SEVERAL REALTY DEALS MADE.

Dr. J. F. Campbell, recently of Texas, has purchased the Noble Andrews place of 40 acres, situated near Myrtle Creek. Thirty acres of the place are planted to prunes and 10 acres are in bearing. This is the third property in the Myrtle Creek country that has been bought within a few weeks by Dr. Campbell. Chas. McElhinny and R. L. Whipple have just closed a deal for a 95 acre tract in the Curry estate platting, and will improve the property. Another tract in the Curry estate, consisting of 21 acres, has been purchased by O. B. Ridgeway, of Jamestown, N. D., who will plant the property largely to prunes. All of these deals were made by W. A. Bogard.

FARM BUREAU MEETINGS

A meeting of the executive committees of the Douglas County Farm Bureau was held last night in the offices of County Agent Haslett. Mr. Haslett discussed the eastern form of organization which may be adopted in this county. Various other matters and forms of organization were also discussed.

PREMIUM LISTS OUT.

The premium lists for the Land Products show are now out and may be obtained from the county agent. A great deal of interest is being shown in this show and there will doubtless be a great many excellent exhibits placed on display. Considerable interest is also being shown in the stock sale which is to be made a part of the show this year.

INSPECTING TRAIL.

George Bonebrake, deputy forest supervisor and O. C. Houser, chief ranger left this morning for the Wolf Creek-Black Rock section of the forest where they will inspect the trail work that has been done and lay out some new trail. They will also make an examination of the range in that vicinity.

SCHOOL STARTS MONDAY.

School time is again here. It means supplying school outfits for the youngsters, and the store that will save you money is indeed welcome. Such a store is Carr's. We have complete lines of hosiery, underwear, handkerchiefs, ribbons, etc., besides the tablets, pencils, etc., at prices that warrant your attention. Carr's store carries quality goods at a lower price. Try them next time. It pays.

AROUND THE TOWN

Rev. Hilton Home—

Rev. C. H. Hilton, returned last night from Portland where he has been attending a meeting of the state board of the Christian Church.

Girls to Attend School—

Mrs. Ralph Lane and daughter and Mrs. Hattie McAfee left this morning for Albany. Mrs. Lane will place her daughters in school in Albany, and Mrs. McAfee was accompanied by Thelma Newhardt, who will also attend school at Albany.

Riverside Laundry—

In opening up this establishment it is not my aim to run a large laundry nor a cheap one, but to be reasonable and try to please those who appreciate good work. Gentlemen's work is my specialty. Special rates made on family work. Telephone 467, or leave laundry at either Willard's or Rose's barber shop. Riverside Laundry, 540 N. Pine street.

LOVE and MARRIED LIFE
by the noted author Idah McGlone Gibson

OUR ANNIVERSARY

"Oh, what a beautiful car and what an extravagant man you are" I exclaimed. "Surely I didn't need a car all to myself."

"You didn't think I would buy something you need for a present, did you Katherine? This car is yours and that chauffeur, as long as he is suitable, is to drive it." Karl then introduced my chauffeur, Jameson, to me.

"Take us to Mrs. Alice Staunton's" I said to Jameson and then turning to Karl and added: "Don't you think I am foolish; but I have an idea that this is the very car that Alice described to me as the most beautiful one she ever saw and want her to know you bought it for me."

Before we arrived at Alice's I heard my daughter's voice calling "Mother, Mother, where are you going mother?"

Jameson drew up to the curb.

"My goodness, but your'e swell," said Robert Gaylord, Jr., who was with her. "Do you think," he said to Karl, "That Mrs. Shepard is going to give this car to me and Mary for a wedding present?"

"No, sir, I'm not," I answered and as Jameson opened the door for them to step into the car I added in a bantering way, "Cars like this are given only as a reward of merit."

"Let me see, how long has it taken you to earn it, mother?" said Mary mischievously.

"Twenty years," said Karl.

"Gracious Bob, if you don't give me a car like that in less than 20 years, I'll leave you for a man who will."

"You see, Katherine," said Karl, "that's the modern girl talking. She doesn't hesitate to tell the man she's going to marry that if he doesn't mind his p's and q's and behave himself, he'll find no happy home with her."

Rob put his hand over Mary's. I knew that he wasn't quite comfortable under Karl's mischevious characterization of Mary.

"Never mind, Rob," I said. "We'll see if we can't throw a stop to Miss Mary's mercenary nature and keep her love for you by lending her this car occasionally."

"I don't care a bit about your car," said Mary quite unexpectedly, "I'm just as happy riding around with Rob in his flivver."

A smile of perfect content spread over Roberts face.

"Where shall we take you? Where are you going?"

"Well, we weren't going anywhere in particular," said Rob. "There are so many of the children about over at mothers that we just thought we had to get away and talk it all over."

"Talk what over," said Karl.

Well, don't suppose it does seem very wonderful to you old married folks, but just at the present, the most wonderful thing in the world to Mary and me is that we are to be married three weeks from today.

"You see, we decided to hold a kind of anniversary."

"What?" said Karl.

"Yes, a before-hand anniversary."

"Well, you are modern, but if that's the case, you will want to be alone. Did you know, Mary, that your mother and I are holding an anniversary?"

"Oh, yes, I remember," said Mary in matter-of-fact tones. "You and mother have been married twenty years."

As she said this, both she and Rob turned and looked at us curiously. And I heard Mary remark, as they left us, "Do you suppose, Bob, that they can love each other as much now, when they are old, as we do now when we are young?"

I didn't hear Robert's answer for Jameson was whisking us away down the long shore drive.

Tomorrow—Hail and Farewell.

Watch for the Idah McGlone Gibson new serial, "Her Daughter and His Son," starting in next Monday. Be sure and read the start of it—it's going to be a jim-dandy.

