IOVE and MARRIED LIFE by the noted author Idah My Glone Gibson

HAIL AND PAREWELL,

HAIL AND FAREWELL.

If was then that f turned to my shad and calling his attention to unshard and realize factor. You love me as much gent years, you love me as much gent his look all the secret things in his land boy love Mary. You love me as much last how have well and took my kair moved quickly and took my kair moved quickly and took my kair shaved quickly and took my kair have he will be part that I had known Karl Sheppish have been happy in marriage. Yes, that two can be happy in marriage. And I also want you to know that it was very possible that had not fate stepped in and torn your own father from me, we, too, might have been happy. And yet, that land missing genething his that I am missing genething his that I am missing genething his forward and realize that some his forward after you have set set of it.

It all the long years we have sensed through life together.

It all the long years we have sensed through life together.

It all the long years we have sensed through life together.

It all the long years we have sensely through life together.

set kind of love that makes by the love that I am not with you. When I had ferward and resilize that some forward and resilize that some forward and resilize that some forms of one of us will be hore, alone, or one of the other's absence, it passes to determine the solid heart to be the level that I could hear to be the level that I could hear to be the level that I could heart to be the level that I could hear to be the long years we have sensed through life together. It is always meant to me to realist of hearings—happiness.

If all the long years we have sensed through life together, you have heen the one ignorable that has always meant to me to realist of the sings—happiness.

If all the long years we have sensed through life together. We have sensed through life to get hear and tark, and misunders and mand tark, and misunders and mand tark, and misunders and happiness, joy and contentment have your sin fullest measure is the fondest hope of your devoted mother and sorrow come. For, at last, in the fullness of Time, you will come that does not make for better things and nothing is sent to us that we are considered that the fullness of Time, you will come the fullness of time, you have been the one of the fullness of time, you have been the one.

I all the long years we have sensed the transmitted him to the fullness of time, you will come the fullness of the your course.

I all the long the full the long the full the long that the fullness of time, you are the age Katherine, in the summed at do not let the sin of intolerance for ag fervently that I would not others crosep in, for that in the full-had son changed in any part, when the time comes for is the unpardonable sin for which is die I shall ask no more of we mortals are punished most.

In this picture she appears as a little factory girl, who, although mone snapeers it, is rich, she being the owner of the factory in which she is employed. She denies herself the inxuries of life and works among the people whose lives she is striving to make brighter by deveting all her space time to settlement work.

"Blind Husbands" is pronounced as a daring photodrams, based on two days immediately following the war which cannot but open the eyes of the typical American husband to she danger of indifference toward the woman he selected as a lifemate. It is declared to be amazing in its inoffensive handling of so vital a subject.

Emmy Whelen, the golden haired rown eyed star will be the star at Coupled with his 'pleasing personality, H. B. Warner, starring in 'Pelix O'Day' the Jesse D. Hampton-Pathe production appearing to day at the Liberty theatre, is noted for his fastidiousness in dress.

Mr. Warner believes and rightly so, that an actor should be just as careful regarding his personal appearance as he is in interpreting the part he is playing. This immaculateness in clothes can be appreciated by all who have witnessed this steriling seter in all his screen plays.

It is a credit to be called stylish mowadays, but Mr. Warner has thouland screen distinction of knowing what to wear and how to wear it, in many communities Mr. Warner is the criterion for mannish fashions.

The bestial nature of a libertine 'Swape Gordon, known to every photoplay fut is a regal counters.

As a lieutenant of the Austrian Army, the starring villain goes to a problemable resort in the Alps to resolve the starring villain goes to a row ownsakind. There he meets it is, is seen in the Virst part of the Markaret Armstrong, who is a loved last tauth and the virst part of the picture of the Mr. Kerrigan as an Irish moes by Armstrong makes a discovery, unserts something werse, and his same and tortured when the interest something werse, and his same and tortured when the interest something werse, and his same and his own company out is searced and tortured when the interest something werse, and his acting talent and personality.
