STERLING PIONEER.

Death of B. F. Nichols, "Uncle Frank," at his home at Tumalo, in Deschutes county, removes one more sterling pioneer figure from the thinning ranks of early builders of Oregon.

Mr. Nichols came to Oregon in 1844, and was a builder from the time he came. He lived to the ripe age of 95. He is survived by his daughter, Miss Molly Nichols, and his niece, Mrs. Fred N. Wallace, both of Tumalo, and both engaged in pioneer development work.

Mr. Nichols was one of a celebrated pioneer twin of Tumalo, the other being "Marsh" Aubrey, pioneer of 1843, and one of the courageous characters in central Oregon development. Mr. Aubrey is spending his declining years, after a lifetime of intense activity, in the Soldiers Home at Roseburg—Oregon Voter.

REALTY BOARD TAKES ACTION

The following resolutions against the 5 percent interest rate bill have been passed by the Douglas County Realty Board:

WHEREAS, there has been initiated a constitutional amendment, wherein it is proposed to amend article 9, making the legal rate of interest 4 percent with a maximum rate on contract of 5 percent, and

WHEREAS said amendment will be submitted to the legal voters for their decision at the election to be held on November 2nd, next, and

WHEREAS such a measure, in the event of its success at said election will drive from our state all surplus money, and make it impossible for our farmers, merchants and laborers to borrow money in case of necessity and

WHEREAS such a law would cause all development in our state to cease, and drive from our borders thousands of people who are dependent upon industrial progress for a livelihood, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, by the Douglas county Realty Board in special session assembled, that we condemn this vicious measure as coming from the enemy of the future progress and development of our state, and be it further

RESOLVED that we urge all voters to make a careful and critical study of the true meaning of the proposed amendment, and to vote 315 No., and that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our minutes and a copy sent to the press of our county.
