

MOVIE CLOSE-UPS

Mary Pickford will appear again in the new picture "Daddy Long Legs" at the Majestic theatre. The picture was shown at the Antlers theatre with fine results. Mary Pickford has won her way into the hearts of all by her really clever acting and nothing that she has done is better than "Daddy Long Legs." The story is itself especially good. The little orphan girl, Abby, and her trials which she has come out all right in the end through the influence of her guardian angel, Daddy Long Legs.

The stellar attraction at the Liberty Theatre this evening will be the new picture "Ruth Roland serial" for which so many have been anxious waiting. The serial is released through Pathe and is taken from the novel "Broadway Baby" by John McCullay. The cast is as follows:

Ruth Roland
Herbert H. Hayes
Thomas Lingham
Jack Rollins
Fred Burns
William Gillis
Gilbert Holmes
"Ruth of the Rockies" is the name of the serial and its name implies a fascinating story of the great outdoors and the big hearted men. The serial is a hair-raising, death-defying stunt which that goes to make up a serial. It is a picture of a woman, Ruth, who is a waitress, a detective and in various other characters. It has a single handed fight with a bear and a picture which is a three episode.

In honor to "Paramount week" which began on September 5 and ends on September 11 the management of the Liberty Theatre has decided to show the Paramount picture, "The Third Kiss." It is a story of a woman, Ruth, who is a waitress, a detective and in various other characters. It has a single handed fight with a bear and a picture which is a three episode.

GETS FINE APPOINTMENT

Mr. W. H. Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hamilton, has been appointed assistant librarian at the University of Oregon, according to the report here. This is a position of much importance, carrying a great deal of responsibility and the person to fill it has been carefully chosen. It is a decided honor to Miss Hamilton, who was formerly a student at the University and who has been visiting in Eugene for the past two weeks.

H. B. Warner, the fashion plate of the screen will be seen at the Liberty tonight.

Through the deception of Austin Bennett, a faithless friend, Felix O'Day suffers the loss of his wife's affections. Sworn to have revenge he follows the faithless pair to New York, where they disappear.

He becomes interested in an old antique dealer and his little daughter, Annette. Circumstances bring the wife and lover to the same neighborhood. On various occasions Felix just misses discovering his betrayer. Finally his wife flees, he discovers her passing the antique shop. He compels her to tell him where he can find Bennett.

In escaping Bennett is killed and Felix O'Day is saved from the crime he had sworn to do. He cares for his wife during her remaining days but with love in his heart for Annette.

Several important changes are to be made at the Antlers and Majestic theatres in the near future that will effectively improve their appearance and comfort. The lobby of the Antlers is to be re-arranged so as to do away with any possibility of any draft penetrating into the interior. The ticket window, now on the right as you enter is to be placed in the center of the lobby and the entrance now in the center, will be placed in the space formerly occupied by the ticket window. At the Majestic theatre the interior and exterior will undergo a complete renovation. It will be thoroughly cleaned and painted. These changes and others are to take place within the next two weeks.

Billie Burke, the Paramount-Artcraft star and her husband, Florence Ziegfeld were sitting on the veranda of their home at Hastings-on-the-Hudson, Patricia, their charming daughter was in her mother's lap. It was a humid evening of the kind that brings out the mosquitoes, and they were annoying Mr. Ziegfeld. Finally losing his patience, he exclaimed, "Oh, damn those mosquitoes! Patricia looked up into her mother's eyes and said, "Oh, damn those things!"

Mr. Ziegfeld is never going to swear again.

Managers Douglas and Williams of the Liberty theatre today announced that a large electric sign will soon arrive here and will be placed across the street. The sign will be one of the largest in the city and will undoubtedly prove to enlighten things on Jackson street. The sign will flash at intervals and two huge torches on each side of the lettering "Liberty" will blaze alternately.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. McMillin and daughter Vera, Mr. and Mrs. Perci Todd and son Paul, returned last night from a week's visit in Portland. The party made the trip by auto, and although the rain yesterday threatened to make the drive home disagreeable they got along fine by cutting over the new highway paving north of Oakland, which was quite a help.

Since 1910 the school of forestry graduates in the last three years are now pulling down salaries ranging from $2500 to $4000 in the logging industry. Several of the graduates are holding responsible business positions. One man is president of a national bank, two others are serving as cashiers in banks. One graduate is deputy state forester, another is chief engineer for a large logging corporation. Some are engaged in merchandising forest products, while others are holding various engineering positions.
