GERMANY BOOSTS ATHLETICS.

BERLIN, Sept. 11.—Germany plans to create a special government department of athletics and sports to build up scientifically and systematically the young generation, which was greatly weakened by privations undergone during the war.

GIVES HUSBAND TO SISTER.

LONDON, Sept. 11.—Alfred John Williams, 21, was arraigned on a charge of bigamy in marrying Ethel Westbrook, 21, his wife's sister. Miss Westbrook told the police that her sister told her "Williams wanted you and if he can't have you he will go away. Rather than let him go you can have him." She said she married him in order that her sister would not lose her husband.

WINDMILL FROM JOHN D.

SARASOTA, N. Y., Sept. 11.—John D. Rockefeller handed an inside tip on a motor boat owner on St. Regis lake. The man in the boat ventured to ask John D. if gasoline ever would be any lower. "Yes," replied Mr. Rockefeller. "It is bound to be lower so long as the public continues to consume more than the wells produce." The boatman is still thinking it over.

ROCKING CHAIRS GET O. K.

PARIS, Sept. 11.—The humble rocking chair, sometimes spurned when style is ranked above comfort, has come into its own with the backing of no less an institution than the French Academy of Music. The academy pronounced it the most healthful of chairs and recommends its general adoption.

HER DAUGHTER AND HIS SON

A great married life story by IDAH McGLONE GIESON.

GRACE CAMERON'S YOUTH

I cannot remember when I did not envy Grace Cameron. You see, we lived on the same street, but she came from the beautiful colonial house with pillars that rose white and stately from the floor of the side porch at one end of the short shady street, while I lived at the other end in a tiny cottage that was already tumbling to decay.

I remember that the big house in which she lived used to appeal to my childish love of mystery. For, although I was not invited into it until I was a young woman, and only a few times then, as a child I laid all the plots of my fairy tales there and I peopled the house with fairies and the gnomes which always became real to me when I saw the golden haired Grace Cameron, (Grace is three years younger than I) carried around in the arms of her hump-backed and mis-shapen colored nanny.

Grace Cameron, had always been one of the most beautiful women, physically that I have ever known. She is a radiant blonde. It was only yesterday that I read the remark of a famous author and philosopher, who said that if he were to be born a woman, he would want to be born a blonde, "because the tender blue eyes and the golden hair and peachy and cream complexion of the blonde woman appealed to a man as something fragile, something to be cared for, treasured and protected."

"A woman does not need brains if she is a blonde," sentimentally remarked this man. "For a glance of her eyes a man gives the blonde that which the brunette woman must plan and work for. The blonde woman takes a man by storm. She enters his heart through his egotistical sense of protecting the weak and the beautiful, while the brown or black eyes of the brunette, no matter how great the 'Come Hither' in them always gives him the sense that their possessor is quite able to take care of herself."

Grace Cameron's golden hair fell about her face in a profusion of curls that a movie actress strives to

Millions for a New Stomach

One of the greatest American millionaires said to his physician, "A million dollars, Doctor, spot cash and no grumbling, for a new stomach," and then the sick man groaned and turned away.

All his wealth could not make him happy or contented, for happiness largely depends upon digestion. Without health where does happiness come in? After all the stomach plays a great part in everyday life. Without a healthy stomach and good digestion our blood is thin, watery and poor, our heart action is weak, our liver does not do its duty, and man is miserable and unhappy. Prevent disease by putting the house in order and strengthening the system against the germs of disease.

Dr. Pierce, of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y., years ago understood diseases and their prevention, and he discovered certain roots and herbs which were nature's remedies, and succeeded in putting them up in a form that could be easily procured at the drug store (liquid or tablets). This he called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This Discovery gives no false stimulation because it contains no alcohol or any narcotic. It helps digestion and the assimilation of such elements in the food as are required for the blood. It gives to the blood the food elements the tissues require. For over fifty years it has enjoyed the confidence of the American public. Try it now!
