consolation in the belief that it is well with him for whom we mourn.
RESOLVED, That we express our sympathy with the parents of our departed pupil, and share with them the hope of a reunion in that better world, where there are no more partings.
RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be sent the parents of the departed brother as a token of our respect for the character of a good boy, and of the interest felt by the Sunday school board.
When the trials of earth are over And the cares of life are done, Then He'll gather home his loved ones— Gather them all in one by one.
Where no moth nor rust can enter— Gates of pearl and streets of gold, With the light of love still burning They'll be sheltered from the cold.
Sheltered from all storm and sorrow, Sheltered from all care and pain, In the dawn of blessed tomorrow When He comes to earth again.

Pass this all along the line etc.

Thursday P. M.

DEAR PETE:

Just blew into Pittsburg to close that N and P purchase. While I was waiting for the contract to be signed who ambles in to the G. M.'s office but President Holt! Asked me if I had a cigarette. Slipped him my "Camel Garage." Remember, he hit the "straight" boys when I met him last year?

Pete, you ought to hear Mr. Holt talk Camels! Gee, I thought I was some Camel pieler. But he went right to the mat with the subject. Say, if I could have shorthanded that line of super-stuff I'd have the job writing Camel ads by noon today!

"Reynolds ought to get a dollar for every Camel cigarette", Mr. Holt declared. "Why, my boy, Camels are simply wonderful," he added. "Don't ever let anybody talk about mild cigarettes compared with Camels! I know! (Get that, Pete). I've proved it to a hundred smokers that Camels are the mellowest and most refreshing cigarette in the world," etc., etc.

Pete, Camels won Mr. Holt like they won me—on their quality! After hearing him cut loose, I felt like saying: "You tell it, old parcel post, I can't express it!"

Pete, I'm hatching an idea about Camels. I'll spill it your direction next time I write! It's what York State folks call a "pip-ing!" And it's rips!

Yours till the next fire-up.

Shorty.