A friend in need is a friend indeed. That is a Pyrene. You don't realize until you need it. H. Merten.

FRANCIS WEIRATH, foreman at Goodrich Rubber Co., Akron Ohio, who declares he has improved so since taking Tanlac, that no one would ever take him to be the same man. Says he gained fourteen pounds.

"To look at me today no one would ever take me to be the same man I was before I began to take Tanlac. It has simply done wonders for me and I want everybody to know about this medicine," said Francis Weirath foreman of a large department of the Goodrich Rubber Company plant at Akron, Ohio. Mr. Weirath resides at 210 West State street that city.

"I was in an awfully bad state of health for fourteen years, and during the past ten years I got to the point where life was a burden. I suffered terribly with indigestion and dyspepsia. I never had any appetite and all I could eat for breakfast was a soft boiled egg and a little milk. I would get so nervous and miserable that many a night I never slept a wink, and when nothing else would bring relief, I had just about come to the conclusion that my case was hopeless.

"I haven't taken but three bottles of Tanlac, but I feel better than I have felt for twelve years. I have gained fourteen pounds in weight and am getting heavier and stronger every day. I never have indigestion any more, my appetite is splendid, and I eat just anything and everything I want. I sleep sound every night, and all that tired, worn-out feeling is gone. In fact, I am a well man in every way.

"The men at the plant tell me that I am looking fine these days and getting fat. They all want to know what I am doing to myself, and it is a pleasure for me to tell them about Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Roseburg by W. F. Chapman and by the leading druggists everywhere.

B. F. Page arrived in Roseburg Thursday, following an extended trip which included Norfolk, Virginia, Washington, D. C., and many other places. Mr. Page has been absent a little over three months and has traveled since he left Roseburg 8422 miles. This is exclusive of small side trips and short auto trips.

"FREEZONE"
Lift Off Corns! No Pain!

Doesn't hurt a bit. Drop a little Freezone on an aching corn instantly the corn stops hurting and shortly you lift it right off with fingers. Truly!

Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of Freezone for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

KINDERGARTEN AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION.

The kindergarten classes of the Heinline-Moore Conservatory begin Monday, Sept. 13th, and since it is important that the babies begin their work together, parents are urged to enter them on Monday morning. Please phone the studio if you wish the car to call for your child.

The Physical Education classes begin Monday also, and Mrs. Turner would like to meet all pupils of the grades and high school at 4 o'clock. The ladies' classes will start at 7 o'clock Monday evening and both old and new members are asked to come so that they may be grouped properly.

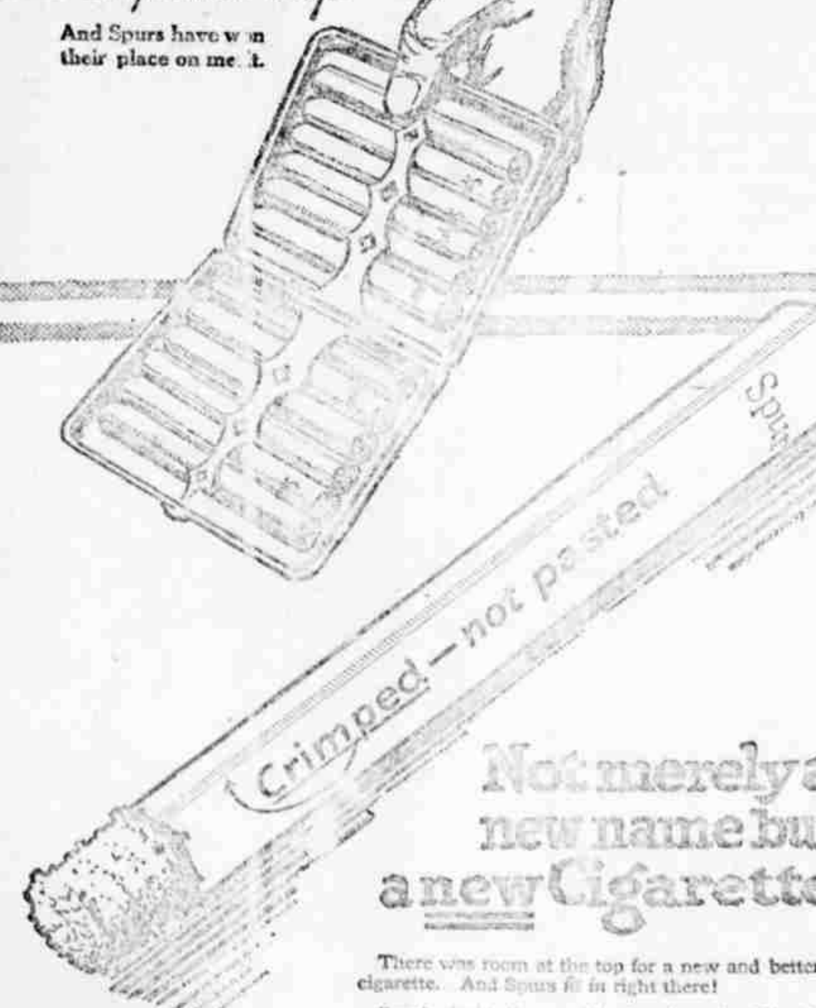
There's always room at the top
And Spurs have won their place on merit.



Not merely a new name but a new Cigarette

There was room at the top for a new and better cigarette. And Spurs fit in right there!

Spur's decidedly new blend makes the Orient's choicest tobaccos and America's finest yield more richness, aroma and mellowness than you thought a cigarette could have. A new method of rolling, crimped, not pasted, makes Spur's good old tobacco taste last longer.

If you're fed-up with ordinary cigarettes, Spurs will give you a fresh start.
